Will Rogers Remarks:

BEVERLY HILLS, Dec. 19. [To the Editor of The Times:] Congress has been in session almost a month and just today passed the very bills that President Hoover suggested in the first hour that it met. They could have passed 'em the second hour; but no, that wouldn't give 'em a chance to denounce. A foreigner coming here and reading the Congressional Record would say that the President of the United States was elected solely for the purpose of giving a Senator somebody to call horse thief, and the dumb part about it is they have played right into the President's hands, for there is nobody the people believe in any more than some one the Senate is denouncing. Six months like that and Hoover would be re-elected by acclamation.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

RYKOFF OUT IN RUSSIA

Lenin Successor Relieved of Job

Long-Expected Shake-up in Ranks of Soviet Union Comes to Pass

Molotoff, Communist Party Secretary Announced as Next "Premier"

MOSCOW, Dec. 19. (AP)—Alexis I. Rykoff, chairman of the council of people's commissars of the soviet union, today was removed from the office at his own request by the central executive committee.

The executive committee immediately announced his successor will be Viacheslav Mikailovich Molotoff, one of the three secretaries of the Communist party.

The possibility of a shake-up in the administrative posts in the soviet government has loomed for some time, centering about Rykoff himself, whose post corresponds to that of premier or president in other countries.

Rykoff was seriously cricitised by various organizations throughout the union because of his former "right wing" activities.

The only other man to have held this post was Lenin himself, Ry-

RAIL TRAVEL ABOOMING

Trains to Coast Overflow

Rock Island Running Crack Limited to California in Two Sections

Heaviest Movement in Years Reported by Santa Fe; Other Roads Prosper

CHICAGO, Dec. 19. (Exclusive)—Christmas rail travel, cross-continent and to the south, has not followed the curve of the depression but is booming along with as much or greater volume than last season.

Inquiries of the passenger traffic managers of a number of lines brought this heartening word today. Some roads are experiencing better business; others are "normal," and none has been pinched to an appreciable degree. More people are traveling, taking advantage of the prevailing rates to the Pacific Coast and below the Mason-Dixon line.

These special fares have forced the roads to add extra cars and even extra sections for vacationists who choose the midwinter for their annual holiday.

The Rock Island trains to California are now booked to such a degree that the Golden State Limited will consist of two sections several times between now and Christmas Day, the officials said. Holiday business is heavier this year than last, Vice-President L. M. Allen reported.

The Chicago and Northwestern has a "good" holiday business. Sale of California tickets started in earnest three days ago.

Tonight was one of the heaviest business nights the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad has had in many months, extra coaches and sleepers to the West being necessitated.

The heaviest passenger movement experienced by the Santa Fe Railway in years was reported by W. J. Black, passenger traffic manager.

The Burlington, which connects at Denver with lines for the Coast, is running several of its trains in two or more sections.

LINDBERGHS CHECK FIRE IN MOTOR

Both Act Quickly When Flames Shoot and Flight Delayed Two Hours

BALTIMORE, Dec. 19. (AP)—Flames burst from the motor of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's red and black monoplane here today and both he and Mrs. Lindbergh, the former Anne Morrow, showed presence of mind in checking them before serious damage was done.

The trans-Atlantic flyer was twirling the propeller, aided by a mechanic, when, without warning, smoke and flames burst from under the cowl about the motor. Apparently gasoline and oil ignited from backfire.

Col. Lindbergh ran to the cockpit, where his wife was seated, seized a hand fire extinguisher, opened the cowling and began squirting the chemical into the motor.

Mrs. Lindbergh was seated in the pilot's seat, the controls in front of her, and she shut off both the flow of gasoline and the ignition, preventing more serious danger.

The fire delayed the flight about two hours. The plane was gone over thoroughly, minor repairs made and shortly before 3 o'clock the Lindberghs roared away for Newark.

LEWIS FOILS PRIZE CRITIC BY AGREEING

Author Says He Thinks Nobel Award Should Have Gone to Willa Cather

GOTHENBURG (Sweden) Dec. 19. (AP)—A huge audience, many of the members of which had paid for their seats far in advance, tonight heard Sinclair Lewis deal once more with American criticism of his Nobel prize award for literature.

The red-headed author of "Babbitt" said he had been told that a "gentleman named Van Dyke" had thought the Nobel committee was wrong and should have given the award to Willa Cather, the novelist.

"So would I," said Lewis, "I am very sorry to agree with Mr. Van Dyke, but I really have to. I am sure he is equally sorry to agree with me."

Mr. Lewis denied he ever had attempted to give a complete description of American life.

"America is a continent, not a country," he continued. "And Stockholm and Rome might as well unite on the subject as San Francisco and New York."

Mr. Lewis said he found Europeans just as foolish as Americans.

"Why," he queried, "don't they agree about pan-Europe instead of quarreling? Why the idiocy of putting on stiff evening clothes like mine?"

Future Wall-Street Wizards Will Be Women if— Columbia Co-eds Learn Enough in School

NEW YORK, Dec. 19. (Exclusive)—The future wizards of Wall street will be women if Barnard College has its way. Barnard is the part of Columbia University dedicated to feminine education and today the girls are busy taking class-room "flyers" in the stock market, organizing mythical "pools" and raiding the list generally from Abitibi to Zenith Radio with imaginary money. Such petty problems of the future as keeping household budgets probably will be delegated to mythical husbands by these Hetty Greens of tomorrow.

The class in financial organization and investment is a new course for the junior and senior girls at Barnard. The college authorities took a look at the present condition of the financial world and decided a feminine slant on the economic situation might prove of considerable value. Dr. Elizabeth F. Baker, who spent a year in a downtown bank after receiving her doctor's degree, undertook the development of the class and is giving the girls the benefit of her first-hand experience in business procedure.

The young women, it is said at the college, are taking as much interest in the stock market as a bank clerk caught short, and the class has a capacity enrollment. Great expectations are held that the next "wolf of Wall street" will wear petticoats—if petticoats happen to be in style. At any rate the girls are getting their education on paper and that is the only fool-proof method.

The girls now are learning the mysteries of financial reports, standard statistics and scientific analysis. At least once a month they will visit the stock exchange and the present crop of Wall-street experts (male) have been invited to deliver lectures at the college.

DAUGHTER OF HUGHES MARRIES

Chief Justice Gives Bride Away at Noon Ceremony; Hoovers Send Silver Urns

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (AP)—Chief Justice Hughes today gave his youngest daughter, Miss Elizabeth Evans Hughes, in marriage to William Thomas Gossett of New York.

The noon ceremony, witnessed only by relatives, was performed by Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick, pastor of Riverside Church, New York, assisted by Dr. William S. Abernethy, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, Washington.

Among the most beautiful of the wedding gifts was a pair of large and exquisitely wrought silver urns on pedestals, suitable for holding large bouquets in a decorative scheme—an expression of the good wishes of President and Mrs. Hoover.

The flower and palm decorations of the Hughes home also were enhanced by a floral piece, a gift of Mrs. Hoover.

CASHIER OF NORTHERN BANK FOUND

Official of Institution at Oakley Walks Into Hotel After Accident

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 19. (Exclusive)—P. A. Anderson, cashier of the Bank of Oakley, Contra Costa county, wandered into a Brentwood hotel tonight in a dazed condition after his absence for a day, following an early morning automobile accident. He had left the bank with no way of opening the vault and the State Banking Department was faced with the possibility of having to dynamite it in order to examine the books.

Anderson, in a state of complete exhaustion, was ordered to bed and a doctor called in. It was said he will be able to return to Oakley tomorrow. He was able to give an account of the automobile accident and stated that absolutely nothing is wrong with the bank.

Anderson said he had been working too hard and feeling nervous and unable to sleep had gone for a ride in his car late last night. About 3 o'clock this morning, he said, he smashed into a loading rack near Brentwood. The smash dazed him and he said he did not know what he had been doing since, except wandering around.

The president of the bank, J. H. Shaw, was absent in the Imperial Valley this morning. When the cashier did not arrive, the other employees of the bank did not have the vault combination. The bank remained closed and the State Banking Department was notified.

Superintendent of Banks Will C. Wood sent examiners to Oakley to take over the bank and arrange for the opening of the vault.

Closing 'Hole' in Fence at Border Strands Scores

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 19. (AP)—Scores of Americans were left stranded suddenly at Tia Juana tonight when the famous "hole in the fence" at the international border was found to have been closed.

The port of entry at the border closes officially at 6 p.m. A few rods away is a spot in the barbwire fence where the wire has been loose for several years, and it is at this point that the belated revelers have crossed the line.

Today the Federal Bureau of Animal Husbandry, which has charge of the fence, tightened the wire and closed the gap without warning.

A few who tried to scale the fence were taken into custody.

GIGANTIC RELIEF EFFORT TO BEGIN IMMEDIATELY

Drought Aid Measure Passage and Outlook for Employment Bill Point to Speedy Action

BY LAURENCE M. BENEDICT
"Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (Exclusive)—The administration has formulated a concrete program of drought and unemployment relief which will become operative immediately. The passage today of the $45,000,000 drought relief bill and the anticipated passage tomorrow of the $116,000,000 general emergency relief measure finds the administration prepared to undertake the gigantic task of relief on the widest possible scale.

For relief of unemployment the President's program contemplates expenditure on public works during the next calendar year of $700,000,000. This is an increase of $426,000,000 over expenditures for similar projects during the fiscal year of 1928-1929.

This fund will be spread out over the country on work which can be undertaken immediately, thus assuring employment to many thousands of workers in all crafts during the critical period of the next six months. The President has said that the test of the government's relief plans will be their ability to furnish wages to idle men between January 1 and June 30, 1931.

AUTHORIZED PROJECTS

In order that wages may be paid the administration will concentrate on such work as has been authorized and which may be pushed without the further consideration of legal forms and departmental red tape.

Mr. Hoover has mapped out seven avenues through which relief for drought-stricken farmers may be made available without undue delay or difficulty.

Loans will be made to farmers for the purchase of feed for working live stock and seed for the succeeding year's crops.

The drought States will participate to a large extent in increased Federal grants for highway construction.

These grants will assure the employment of more labor within those States.

RIVERS AND HARBORS

The drought States also will participate in the emergency construction program, and work on rivers and harbors.

Expansion of credit activities as a corollary of the general relief program will be effective in easing financial strain in the drought districts.

Reduced freight rates have materially aided the drought States in promoting movement of feed for live stock and other necessities, the effect of which will be enhanced as other measures of relief become operative.

The activities of the Red Cross will assure aid for human suffering during the winter months.

CONFIDENCE IN RESULT

The administration is confident that this program should operate effectively now that Congress is providing the financial means of putting into effect the President's ideas and it is understood Mr. Hoover feels that with it operative, anxiety should be relieved in the drought States.

In his message to Congress Mr. Hoover pointed out that the emergency relief fund he requested for construction would imply an expenditure of $650,000,000 during the next twelve months. That total is now increased to an estimated $700,000,000 which means that in addition to the $116,000,000 emergency expenditures on work which can be immediately undertaken the government will go ahead with $564,000,000 worth of construction.

CONSTRUCTION BILL

There appears little doubt that the emergency construction bill will pass tomorrow, at least the White House appears to entertain no such doubt, and with its appropriation of $116,000,000 it represents a clean-cut victory for the administration. It is recalled that while the bill as originally presented appropriated $150,000,000, the President in his message to Congress did not specifically ask that sum. He asked for an appropriation of "from $100,000,000 to $150,000,000." In regard to the $45,000,000 drought relief bill it is pointed out that Mr. Hoover did not formally specify a particular sum, merely asking an appropriation for that purpose. The administration was represented as desiring

INDIA RULER TO RETIRE

Lord Willingdon Made Viceroy

Appointment of Canadian Governor-General Causes Surprise

Lord Irwin Has Held Post Since 1925 and Wished to Be Relieved

LONDON, Dec. 19. (AP)—Viscount Willingdon, present Governor-General of Canada, will succeed Lord Irwin as Viceroy and Governor-General of India when the latter's term expires in March, 1931, it was officially announced today.

News of the appointment occasioned some surprise in Great Britain, for, although Lord Willingdon's name was occasionally mentioned in early stages of the discussions regarding Lord Irwin's successor, little had been heard of the proposal lately. The suggestion Premier Ramsay MacDonald himself might take the Viceroyalty had been more frequently put forward of late.

LIBERAL IN POLITICS

A Liberal by political faith, he was Governor of Bombay from 1913 to 1919 and of Madras from 1919 to 1924. In both posts he earned a reputation for his tact and conciliatory attitude.

The success of his work in India was signalized by his promotion to the rank of Viscount. He had previously been honored with the highest decorations of the orders of the Indian Empire, the British Empire and the Star of India.

It has been known for some time that Lord Irwin, who has felt the strain of the most difficult if perhaps the most important post the empire can offer, had no wish for a further term of office and to that extent the change in viceroys is without political significance.

Lord Irwin, the retiring Viceroy of India, has held that post since October, 1925.

ATTEMPTS ON LIFE

After four years of administration in India, during which there were desultory outbreaks of native unrest, Lord Irwin attained the difficult position of having gained a degree of friendship when he announced in November, 1929, that the British government desired a dominion status for India.

A parley that followed between Lord Irwin and Indian Nationalist leaders on the political future of India failed to reach an understanding, however, and subsequently several attempts were made on the Viceroy's life.

Since early this year he has been occupied with meeting the civil disobedience campaign led by Mahatma Gandhi.

RAIL WORKERS AID IDLE

Voluntary Reduction of Monthly Mileage Made So as to Provide Jobs for Unemployed

CLEVELAND, Dec. 19. (AP)—Voluntary reduction of monthly mileage to give jobs to idle fellow-workmen has been partly effected by members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, presidents of the two organizations announced today.

The reduction of mileage reduces the wages of those sharing their jobs with the unemployed, for payment is on a monthly mileage basis, the announcement said, adding it will cost the roads nothing.

Arthur F. Whitney, president of the trainmen, said the plan of his organization is now in operation on the Central of Georgia, Chicago and Great Western, Big Four, Detroit and Toledo South Shore Line, Soo Line, Lackawanna and Wyoming Valley, Boston and Maine, Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh, Bessemer and Lake Erie, Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville and the Reading.

Negotiations are under way, Whitney said, to extend the plan to all the railroads of the country. Even if adopted on all roads, he said, it will not care for all of the 40,000 unemployed trainmen. This brotherhood has a membership of 180,000.

David B. Robertson, president of the firemen and enginemen, said his organization has put into effect reductions in mileage on many roads throughout the country and still has approximately 30,000 idle out of the total membership of 110,000.

Whitney made it plain the reduced mileage arrangement is intended as a temporary one and does not affect the plans of the several railroad brotherhoods to obtain a permanent railroad labor readjustment on the basis of a six-hour day at the present eight-hour wage.

Alvanley Johnson, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, said employed members of his organization agreed two months ago to share their work with the idle. He added unemployment among engineers is almost negligible, however.

NAVAL BUILDING PROGRAM GIVEN

Admiral Pratt Fixes Costs at $1,250,000,000

Estimate Covers Tonnage of Treaty Strength

Two-thirds of Fleet Will Need Replacement

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (Exclusive)—Admiral William V. Pratt, chief of naval operations, advised the House Naval Committee today that the cost of building up the American fleet to the maximum tonnage limits of the London naval treaty will amount to $1,250,000,000, if spread over a ten-year period. The annual cost for this new construction designed to give this country approximate tonnage parity with Great Britain was set at $110,000,000 by the navy spokesman.

The treaty cost figures were included in a communication submitted to the committee at the request of Chairman Fred A. Britten, Republican, Illinois, and Representative Carl A. Vinson, Democrat, Georgia, ranking minority member. They represented the first studied estimates of expenditures needed under the treaty that have been presented to Congress since Secretary of the Navy Adams recommended Congressional approval of a $134,000,000 navy construction program for 1932.

DETERIORATION HEAVY

Because of the deterioration of the United States fleet in recent years due to delays in building cruisers and replacements for aging vessels, virtually two-thirds of the fleet will have to be replaced before 1942 if a treaty navy of modern ships is to be acquired, the Pratt figures disclosed.

His estimates of needed new building included 402,000 tons of cruisers, aircraft carriers, submarines and destroyers, some now building, plus 350,000 tons of battle ships, a total of 752,000 tons.

BATTLESHIP PLANS

One of the features of Admiral Pratt's report was his disclosure that the Navy hopes to begin replacement to battleships immediately after the expiration of the London treaty in December, 1936. The program assumes that ten battleships of 36,000 tons would be laid down and completed during the ten-year period. The cost of each battleship was estimated at $42,000,000.

The $1,250,000,000 estimate includes $150,000,000 for aircraft needed if the fleet is to be built up to treaty strength. Other ships built would include 73,000 tons of six-inch-gun cruisers, in addition to completion of eighteen 10,000-ton eight-inch-gun cruisers permitted by treaty, 69,000 tons of aircraft carriers, including one 13,600-ton vessel for which a contract has been let, 150,000 tons of destroyers, the treaty limit, and at least 30,000 tons of submarines.

Feels Like He Was Made Over New, Says Oden

"If there was ever a day in my life when I felt better or stronger than I do now since taking Sargon, I can't remember it," recently stated W. E. Oden, 1616 W. 11th St., Los Angeles.

"It seems to me like I've suffered with constipation ever since I was a schoolboy and I've had to take so many harsh purgatives that my stomach was out of order all the time. During the last five years I've had a hard fight on my hands to keep on my feet at all. I suffered so much with indigestion that I was actually afraid to eat. I just seemed to ache all over and was so nervous sound sleep was impossible. I thought maybe my trouble was caused from bad teeth so I had them pulled out, but still I didn't improve.

"I've taken a full treatment of six bottles of Sargon and if there ever was a man felt like he'd been 'made over again,' I'm that man. My stomach is just like new and I eat and digest anything on earth that I want. I sleep good every night that comes and get up mornings feeling so strong and energetic that my day's work seems like child's play.

"Sargon Pills are the first and only laxatives that ever overcame my constipation and this relief alone is worth twice the cost of the entire treatment. I never will be able to say enough in praise of these two great medicines."

Sargon may be obtained at all Owl Drug Stores and Liggett Drug Stores in Los Angeles and other cities.—[Advertisement.

granting India's demands for dominion status.

The round-table committee negotiations, he indicated, are degenerating into "a vicious circle of demand and counterdemand over the Hindu-Moslem problem." Observers believe the conference is moving toward a crisis.

The conference with Dr. Moonje was one of a series MacDonald has had with the leading Indian delegates to get their points of view on the critical minorities problem which is causing the round table more concern than any other issue.

The Hindu-Moslem communal differences, which form India's supreme problem, have baffled the informal efforts of the conference leaders. MacDonald's personal intervention as negotiator has failed to bring about harmony and there is general opinion this problem is so important that the whole conference might collapse unless it is solved.

The Prime Minister obtained from Dr. Moonje an outline of a suggested compromise to which the Hindus are willing to agree. Moonje then appealed for a declaration of Indian dominion status, the proposed compromise being conditioned upon such a declaration.

RECENTLY FREED SON OF GANDHI ARRESTED

SURAT (India) Dec. 19. (AP)—Ram Das Gandhi, son of the Indian leader Mahatma Gandhi, was arrested today at Natwad, where the illegal manufacture and sale of salt was progressing. The arrest was made in connection with a speech he delivered on the 10th inst.

Young Gandhi recently finished serving a six months' sentence of rigorous imprisonment on a similar charge.

DUKE OF GLOUCESTER MAY GET CANADA POST

LONDON, Dec. 19. (Exclusive)—With Viscount Willingdon's appointment as Viceroy of India, speculation arose as to his successor in Canada. It is reported, that since King George failed to obtain the appointment of his third son, the Duke of Gloucester, as Governor-General of South Africa, he would like to see him get the Canadian vacancy, as the Duke is first among the possibilities.

Startling Events Put British Politics in Turmoil

Only Boldest Predict What Outcome Will Be

LONDON, Dec. 19. (AP)—A weary House of Commons adjourned today until January 20, next, in an atmosphere crowded with doubt and uncertainty.

So many events have followed one another on the political stage with great rapidity during the last weeks that members of all parties are puzzled as to where they stand. Only the boldest political prophets dare make any forecasts as to what may happen, even immediately after Parliament reassembles.

The pact—which officially is not a pact—between Liberals and Prime Minister MacDonald's Labor government continues to be the keystone of the whole political situation, just as it had been the constant source of hopes, fears and rumors during the past two weeks.

TRADE DISPUTE

That some, at least, of the Liberals are unalterably opposed to any form of understanding became evident a few weeks ago when Sir John Simon, with a small following, declared definitely against it.

The government's trade-disputes bill, which was made public today, in effect nullifies the Baldwin legislation regarding industrial disputes passed in 1927 as a sequel to the general strike of the preceding year. Debate on this subject will disclose the attitude of the Liberals.

An important factor regarding the Liberal-Labor pact formed another sensation of the session which now is adjourned. It was undertaken by the government to introduce a measure for electoral reform which, it soon became generally understood, would include proposals for an alternative vote system of balloting.

Such a measure has long been a pet project of the Liberal party and the government's announcement was widely hailed as a bid for Liberal support. The measure also will go before Parliament soon after the reassembly January 20.

STARTLING EVENTS

Outside of the Liberal-Labor pact, however, recent weeks have seen some startling events. The manifesto by Sir Oswald Mosley, young millionaire Socialist, recommending a commission of five members of Parliament as a supreme executive body to deal with the economic crisis, went off with the bang of an exploding rocket.

The perpetual uncertainty as to what the Labor left-wingers will do on any given occasion also was added to the prevailing uncertainty, since a revolt of sufficient size in the Labor camp, adding to a few Liberals dissenting from their party instructions to vote with the government, would have brought the Laborites' downfall.

On one occasion, indeed — although it can scarcely be described as a major one—the government majority fell to six; on another occasion, of supreme importance, it was down to thirty.

Finally, in the very last days before adjournment, the dye-stuffs act was prolonged for another year by the action of the House of Lords over the opposition of the government. Although this act was disposed of for twelve months, it is regarded as highly doubtful if the issues which the House of Lords have raised will be allowed to rest unchallenged for anything like that period.

SENATE TO TRY HAND AT SHALE QUIZ

Walsh Insists on Inquiry Into Kelley Oil Charges, Already Discredited

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (AP)—An investigation by a Senate committee of charges by Ralph H. Kelley, former field agent of the General Land Office, that there had been irregularities in the disposition of the government's oil-shale lands today was assured.

Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, veteran prosecutor of the Senate's oil investigations of recent years, introduced a resolution which enables the Senate Public Lands Committee to make a preliminary inquiry.

The resolution was referred to that committee—the same which figured prominently in the Teapot Dome investigations—at the request of Walsh and Chairman Nye announced it will receive attention after the Christmas recess.

Kelley charged the Interior Department with favoring large oil companies in granting control of Colorado oil-shale fields, which he estimated were worth $40,000,000,000.

The Justice Department investigated the charges and said they were unwarranted.

GAS WELL TURNED INTO GIANT TORCH

WEWOKA (Okla.) Dec. 19. (AP)—A giant torch fed by 60,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily lit the heavens in eastern Seminole county tonight.

It is not expected the blaze in the No. 2 A. B. Douglas well at the southern edge of Wewoka will be snuffed until Sunday or Monday, as it will require until then to complete preparations for the nitroglycerine blast it is hoped will extinguish it.

TWENTY-NINE REDS SENTENCED TO PRISON

BUDAPEST (Hungary) Dec. 19. (AP)—Convicted of conspiring to a subversive action against the government, twenty-nine persons today were sentenced to prison terms ranging from four months to seven and a half years, ending a trial behind closed doors.

koff having been appointed after Lenin's death.

Last spring Rykoff, with Michael P. Tomsky and N. A. Uglanov, appeared before the all-union congress of the Communist party and they "confessed" their sins as members of the right wing, promising to support the party's policies in the future.

Uglanov was dropped as commissar of labor and Tomsky was ousted as head of the soviet trade union, but Rykoff was able to hold on to his posts.

With the retirement of Rykoff, Joseph Stalin, long powerful in the ranks of the Communist party as its secretary, has further consolidated his position as the dominant figure in the soviet union, for he has long opposed the policies of the right wing.

Rykoff has held important posts in the soviet government ever since the Communists first came into power in Russia and in 1921 was first assistant to Lenin. He was a member of the soviet mission which conferred with the Allied and German diplomats at Berlin on Russian reconstruction late in 1921 and was appointed vice-president of the council of people's commissars that same year.

With Stalin and Kameneff he held high place in the councils of Lenin and it was he who headed the reorganized Russian cabinet formed in 1924.

After Lenin's death and his election as chairman of the council of people's commissars, he became the outstanding figure in the soviet union, but Stalin grew in strength and in time outstripped him to see his own policies triumph.

THOMPSON'S MAYOR RACE ANNOUNCED

"Big Bill" Tells Chicago Ward Republicans He Will Be Fourth Term Entry

CHICAGO, Dec. 19. (AP)—Mayor Thompson announced his candidacy today for a fourth term as Mayor of Chicago. The executive made known his intentions to a group of Republican ward committeemen, who presented a memorial at his office asking him once more to become a candidate at the Republican primaries next February.

Mayor Thompson expressed his hope to rebuild the Republican party in Cook county. He said the man with the best record should win, and that "Bill Thompson will lay his record down with any candidate."

He expressed the hope Calvin Coolidge would be the next Republican nominee for President. He said he had voted for Coolidge every time he had a chance and that he hoped to have another chance, "for he is the one that brings us a full dinner pail, a full treasury and great prosperity."

"I made certain pledges as a candidate four years ago," Thompson said. "I promised to stop them teaching in the public schools that George Washington was a rebel and a traitor. Well, we moved Mr. McAndrew (former superintendent of schools) out, and to prove he was not an Englishman he went to London and has been there ever since . . . George Washington is a hero again in the public schools."

WORK OF RELIEF ABOUT TO BEGIN

Immediate Start on Gigantic Program Now Assured

Administration Legislative Success Speeds Action

$25,000,000 but Congress actually was left free to fix the appropriation. It is true the administration did not favor the proposal of a $60,000,000 bill, but there is no reason to believe that Mr. Hoover is dissatisfied with the measure as it was enacted today.

Eventually the White House will make public in minute detail the method it proposes to follow in allocating the relief funds. The country will be informed in great detail how the money will be expended, in what particular States and probably on what particular projects.

FIRST OF MEASURES GETS THROUGH CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (AP)—The first of the relief measures—an authorization of $45,000,000 for loans to farmers in the drought areas to put in next year's crop—got through Congress today.

It was sent to President Hoover from the Senate after several Senate Democrats had denounced it because it failed to contain direct provision for loans for personal food. The administration opposed such a provision.

The $116,000,000 emergency construction appropriation still awaited attention as the storm of controversy finally subsided to permit Senate action on the drought bill. In the lull, the drought measure passed without a roll call. The emergency appropriation, facing assault because of failure to contain three Senate amendments, comes up in that branch tomorrow and the Senate agreed to meet an hour earlier to speed action.

BORAH BLOCKS MEASURE

The $150,000,000 appropriation asked by the Farm Board also comes up tomorrow, Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, blocking action on it today. He said he wants to determine the purpose for which the board intends to use the money. Senator Black, Democrat, Alabama, has proposed an amendment to prohibit the board from using any of the fund for marginal trading on the grain exchanges.

While the deadlock over the emergency relief measure was breaking, a new threat arose in the Senate. The Interior Department appropriation bill—one of the vital measures which must be passed before March 4, next, if an extra session is to be avoided—encountered a filibuster from Senator Howell, Republican, Nebraska.

Howell spoke for an hour and a half, using up all time available for action on the Interior bill, after his request for consideration of a measure of his own establishing a new basis for settling claims against the United States had been turned down. There was no indication of a concerted effort to delay action on the regular appropriation bills.

Senators Norris of Nebraska and Borah of Idaho, leaders of the western Republican independents, urged the Senate to accept the compromise $45,000,000 drought relief bill in the interests of speeding action on relief work.

"People have been starving while we are here talking," Norris shouted.

He pointed out the House had voted down the Senate's provision to permit food loans and said the Senate conferees had gotten the best they could in the compromise.

EMERGENCY PROVISION

Senator McNary, Republican, Oregon, sponsor of the Senate's $60,000,000 drought bill, insisted a provision inserted in the compromise by the Senate conferees permitting the Secretary to make loans for purposes "incident to" crop production will give authority for food loans where dire emergencies demanded.

The House was ready for the Christmas recess by nightfall but Senate leaders made no move in that direction, awaiting final action on the emergency employment appropriation. The House firmly opposed the Senate amendments to the employment bill giving to the States of Alabama and Georgia the unexpended balances of road funds without requiring the States to match the money. It also rejected the amendment of Senator Couzens, Republican, Michigan, requiring local labor be employed on all the projects and paid the highest prevailing wage scale.

Senators Barkley, Kentucky; Caraway, Arkansas; Heflin, Alabama, and Connally, Texas, led the Democratic assault against the failure of the drought bill to contain provisions for food loans. The bill authorizes loans for purchase of seed and fertilizer for next year's crops.

"The papers say it is a great victory for the President," said Caraway. "If it be a victory to doom innocent women and children to slow starvation, then God bless him, let him have all the glory. Somewhere in the Bible it says the people asked for bread and were given a stone. That's what this bill does."

Barkley asserted the Red Cross is not in a position to meet the needs of those without food in the rural sections. He called attention to the appropriations for the starving in Europe and suggested "maybe we'd better send our starving citizens to Russia so they can get some sympathy from us."

Heflin said the bill "places the horse above the human and the mule above man." Connally remarked Secretary Hyde is from Missouri and "therefore he would rather see a mule fed than a man."

The principal provision of the drought relief bill follows:

"The Secretary of Agriculture is hereby authorized, for the crop of 1931, to make advances or loans to farmers in the drought and storm-stricken areas where he shall find an emergency for such assistance exists, for the purchase of seed and suitable crops, fertilizer, feed for work stock and fuel and oil for tractors used for crop production and for such other purposes incident to crop production as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture."

IRRIGATION LOAN PLAN GETS APPROVAL

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (Exclusive)—The Senate bill to create a $95,000,000 fund to aid farmers through loans to drainage districts and other political subdivisions was approved unanimously by the House Irrigation Committee today.

The majority of California irrigation projects are brought under the benefits of the bill.

The measure known as the Smith-Glenn bill, as it originally passed the Senate, did not include irrigation districts, but provided a revolving fund for purchase of bonds of levee and drainage districts only. Under an amendment sponsored by Representative Barbour of Fresno, non-Federal irrigation districts also were included in the measure as reported by the House committee. Most of the California irrigation districts are non-Federal and will receive the benefits of this bill.

Under the measure the revolving fund will be used for the purchase of bonds on the districts, which will be held by the government until paid off, at a low interest rate, probably less than 4 per cent.

The present interest rate varies around 6 per cent and on large holdings where the bonds run as high as $100 an acre, as is the case on several California irrigation projects, the difference in the interest rate can mean the difference between profit and loss to the irrigation-district farmer.

AGRICULTURAL SUPPLY MEASURE PASSES HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (AP)—The $213,000,000 Agriculture Department annual supply bill was passed today by the House and sent to the Senate.

The measure carries $125,000,000 for Federal highway aid and $12,500,000 for forest roads and trails along with substantial provisions for the Weather Bureau, enforcing the grain futures marketing act and counteracting crop pests and diseases of live stock.

ONE-MEAL SACRIFICE SUGGESTED BY SMOOT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (AP)—One meal less a week for those who have meals to eat is Senator Smoot's recipe for solving unemployment and drought distress.

"Give the cost of that meal to the poor," the Utah Senator said today during debate over the drought relief bill, "and there will be no suffering."

AMERICAN PLAN SUGGESTED FOR ENGLAND

LONDON, Dec. 19. (AP)—In America, David Lloyd-George reminded the House of Commons today, President Hoover has announced millions of dollars will be spent this year for the relief of unemployment. "And why," he demanded, "don't we take such steps here?" He held up the example of the United States as a model upon which the MacDonald government might pattern its unemployment program.

His speech was a sort of follow-up on his previous demands that the government should tackle the unemployment problem after the sweeping fashion advocated by himself and the Liberal party.

Chicago 'Public Enemy' Cannot Read or Write

CHICAGO, Dec. 19. (AP)—Joseph (Pepe) Genaro, one of the "public enemies" who has made his mark in the underworld, made another kind of mark today.

It was a crude cross scrawled on a petition for a change of venue in his trial on a charge of vagrancy.

"You cannot write?" asked Judge Lyle.

"No."

"Can you read?"

"No, sir. I cannot read or write in English or Italian either."

CALIFORNIANS GIRD FOR FIGHT

ttack on Reapportionment Act Impending

ove on Foot to Increase House Membership

y a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (Exclusive)—The California delegation in rmal caucus today agreed to nd as a unit against any movement to reopen the Congressional pportionment legislation and incease the size of the House to pret losses of seats to States whose presentation will be cut down under the act scheduled to go automatically into effect March 4, 1931. That an attempt will be made to the reapportionment plan opted last session retaining the esent House membership figure of has been taken for granted, t not until today was there any al prospect that the fight might successful.

CHANCES EVEN

Today, however, Chairman Fenn of the House Census Committee ported that his committee apparly stood eleven to ten for bringg out a new bill and rehashing the entire reapportionment controversy. Moreover, a check of the les Committee, which is the stop p for legislation, is said to inate that a majority of the comittee probably will favor allowing e new bill to reach the floor. And ere has been no question that if new bill gets to the floor there ll be a strong chance of its passage.

The California Representatives nt the Reapportionment Act now the books to stand. It gives eir State an increase of nine embers for a delegation of twenty, which is 1-22 part of the total ength of the House. If a new ll is put through increasing the e of the House to 491 members, hich would be the minimum cessary to prevent any State losg, California would gain four additional members and have a delegation of twenty-four. But proportionately the State would lose, it would have only 1-26 of the ting power in the House.

CAUSE FOR FIGHT

The Californians also feel that ch a further increase in the legation would add to the difficulties of State redistricting. Aside om State considerations they are posed to increasing the size of already unwieldy House.

Pennsylvania, with three members on the Census Committee, omises to be the deciding factor the situation and the delegation from that State plans to caus on the question during the Christmas holidays. Pennsylvania nds to lose two seats under the apportionment already adopted d naturally all the sitting members want to remain in Congress.

There is no doubt that President oover will promptly veto any new apportionment measure coming to m and it is hard to figure how ch a bill can be repassed over his to. The chances are overwhelmgly that the Reapportionment t will not be disturbed.

LUCAS HELD NORRIS FOE IN ELECTION

Executive Director of G.O.P. Committee Said to Have Aided Democrat

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (AP)—The Senate Campaign Funds Committee was informed today Robert H. Lucas, executive director of the Republican National Committee, assisted in the fight against the reelection of Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska.

Charles I. Stengle, editor of the National Farm News, told the committee Lucas placed an order with him last October for literature appealing for the defeat of Norris and the election of Gilbert N. Hitchcock, the Democratic nominee.

Lucas was summoned to appear tomorrow, along with William E. Murray, said by the committee to have made a survey for the national party organization of the Nebraska situation before the election.

Samuel R. McKelvie, member of the Farm Board and former Governor of Nebraska, earlier told the committee he gave $10,000 toward the campaign for W. M. Stebbins, Norris's primary opponent, explained why he did not want to be a candidate himself and urged the committee to inquire more fully into expenditures "in behalf of Senator Norris prior to and during the recent Republican primaries in Nebraska."

"I should like your committee," McKelvie said, "to ascertain the amount of circular matter used by Senator Norris that was furnished him at cost by the Government Printing Office.

"I should like your committee to inquire into the number of people who came into Nebraska from outside the State to work during Senator Norris's campaign and who paid their expenses.

"I should like you to inquire what circular matter or publications were sent into Nebraska from outside the State, the quantity, the cost and who paid that cost."

SHEPARD JURY RETIRES TODAY

Arguments Being Made in Wife-Poisoning Trial

Stenographer Denounced as "Army Flapper"

Major Defended as Victim of Circumstances

KANSAS CITY (Kan.) Dec. 19. (AP)—Contrasting pictures of Maj. Charles A. Shepard as a diabolical poisoner who took his wife's life because of his love for another woman and as a wronged man—the victim of a chain of circumstances cleverly linked against him by government agents—were drawn in closing arguments today in the Army medical officer's murder trial.

The case will be given to the jury tomorrow, probably early in the afternoon.

L. E. Wyman, assistant District Attorney, presented the prosecution's side of the case today and C. L. Kagey of Beloit, Kan., former United States Minister to Finland, argued for the acquittal of the defendant.

Harry S. Class of Denver will make the final plea for the defense tomorrow morning and will be followed by Dist.-Atty. Brewster, who will close for the government. The jury will be charged by Judge Hopkins probably at the start of the afternoon session of court.

PROSECUTION'S STORY

Wyman told the jury Shepard fell in love with Miss Grace Blandon, blond stenographer of San Antonio, Tex., and poisoned his wife, Mrs. Zenna Shepard, at Fort Riley, Kan., in 1929 so he could wed the Texas girl.

Kagey, on the other hand, characterized Miss Brandon as "an army post flapper" who, he asserted, "trapped" the 59-year-old defendant. The attorney argued Shepard thought the girl really loved him, that his life with Mrs. Shepard had been so unhappy he was in need of sympathy and did only the natural thing in turning to Miss Brandon, to whom he became engaged after the death of his wife.

Kagey characterized Shepard's love letters to the girl as "pure and clean."

"Certainly," he said, "the government did not prove anything criminal in those love letters."

He also asserted Shepard could have obtained a divorce from Mrs. Shepard from any court in the land on the evidence brought out in the trial as to her alleged overindulgence in liquor and use of narcotics.

The assistant District Attorney ridiculed Shepard's contention that it was a natural and reasonable thing for him to send gifts to Miss Brandon before his wife died.

NURSE ON STAND

"For twenty-five days," Wyman asserted, "he tortured that woman, (Mrs. Shepard) with the white sword of mercury. He stood by her bed and watched her starve to death."

The government attorney said Shepard's close contact with his wife gave him an opportunity to administer poison, which the government sought to show by the testimony of Miss Clara Brown, a nurse, had been placed in liquor which the major's wife drank.

The testimony of Miss Brown was attacked by Kagey in defending Shepard. He said it "taxed one's credulity," and said she must have been "hypnotized" by government agents.

Miss Brown testified today that on the second day of Mrs. Shepard's fatal illness, the patient told her "Dr. Shepard has poisoned me." This was countered by testimony of Maj. E. J. Strickler, Fort Riley psychiatrist, that Mrs. Shepard was not sane on that day.

Garner Charge on Tax Refunds Proven False

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (Exclusive)—Replying to the recent charges by Representative Garner, Democratic floor leader, that the Treasury has shown favoritism toward Republican campaign contributors in making tax refunds, Representative Hawley of Oregon, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, sprung official records in the House today showing that some of the largest refunds have gone to financial angels of the Democratic party.

"There is no politics in these refunds," Hawley said. "As a matter of fact, they are made in accordance with law and the decisions of the courts."

BORAH FAVORS LOAN FOR REDS' BUSINESS

NEW YORK, Dec. 19. (AP)—A government loan to soviet Russia or an export guarantee to American business men in order to develop Russian trade in this country is favored by Senator Borah, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. In a letter to Miles M. Sherover, New York exporter, Senator Borah says such measures would help to finance soviet purchases here and serve to hold soviet trade.

ST. LOUIS GANGSTER KILLED AMID BATTLE

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 19. (AP)—A gangster tentatively identified as Louis Mulconney was slain here this afternoon in a pistol and machine gun fight on the southwestern outskirts of the city. Three automobile loads of gunmen participated in the fight. The gangsters who killed the gangster were themselves routed when a machine gunner from a third automobile opened fire on them.

DECEMBER'S INCOME TAX INTAKE LAGS

Total Received This Year Up to 17th Inst., Said to Be $290,736,703

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (AP)—Income-tax receipts of $180,626,323 on the 17th inst. swelled the month's total of government income from this source to $290,736,703.

The Treasury's statement today showed, however, that the month's total was $64,000,000 less than received in the same number of days last December. The aggregate for the fiscal year was $901,222,489, or $122,000,000 less than for the same period of last year.

The collection, which included the final installment of tax due on 1929 incomes, reduced the government deficit to $79,485,586. The deficit on the same day of last year was only $1,129,323. At the close of business on the 17th inst. the government had collected since July 1, last, a total of $1,609,808,508 and had spent $1,689,294,093.

Einstein Given Welcome by Cuban Officials

HAVANA, Dec. 19. (AP)—Prof. Albert Einstein forgot mathematical matters a few hours today on his arrival from New York on the steamship Belgenland en route to California.

Received by government officials and men high in the intellectual life of Cuba, he found a tropical sun giving Havana one of the warmest days in many weeks.

A round of entertainment is scheduled for the professor. A personal interview with President Machado tomorrow is included in the program.

Prof. Einstein will continue on the Belgenland tomorrow afternoon.

Brazil May Cut Gasoline Imports

RIO DE JANEIRO, Dec. 19. (AP)—A decrease of nearly 8,000,000 gallons yearly is anticipated in Brazilian gasoline imports, 65 per cent of which come from American companies, if a proposed decree of the provisional government becomes effective.

The decree, published today, would require 10 per cent of native alcohol to be mixed with gasoline for all purposes.

Two Confirmed for New Board

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (AP)—The Senate today confirmed two of President Hoover's five nominees to the Power Commission—Claude L. Draper of Wyoming and Ralph B. Williamson of Washington, but postponed consideration of the others because of the pressure of relief legislation.

The Senate approved Draper and Williamson without record votes but Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, asserted all five of the President's appointments are "mediocre."

"TOYLAND" VISIT KILLS

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 19. (AP)—Nine-year-old Alexander De Campi died last night in the "toyland" of a West Philadelphia department store. Physicians said death was caused by a cerebral hemorrhage, probably brought on by excitement.

CONGRESS PAIR ATTACK CLARK

Judge's Recent Wet Decision Called "Politics"

Southern Representatives Speak Their Minds

Both, in Turn, Rebuked by Dry From Michigan

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (Exclusive)—The decision of Federal Judge Clark in New Jersey holding invalid the ratification of the Eighteenth Amendment was attacked as "politics" in the House today by two drys who immediately found themselves reprimanded by another dry for questioning the integrity of the Federal judiciary.

Representatives McSwain of South Carolina and Blanton of Texas launched the assault on the New Jersey jurist, and Michener, Michigan, Republican, an outstanding dry and member of the Judiciary Committee, expressed resentment.

"HANG HEADS IN SHAME"

"The judiciary of the United States," declared McSwain, "will hang their heads in shame and the lawyers sneer at the position taken by Judge Clark. And while I am only voicing my personal opinion, I am doing it as a warning to judges with political aspirations. Judge Clark's action has definitely and deliberately opened a breach in the law and his conduct cannot be construed as other than a plain intention to do that very thing. He is making a play for political office in his overwhelmingly wet State."

Michener interrupted to say that he thought it improper for a member of Congress to precipitate a discussion of Federal court decisions especially when an appeal of the case is pending in the Supreme Court. Such a course, Michener declared, is calculated to be detrimental to the judicial system.

THEN TEXAN SPEAKS

Turning hotly on the Michigan Representative, McSwain asserted, "I fail to see any impropriety and I will attack politically minded decisions anywhere and any time."

Blanton called the Clark decision "a studied, deliberate attempt to force a new expression from the Supreme Court" and "the most ridiculous attempt on the part of the judge to use his office for purely political purposes." The Texan declared if the ruling is upheld "it will nullify nearly every amendment to the Constitution and slavery will still be in effect."

Representative Cochran, Democrat antiprohibitionist from Missouri, stepped into the wrangle long enough to point out that Judge Clerk had been appointed to the Federal bench on the recommendation of the late Wayne B. Wheeler. This brought the remark from Blanton that anyone can make a mistake now and then.

EWALD AND WIFE FACE NEW CHARGE

Steuben Society's Letter Signer Also Accused in Bribe Indictments

NEW YORK, Dec. 19. (AP)—Former Magistrate George F. Ewald, his wife Bertha, and Dr. Francis M. Schirp, who signed a leter from the Steuben Society, German-American organization, suggesting Ewald's appointment to Mayor Walker, were named in indictments handed down today.

The indictments charge the Ewalds with offering Dr. Schirp $2000 to use his influence in obtaining Ewald's appointment and accuse Dr. Schirp of accepting it.

Several months ago Mr. and Mrs. Ewald were indicted on a charge of paying Martin J. Healy, Tammany district leader, $10,000 to obtain the magistrate's post. They are awaiting trial on that charge.

The State charged Mrs. Ewald sent $10,000 to Healy through Thomas T. Tommaney at about the time of her husband's appointment. Healy and Tommaney were indicted, but two juries failed to agree on a verdict.

Mayor Walker has testified he appointed Ewald in 1927 largely on the basis of a letter of recommendation signed by several men prominent in the Steuben Society. Dr. Schirp was one of the signers.

RICHMOND (Va.) Dec. 19. (AP)—J. N. Wood, State prohibition inspector, was shot to death today at Warsaw, Va., while on a raiding party at the home of a Negro.

LIPSTICK PROVES BANDITS' UNDOING

ROCKFORD (Ill.) Dec. 19. (AP)—Two men who robbed Mrs. Henry Larson last night took everything but her lipstick—and that proved their undoing. They destroyed a pencil in her handbag so she would be unable to write down the license number of their car, but she used the lipstick. Later the two were arrested.

ACCUSED CHINESE TAKES WEIRD OATH TO SPIRITS

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 19. (AP) In a little candle-lit room in the city prison, Lui Fook took the weird and solemn Chinese oath of purification today to assure the spirits he was innocent of the slaying of his former employer, Mrs. Rosetta Baker, elderly and wealthy widow.

"Jamp Cai Tow Sai Yun," they call this ceremony in the language of Lui and his ancestors.

Before an improvised altar and with a fluttering, bleeding chicken at his feet, Lui knelt and in fervid tones assured the spirits of his ancestors he was not guilty of murder.

"I take this oath," Lui said, "and if I am not telling the truth may my head be chopped off and all those near and dear to me, may their heads also be chopped off and may the heads of all of my blood to come hereafter—may they also die horribly."

The legend runs that no Chinese criminal will take this oath if in so doing he must swear he is innocent when he is guilty.

So rarely is the oath administered in this country, Chinese say, that perhaps not a dozen white men have previously seen it and thousands of American Chinese have never witnessed it.

RECLAMATION VALUE SHOWN

Past Drought Proved Worth, Mead's Aide Says

Irrigation Institute Hears Woman on Subject

Eastern Critics of Western Improvements Scored

ELLENSBURG (Wash.) Dec. 19. (AP) Federal reclamation projects "stood out like oases in the desert," during this year's great drought, Miss May A. Schnurr, assistant to Dr. Elwood Mead, Federal reclamation commissioner, declared here tonight, at the eighteenth annual meeting of the Washington Irrigation Institute.

Defending the Federal reclamation policy as inaugurated by President Roosevelt twenty-nine years ago, she said eastern critics are wrong in declaring only the West is benefitted and the development is carried on at the expense of the taxpayers of the country.

In outlining benefits to the East, Miss Schnurr said crops such as sugar beets and long-staple cotton cannot be grown successfully outside of irrigated territory, that taxable property set up by the development thus far is valued at about $1,000,000,000 and many factories and mail-order houses could not exist without business coming from communities established by reclamation.

"We have 214 towns mainly dependent for existence on Federal reclamation projects, including twenty-six in this State," she said. "In spite of this dependency of one on the other, the West and East hold diametrically opposed ideas as to the value of our Federal reclamation policy."

She pointed out Secretary of the Interior Wilbur in his last annual report "emphatically" favored continuing reclamation on "sound economic lines," while on the other hand, the Secretary of Agriculture (Arthur M. Hyde,) a western man with a typically eastern view holds there is a nation-wide surplus which is being added to by further reclamation, which should, therefore, be curtailed or entirely abandoned as a Federal policy.

She said Secretary Wilbur's view is "precisely the view of Commissioner Mead."

MANNING'S DISPUTED SERMON PUBLISHED

NEW YORK, Dec. 19. (AP)—Bishop Manning's sermon to his diocese on companionate marriage, which former Judge Lindsey of Denver interrupted when the bishop delivered it two Sundays ago from the pulpit of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, has been published. The Diocesan Bulletin, Episcopal Church organ, announced today copies have been made for public distribution. The former judge was freed of disorderly conduct charges on a technicality.

FREE GAS OFFERED FRESNO

Superior Oil Company and M. D. Huffman, Lessee, in Proposal for Municipal Use of Fuel

FRESNO, Dec. 19. (Exclusive)—An offer to provide the city of Fresno or any other municipality that can use it, natural gas free of charge at the well in Kettleman Hills, was made today by the Superior Oil Company and M. D. Huffman, lessee and owner of the land on which the famous Huffman No. 1 well is located.

An offer to that effect was made in Superior Court at Hanford yesterday and was followed up here today in statements by representatives of Huffman and the oil company. The offer carries no restrictions and will be a perpetual grant to the municipalities, J. N. Hicks, manager of the gas department of the oil company, said here today Hicks and M. W. Terrill, representative of Huffman, said their principals will give the gas to the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, which now serves Fresno and many other cities of this region, if the company will pipe it to the city and give the consumers the benefit of the price saving accruing.

Hicks said the Huffman well is producing approximately 35,000,000 cubic feet of gas per day, but that the company cannot market it because the Standard Oil Company controls all avenues of distribution and sale. He said the offer made yesterday in the Kings county court proposed to give the gas to anyone who could make proper use of it, or to anyone the court would designate.

The people of Fresno use approximately 6,000,000 cubic feet of Kettleman Hills gas daily, purchased from the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, which the company says costs 1" cents at the city limits.

Terrill said that while Huffman is entitled to a large share of the gas produced by the Huffman well, he does not take any of it, being without means for its disposal, but that he will give his entire share to the city, if the city can find a way to bring it to the consumers.

SHIPPING OF CZAR ASHES RECOUNTED

Remains Declared Spirited Out of Siberia Protected by American Flag

NEW YORK, Dec. 19. (AP)—An account of the shipment of the remains of Czar Nicholas II and family out of Siberia under the protection of the American flag was published by the New York Times today.

Franklin Clarkin, former American Vice-Consul at Harbin, Manchuria, was quoted by The Times as saying that the ashes of the executed Romanoffs were unknowingly spirited through the Bolshevist lines and carried to Harbin from Omsk on an American consular train late in 1919.

Thence they were trans-shipped to Shanghai, sent to an Italian port on the Gulf of Trieste and they now rest near Paris in the family vault of Gen. Janin, French commander of the Czech Legionnaires in Siberia after the war.

A new book by Janin tells of the ashes being in the vault.

Admiral Kolchak, commander of the White Army, placed the remains in the care of Consul-General Harris after his downfall at Omsk, says The Times, and Harris turned them over to Gov. Horvath in Harbin without knowing the significance of his cargo.

BURKE'S BODY ARRIVES

JUNEAU (Alaska) Dec. 19. (AP)—Reports from White Horse, Yukon, say Pilot E. L. Wasson arrived there late today from the Liard River district with the body of Capt. E. J. A. Burke, who died of exposure and starvation November 20, last.

STEEG SLIPS ONE OVER ON PARLIAMENT

Opposition Roaring Mad as It Realizes Significance of Adjournment Decree

PARIS, Dec. 19. (AP) — For three more weeks at least France is certain to have a stable government. Premier Steeg today made sure he will hold office that long when he read a Presidential decree of adjournment suspending the Parliament until the second Tuesday in January.

The opposition was astounded, for the decree took it by surprise. When the enemy recovered its composure somewhat it pointed out that the second Tuesday in January will be January 13, an ominous date for the Ministry. Steeg had given no warning of his intention.

There was nearly a free-for-all fight when the members realized he had stolen a march on them. The opposition stormed up and down and the ushers had their hands full bringing the House to order.

Film Picture Starts Riots

BERLIN, Dec. 19. (AP)—Incipient disorders in Berlin's west end were nipped in the bud by police tonight.

Crowds of persons believed to be Communists and unemployed chose the first performance of the talking picture, "The Flute Concert of Sans-Souci," to start street rows in protest against what they called a "monarchist and militarist show."

The film idealizes Frederick the Great.

ESPEE WANTS RATE TO COAST

Hearing Before I.C.C. Asks Slash of Tariff

Road Seeks Share of Canal Freight Traffic

Employees Argue Move as Unemployment Aid

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (AP)—With a portion of the intercoastal freight traffic now going through the Panama Canal as a prize, attorneys for the Southern Pacific Company and its employees today urged the Interstate Commerce Commission to grant the company the right to charge water-rail rates low enough to meet canal competition.

The argument was on a report of Examiner William A. Disque, who has recommended the Southern Pacific be permitted to reduce rates on this traffic. The commission in 1918 adopted a policy of refusal to grant suspensions of the long and short-haul provisions for westbound coast-to-coast traffic. The railroads in 1922 and 1926 sought unsuccessfully to have the ruling changed.

LONG-HAUL UP

The Southern Pacific wants the commission to permit it to disregard the long and short-haul section of the Interstate Commerce Act and to charge 10 per cent above canal rates for freight originating on either coast and hauled between New York and Galveston by water and by rail the remainder of the distance.

Opposition was voiced by representatives of the Intermountain States, who insisted coast-to-coast rates should not be lower than those to interior points.

J. R. Bell of the Southern Pacific Company told the commission quantities of freight that should be hauled at least partly by rail are now being sent via the Panama Canal because of more favorable rates.

EMPLOYEES' ARGUMENT

W. L. Barnum, representing Southern Pacific employees, argued granting of the request would help unemployment among railroad men. He said the proposed rate would greatly increase traffic over the line from Galveston to the Pacific Coast, giving employment to many men now idle.

H. W. Prickett of Salt Lake City, representing the Intermountain States, charged that section would be discriminated against by permitting lower rates to the Pacific Coast than to the in-between points. He said the proposal was discriminatory and should be refused unless interior points also are granted a reduction.

WAR HEROES COMMENDED BY HOOVER

President in Christmas Note to Veterans Speaks of Former Services

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (AP)—President Hoover today sent his Christmas greetings to all disabled veterans with "assurances of the nation's grateful remembrance of your service and sacrifices." The message read:

"To All Disabled Veterans:

"Again I send you my Christmas greetings and best wishes for your happiness in the new year, with renewed assurances of the nation's grateful remembrance of your service and sacrifices.

"I do pray the new year will bring you many blessings and new hope for the future; to those in hospitals, or ill in their homes, restoration of health; and to all, more of comfort and contentment.

"The nation is ever mindful of your patience and fortitude, is vigilant in your behalf and so long as your need endures will respond with devotion to your service."

Little Backers Standing Pat

FRESNO, Dec. 19. (AP)—After a long conference with Edgar C. Levey, seeking re-election as the Speaker of the Assembly, a group of valley legislators today failed to repudiate their former action in pledging their support to Walter J. Little of Santa Monica, but did agree that another meeting will be held in Merced Monday evening to go into the situation.

Both Levey and Little have been invited to attend the Monday night meeting.

MAIL FRAUD CHARGED TO NEW YORK GROUP

NEW YORK, Dec. 19. (AP)—Clark W. Parker of New York, his son, Wyman, and fifteen other men were charged today in a Federal indictment with mail fraud in the sale of stock in the Automotive Royalties Corporation of Delaware. The company itself also is a defendant in the twenty-five-count indictment, which charges $1,125,000 in stock was sold between 1926 and January, 1930.

PHYSICIAN TRICKED INTO AUTO HOLD-UP

EVANSTON (Ill.) Dec. 19. (AP)—Dr. Wallace D. Mackenzie received a telephone call last night to hurry out on an emergency operation at an address several miles from home. He hurried to his garage to get his car. "You are very prompt," said one of two hold-up men who arranged the call, as they took his watch, his money and his automobile.

SUNDAY PICTURES HELD UP BY COURT

EVANSTON (Ill.) Dec. 19. (AP)—Evanston voted for Sunday motion pictures by a majority of fifty-six votes, but can't have them, at least for some time, Judge Sullivan has ruled. NEW YORK, Dec. 19. (Exclusive) Coast Guards off New York kept up their ship-a-day pace in seizing smuggled holiday liquor today when they captured the $50,000 yacht Edith in the Narrows of the harbor just before dawn and confiscated 1500 bags of liquor, valued at $75,000 bootleg wholesale prices.

TENNESSEE BANK ROBBED

CHATTANOOGA (Tenn.) Dec. 19. (AP)—Four men and a woman held up the Industrial Credit Union Bank here today and robbed it of $5500.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19. (Exclusive)—The mystery hanging about that $500,000 suit started against Miss Adele Ryan, heiress to much of the $125,000,000 fortune left by her grandfather, the late Thomas Fortune Ryan, by Mrs. Muriel Johnson, night-club dancer and University of California graduate, vanished today with the filing of charges of love theft.

Mrs. Johnson, until recently the partner of her husband and former college classmate, Robert, in the entertainment team of "Bob and Muriel," declares among other things that—

Miss Ryan stole Bob's love away by gifts of choice liquors, rare perfumes, valuable first editions of eminent authors and cash presents.

She became so smitten with Bob after first meeting him at a French seaside resort that she followed the dancing team to London.

Thence Miss Ryan came along after Bob and his banjo when the team returned to the United States and here, "pursuant to a plan conceived by her wilfully to destroy and alienate his love for his wife," finally succeeded in that mission.

Miss Ryan even proposed marriage to Bob to win him from Muriel, and on at least two occasions moved her New York address in order to be near him.

On two occasions, according to "information and belief," she induced Bob to accompany her on trips to Boston and on another they were registered as "Robert Johnson and wife," in the Park Chambers Hotel here.

"The plaintiff's husband is living in a luxurious apartment," the complaint states. "The defendant is a woman of great wealth and is keeping and maintaining the plaintiff's husband in said apartment for the purpose of continuing her alienation of plaintiff's husband's affections and of continuing her illicit relations with him."

To all of which Miss Ryan, in an answer drafted by her attorney, says there is not a word of truth in any of the charges.

Contents of the complaint, which was drafted early in November, a few days after Muriel started an action against Bob for absolute divorce, were made public in Supreme Court, after Mrs. Johnson's attorneys appeared before Justice Callahan and made a motion asking that Miss Ryan be required to submit to an examination before trial.

Contesting this, counsel for the late financier's grand-daughter asserted that it is "contrary to public policy" in such matters to grand permission to ask Miss Ryan questions like that. The justice reserved decision.

Robinson Urged for Presidency

SPAIN CORRALS MORE SUSPECTS

Three Army Officers Seized at Saragossa

Politicians Accused of Revolt Plots Rounded Up

Official Jaca Death List Set at Forty-five

MADRID, Dec. 19. (AP)—While calm seemed to have settled over Spain generally today after the disturbances which followed upon the attempted revolt of Monday, the government continued to round up and arrest persons charged with fomenting the outbreak.

At Saragossa Capt. Salvador Sediles and Lieut. Justo Lopez and Lieut. Guillermo Marin were arrested in connection with the revolutionary movement at Jaca the 12th inst. In other cities there were arrests of politicians and others charged with stirring up trouble.

Official figures made public by the government tonight placed the casualty list during the recent outbreaks at forty-five dead and 187 wounded, of whom twenty were seriously hurt. In republican circles it was said these figures are too low.

Premier Berenguer, completely recovered from his recent attack of tonsillitis, issued an order today requiring all civilians to surrender all arms in their possession. This applied to those who held permits from the government to carry pistols.

WIFE SLAYER CONVICTED

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 19. (AP)—Ernest Pryor of Martinsville, Ind., was convicted of voluntary manslaughter today on the charge of poisoning his wife, Carrie Thelma Pryor, 21 years of age. He was sentenced to serve two to twenty-one years.

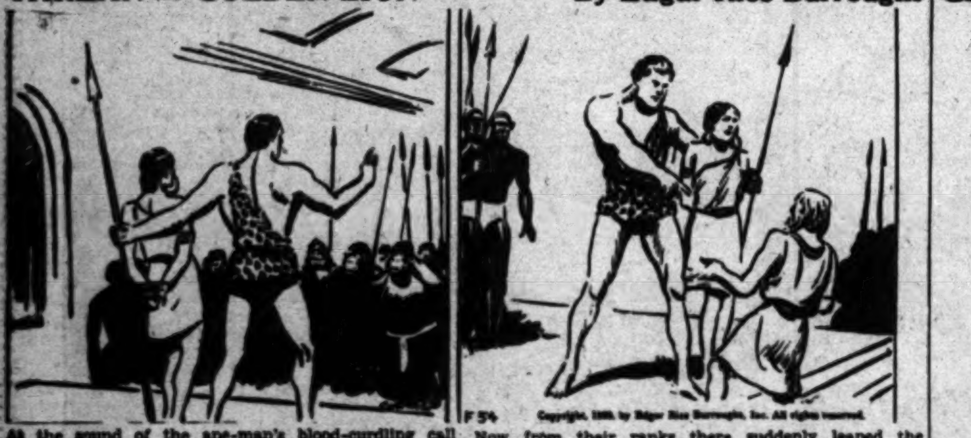
A CHUCKLE FOR EVERYBODY

TARZAN AND THE GOLDEN LION

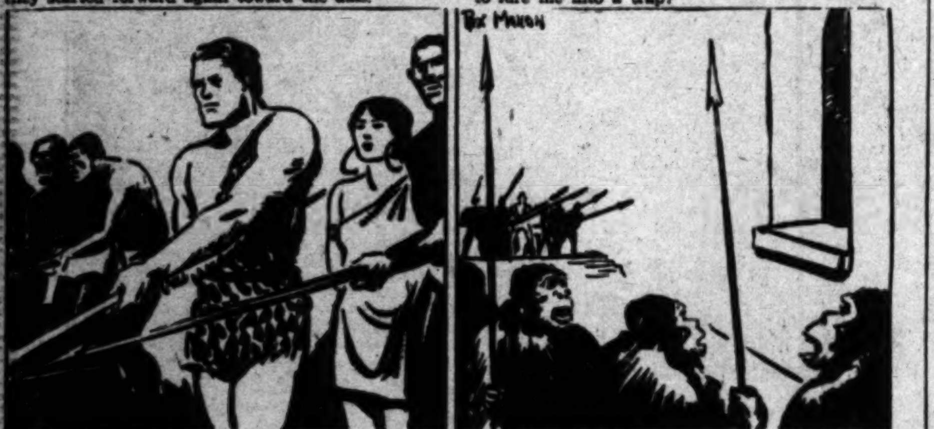
By Edgar Rice Burroughs



F 54
Copyright, 1930, by Edgar Rice Burroughs, Inc. All rights reserved.

At the sound of the ape-man's blood-curdling call the Bolgani chucked and paused. Behind him, the Gomangani quailed in terror. "Stop!" cried Tarzan, raising a palm toward the Bolgani. "I am Tarzan of the Apes. I sought no quarrel with your people. I but look for passage through your country to my own. Let me go my way in peace with this woman, taking these Gomangani with me." For answer, a chorus of savage growls arose from the Bolgani as they started forward again toward the dais.

Now from their ranks there suddenly leaped the old man of the east tower, who ran swiftly toward Tarzan. "Ah, traitor!" cried the ape-man. "You would be the first, then, to taste the wrath of Tarzan?" He spoke in English and the old man replied in the same tongue. "Traitor?" he exclaimed, in surprise. "Yes, traitor!" thundered Tarzan. "Did you not hurry here to tell the Bolgani I was in the palace that they might send the Gomangani to lure me into a trap?"



"No," replied the other, "I came here to place myself near the white woman, thinking I could be of service to her or you. I come now, Englishman, to die at your side. For nothing can save you from the wrath of the Bolgani whose Emperor you have killed!" "Come, then," cried Tarzan, "it is better to die now than live in slavery forever!" Meanwhile, six Gomangani ranged themselves upon either side of Tarzan and La. The seventh, he who had entered the chamber with Tarzan unarmed, was taking weapons from one of the slain gorilla-men lying dead upon the dais.

Before this array of force, so new to them, the Bolgani paused at the foot of the stairs. But only for a moment, for they were fifty against nine. Up the dais steps they surged. Tarzan and his Gomangani met them with battle axe and spear and bludgeon. But numbers were against Tarzan's people. Again the gorilla-men charged with what this time appeared certain success. Wave-like, they swept forward, when suddenly there broke on the ears of the contestants a frightful roar. It came from almost at their sides and brought a sudden, momentary lull in the battle.

LANE AND LELIVELT BACK FROM EAST; EXPECT EARLY END IN WAR OVER DRAFT

BY BOB RAY

Back from the baseball wars in the East, Bill Lane, boss of the Hollywood Stars, and Jack Lelivelt, manager of the Angels, returned home yesterday.

Bill Lane

JACK LELIVELT

Both expressed satisfaction in the deals they engineered to bring new talent to the two local ball clubs and each is confident that his club will be right in the thick of the 1931 flag race.

Concerning the "break" between the majors and minors over the universal draft, both Lane and Lelivelt expressed the opinion that the warring factions would get together in another meeting and resume relations before next spring.

The Hollywood prexy waxed as enthusiastic as he ever allows himself to over the two players the Sheiks obtained in the deal that sent Mickey Heath to the Cincinnati Reds.

"Everybody out here knows that Marty Callaghan will help most any ball club," said Lane last night, "while this fellow Pat Crawford is a real hitter and can field well enough to hold down any position on the infield. Vitt's planning on using Pat at first base. Callaghan is a hustling athlete with plenty of pepper and ought to fit in nicely with the Sheiks. He has a great arm, is faster than the average flychaser and a dangerous hitter in the pinches.

"The Stars, whether the majors fail to resume relations with the minors or not, are all set for the 1931 season to start. This Edwards, a big right-hander with plenty of swift, whom we got from Baltimore, ought to make us a winning hurler. We also have a couple of good-looking youngsters coming from the Piedmont League, the circuit we obtained Turner and Page from last year. Our infield, outfield and catching staff is all set. They can ring the bell for the start of the 1931 season any time they want to. The Stars are all ready."

Lelivelt says he expects the Angels to shape up stronger than they did last season. The Seraph skipper has obtained eleven new faces for Los Angeles fans to look over, including four new pitchers, a hard-hitting catcher, a couple of outfielders and two good-hitting infielders.

"I look for this 'Doc' Farrell, whom we obtained from the Cubs in the Baecht deal, to prove a sensation for us," said Lelivelt. "He's a very good hitter and a capable fielder. I intend to use him at second base. Farrell was good enough to play shortstop for both the Giants and Boston Braves, which indicates his fielding ability. He is just as much at home on second as he is on short

LISTS CLOSE TONIGHT FOR PALOMAR TOURNEY

With word yet to be received from several outstanding stars, entries will close tonight in the first annual Southern California midwinter tennis championships, which are scheduled to begin Monday morning on the Palomar Tennis Club courts with the Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsoring the event. An exceptionally fine entry is assured with the names already entered, and everything is in readiness for the gala tourney to be launched on its way.

PHIL NEER

Tournament officials announced last night that Phil Neer, former intercollegiate singles champion, of San Francisco, has accepted an invitation to come south for the matches, and will pair with Sidney Wood in the men's doubles. Gerald Stratford was extended an invitation yesterday and officials are looking forward with hope for his acceptance.

At first, it was decided to limit the men's singles and doubles, but because of the deluge of entries, the officials have opened the men's singles draw to sixty-four players, and the men's doubles to thirty-two. This will give more local stars a chance to show their wares, and will heighten the interest considerably.

The Palomar Tennis Club, which is located in the Cheviot Hills, has resurfaced all of the courts and 1000 additional seats have been set up.

The first annual Southern California midwinter tennis championships takes its place on the already long string of sports doings that the junior body is sponsoring this winter.

ROCKNE DENIES HE'LL QUIT

SOUTH BEND (Ind.) Dec. 19. (AP)—In a telephone conversation from the Mayo Brothers Hospital at Rochester, Minn., today, Knute Rockne termed as "ridiculous" reports he would not coach Notre Dame's football team next season.

"There's nothing to it," he informed his secretary. "I expect to be back in the game and at Notre Dame next spring and fall."

The South Americans who will play at Midwick next month are all of Irish extraction. If they are anything like the Irish from Notre Dame it will be curtains for our poloists, the football experts point out.

The Argentine polo players will arrive shortly after the new year, it was announced. Juan Benitz, a well-known poloist in the lower continent, will also play with the team here, Neil McCarthy stated.

Los Angeles Boy Aggressor Throughout Milling

DETROIT, Dec. 19. (AP)—Jackie Fields, former welterweight champion, knocked out Bucky Lawless, of Syracuse, N. Y., in the fifth round of a scheduled ten-round bout at Olympia Arena tonight.

JACKIE FIELDS

Fields, showing vast improvement over his appearance here last winter, when he lost his crown to young Jack Thompson, was the aggressor throughout and had Lawless holding on for the last four rounds. With the exception of the first round he was on top of his man all the way and forced Bucky to back up with clean left hooks and hard right-arm jolts to the head.

Lawless came out fast at the begining of the fight and his body blows made Fields hang on but not for long, as Fields soon opened up and fought Lawless all over the ring. Lawless was warned to keep his blows up. The round was fast, Jackie winning it by using his right to the head with good effect.

There was considerable holding and roughing in the third. Lawless clipped Jackie on the chin with a stinging right and sent him to the ropes but he was unhurt, his aggressiveness winning the round. He was all over Lawless in the fourth, his glove which seemed forever to be in Lawless's face, kept the easterner back-pedaling.

After a series of left hooks and jabs Jackie put in a sharp right to Bucky's chin one minute after the fifth round started and Lawless went to the floor where he was counted out. He had to be assisted to his corner. Each weighed 146½ pounds.

Johnny Datto, 125½, Cleveland, knocked out Johnny Posky, 127½, Windsor, in the first of a scheduled six-round semifinal.

Red Elephants on Third Quest for Honors

Southerners to Arrive Here Next Tuesday

TUSCALOOSA (Ala.) Dec. 19. (AP) Alabama's Red Elephants tonight rumbled toward the land of the setting sun on their third quest for football honors, a game with Washington State that will write "finis" to Wallace Wade's highly successful coaching career at Tuscaloosa.

WALLACE WADE

Little ceremony marked the departure of the Crimson Tide shortly before noon for their Rose Bowl game with the Cougars, champion of the West. However, some 400 students and others ushered the thirty-five players aboard the special train.

The official party numbered eighty-one persons, including members of the squad, coaches, university officials and sports writers from nearly a dozen southern newspapers. A small band of students and friends accompanied the players, although the body of supporters will leave the State on three special trains after Christmas.

The only stop will be for a trip to the Grand Canyon, where the players will limber up, then rest free from football cares until they reach Pasadena.

Practice will be resumed after arrival in California December 23. As the crowd entrained all men were in excellent condition with the exception of "Monk" Campbell. He is, however, recovering rapidly from a twisted knee.

WASHINGTON STATE LEAVES FOR PASADENA

PULLMAN (Wash.) Dec. 19. (AP) Washington State's Cougars closed their northern practice with an hour of hard scrimmage just before boarding the train tonight for Pasadena to meet Alamaba's Crimson Tide on New Year's Day.

MAXIE TO BE COUNTED OUT

New York Commission Will Declare Schmeling Null and Void for Ignoring Edict

NEW YORK, Dec. 19. (AP)—Max Schmeling, who won the world's heavyweight title from Jack Sharkey while in a reclining position, seems about to lose it the same way.

The New York State Athletic Commission today, reading his cabled reply from Germany to an ultimatum ordering him to sign within fifteen days for a return duel with the Boston sailorman, suffered a slight attack of heat under the collar. Schmeling blandly cabled the august fathers to get in touch with his new manager, Joe Jacobs, who knows about such things, but said nothing about signing to fight Sharkey or anyone else within fifteen days or ever.

MAX SCHMELING

The commission, headed by James A. Farley, refused to comment officially on the cablegram. There were indications, however, the solons now regret the recognition extended Schmeling after his victory on a foul over Sharkey last June and are about to declare him null and void and the championship, vacated voluntarily by Gene Tunney in 1928, once more open to all comers.

Schmeling's cablegram, which the commission considers no answer at all to their ultimatum, was as follows:

"Gentlemen: Joe Jacobs is now my sole manager and I have just cabled him to go before your body and handle this matter. He knows what to do. Best regards."

Unfortunately for Schmeling and the heavyweight puzzle, now more complicated than ever, the commission does not recognize Jacobs as a manager because of his suspension some time ago during the controversy that surrounded the elimination of the Teuton heavyweight's original pilot, Arthur Buelow. Jacobs has filed no managerial contract on Schmeling with the commission. The fistic fathers consider Schmeling a free agent, required to speak for himself.

The commission put the pressure on two other champions who have been lax in the matter of defending their titles. Mickey Walker, king of the middleweights, and Panama Al Brown, bantamweight ruler, were ordered to sign within fifteen days

BILL HUNTER LEAVES FOR EAST TOMORROW

To represent the University of Southern California at the twenty-fifth annual convention of the National Collegiate Athletic Association and at the annual gathering of the American Football Coaches' Association, Director of Athletics Willis O. (Bill) Hunter of the Trojan institution will leave tomorrow night for New York City.

The coaches' sessions will be held first at the Hotel Astor on the 29th inst. On the 30th inst. the N.C.A.A. will hold a preliminary meeting and on the following day the convention proper will be staged. Featured speeches on the N.C.A.A. program are slated to be given by Avery Brundage, president of the American Olympic Association, on "The Olympic Ideal and American Participation in the Olympic Games" and by Dr. Howard J. Savage, author of Bulletin 23 of the Carnegie Foundation, on "Current Developments in American College Athletics."

Director Hunter will not be affected by the annual election of members to the National Football Rules Committee, as his election to the rules body last year to represent the Pacific Coast was for a four-year term. Hunter will return about January 5, next.

Record Opening Day Gallery Views Stars; Sparkling Golf Features First Round of Tournament

BY EDWARD LAWRENCE

Splitting the pins with slashing wood and stinging irons, Craig Wood, long-driving young professional from Bloomfield, N. J., smashed out a par-cracking 35-34—69 over the Brookside Park municipal course yesterday afternoon to take a two-stroke lead over the field at the eighteen-hole mark of the third annual Pasadena $4000 open tournament.

Winner of Pasadena's first open tournament two years ago, it was apparent from the first that Craig was on familiar stamping grounds as he played spotless golf to lead a great starting field of 188 professionals and amateurs.

WALTER HAGEN

It may be stated here for the edification of all concerned that the new big ball of the robust silhouette, but delicate avoirdupois, namely 1.55 ounces in weight by 1.68 inches in girth, made its official debut with eclat. A slight decrease in distance and a bit more temperament in the wind were the only differences noted from the old ball.

While Wood alone humbled par, five others, Joe Kirkwood of New York, Frank Walsh of Chicago, Tommy Armour of Detroit, Ben Richter of St. Louis, and Al Espinosa of Chicago, knocked at the door with perfect scores of 71.

The Junior Chamber will accept all entries right up until the closing day for filing, January 4, according to Le Roy D. Owen, president of the chamber and chairman of the golf committee.

Clifford Rawson, secretary-manager of the Junior Chamber, reports seventy entries so far—the largest early enrollment in the history of the event. The only restriction in the qualifying round, slated for January 7, is in the amateur ranks with only simon pures of a 10 handicap or under eligible.

Unbeaten U.C.L.A. and L.A.A.C. Quintets Tangle Tonight at Olympic Auditori

MERCURY SQUAD MADE FAVORITE

Bruins May Provide Upset in Clash Tonight

Sectional Cage Title Will Hinge on Outcome

Hyatt and Linthicum Rival Aces of Quintets

Meeting in a game that will decide the basketball championship of this section, Coach Caddy Works's University of California at Los Angeles Bruins and the Los Angeles Athletic Club Mercuries, two unbeaten quintets who have cleaned up the strongest teams in these parts, tangle tonight at the Olympic Auditorium.

The game is scheduled to start at 8 o'clock, but will be preceded by a preliminary tussle between the U.C.L.A. frosh and the Huntington Park High five. Action in the opener begins at 7 o'clock.

The L.A.A.C. boasts the strongest cage team in its history and will probably take the court a slight favorite, although the Bruins have an aggregation that figures to be a strong contender for Pacific Coast Conference laurels.

"Rags" Wilcox, player-coach of the Mercuries, will start at a forward berth tonight opposite Charley Hyatt, all-American flash from Pittsburgh University. Tom Pickell, six-foot six-inch giant from Oklahoma, will be at center, with Carl Shy, a former Bruin star, and Rex Reason, the starting guards.

Hyatt is said to be the fastest thing on a basketball court ever seen in this section. He is a brilliant shot, an expert dribbler and is said to be practically impossible to guard. He has averaged more than fifteen points in all of his games this year.

Despite the admitted strength of the Mercuries, the Bruins have a club that is capable of giving them a terrific battle and possibly emerging on top.

The Bruin attack is centered around Dick Linthicum, flashy forward; Dick Von Hagen and Capt. Carl Knowles. All three are deadly shots and if they all happen to strike a "hot" night the Mercuries will more than have their hands full. Coach Works has three good guards in Frank Lubin, six foot five inch guard, who also jumps center; George Brotemarkle and Dud Tower, two flashy sophomores.

So far, the L.A.A.C. quintet has scored victories over Pomona, Whittier, Occidental and S.C. Trojans. The Mercuries had to go into overtime to beat the Trojans, 30 to 24. The Bruins also have trimmed Pomona and Whittier by scores approximating the L.A.A.C. tallies. U.C.L.A. scored its last victory over Hollywood A.C., 42-34, last Friday. The Hollywood team had previously defeated the Trojans, so the comparative scores of the Bruins and Mercuries would make tonight's game a toss-up.

SOUTH'S GRID STARS ARRIVE

Knute Rockne and his Notre Dame all-stars.

Southern football ranks with the best in the land and Maree and Maffett have been outstanding performers on their respective teams for the past three years. Maree appeared here with Georgia Tech two years ago and blocked the kick on Benny Lom which resulted in the southerners scoring the two points which ultimately defeated California, 8 to 7. Vance is a tackle and won all-southern honors this year.

Maffett and Dalrymple of Tulane were rated the two greatest ends below the Mason and Dixon line this season. The latter made many all-American teams, while Maffett was picked on one mythical eleven. The Georgia Tech star is reputed to be a marvelous forward-pass receiver. Maree captained Georgia Tech this year and Maffett held the same honor at Georgia

With the two southern stars on deck, Mr. Champ Pickens, who is managing the promotion of the game, fairly exuded enthusiasm and smiles last night. "Maree and Maffett are two great players, suh," said Mr. Pickens over the phone, "and they will show Los Angeles fans some real football."

The Notre Dame all-stars are due Monday morning on the Golden State Limited, reaching Los Angeles at 8:30 o'clock. Accompanying the Irish players will be Red Cagle, former Army star, who will be making his first appearance before a local grid audience. Cagle was here a year ago when the Cadets stopped at the Ambassador overnight while en route to Palo Alto to play Stanford.

Maree and Maffett will be in uniform today at Bovard Field where the West-South athletes are working out under the direction of Russ Saunders, former Southern California backfield star.

Jimmy Jhelan, who is to coach the West-South team, arrives tomorrow night from the north, bringing with him Cotton Wilcox and Pest Welch, former Purdue players who are to join the local squad.

The B. H. Dyas office has been doing a land-office business in tickets during the past few days and with the arrival of the Notre Dame contingent Monday, it is expected that the demand for ducats will show an even greater increase.

NOTRE DAME SQUAD EN ROUTE TO COAST

CHICAGO, Dec. 19. (AP)—The Notre Dame all-star football squad which will meet the Pacific Coast stars for charity at Los Angeles the 27th inst., left tonight for the Coast.

Assistant Coach Heartley (Hunk) Anderson was in charge of the group, which included Frank Carideo, O'Brien, Larry Mullins, Al Howard, Tom Kassis, Dick Donaghue, Bud Gebert, Ike Voedisch, George Vik, Jack Cannon, Ted Twomey, Jack Elder, Tom Nash and Tim Moynihan.

CROSS-CURRENT PREDICTIONS

JOHNNY MACK BROWN says Alabama will beat Washington State on New Year's Day.

Ray Loomis says he's all wet; that Washington State will win.

There you have the two extremes.

Only on one point are they agreed; that the current teams are the best their alma maters have ever sent to Pasadena for a holiday struggle.

Johnny Mack Brown played halfback on the first Alabama eleven that came to the Coast, the one which beat University of Washington 20 to 19 in 1926.

All of Alabama's twenty points were made in the third period, and Johnny Mack Brown scored two of the three touchdowns on long passes, one from Grant Gillis, the other from Pooley Hubert.

Ray Loomis played left end on the Washington State team which blanked Brown University 14 to 0 in the first New Year's Day game of the current series, January 1, 1916.

He and Zimmerman, the other end, were two of the strong stars of the game.

HIS GREATEST PLAYERS

DURING The Times sports half-hour interview over KHJ the other night Johnny Mack Brown and Loomis gave some of their impressions about great players.

Johnny Mack said in his estimation four of the greatest he ever saw were Pooley Hubert, Red Grange, George Wilson and Ernie Nevers.

He named Hubert, who never received recognition as an all-American, at the top of the list.

"Hubert," he said, "was a great ball packer, but above all else as a quarterback he was a marvelous field general.

"He really won that game with Washington for us. After trailing 12 to 0 at half time we scored twenty points in the third period through his uncanny direction of plays. Almost single-handed he scored one touchdown himself on straight-line plunging.

"Then with Washington moving another man up into the line to stop the bucks Pooley switched his attack to the air, and in about three minutes of play we scored two more touchdowns on passes.

"George Wilson was one of the hardest players to stop I ever saw or played against.

"He had a peculiar cross-step that he used when about to be tackled.

"This brought his hip with a boom into the tackler's head and generally Wilson kept right on going."

THE WONDERFUL POLLARD

LOOMIS praised Frits Pollard, Brown's Negro halfback in the 1916 game, as the greatest back he ever saw.

Although only an occasional all-American the year of the Washington State game Pollard was the universal choice of all critics the following season.

"Even on the rain-soaked field we played on over at old Tournament Park," said Loomis, "we had to put about six men on Pollard to stop him.

"Most of Pollard's plays were directed around my flank, and many a time I believed I had him nailed securely with both arms around his legs.

'But he had an uncanny knack of high-stepping right out of my arms, and off he would tear in the opposite direction with the whole Washington State team in pursuit.

"Zimmerman, our other end, played a smart game, and he held his position waiting for Pollard's reverse.

"What Pollard would have done to us on a dry field I can't say. He was a great halfback."

HEIN AND ELLINGSEN

EARL FOSTER, graduate manager of Washington, was also a guest on the KHJ program the other night, and he named four of the best players he has seen on the Coast this year.

McKalip, Oregon State end; Arbelbide, Southern California end; Hein, Washington State center, and Ellingsen, Washington State halfback, were his choices.

Foster doesn't believe there ever was a man the equal of Hein at center, and he considers it something of a joke that one board of all-American pickers selected Hein for tackle, apparently because of his great showing at center.

Ellingsen, in Foster's opinion, is one of the boys who will play in the New Year's Day game that has not been given his proper meed of praise.

"His all-around play is splendid. He's consistent at all times, and his kicking to the sidelines when a runback would be dangerous is unusual."

SCHMELING WILL BE COUNTED OUT

for title defenses on penalty of compulsory abdication.

To both Walker and Brown the commission telegraphed:

"You have not complied with the rules of this commission requiring champions to defend their title every six months. Unless you arrange within fifteen days from date to enter into a contract to defend your title the same will be vacated."

Jack Sharkey, slightly perturbed at the turn of affairs, visited the commission with his manager and received detailed instructions on the duties of a second. He wanted the information to aid him in handling Ernie Schaaf in the latter's bout with Max Baer in the Garden tonight.

The Boston tar has the backing of the commission, which insists Schmeling carry out the promise of a return match made last June, but lacks the support of promoters and critics. Sharkey has not fought since the Schmeling engagement and Young Stribling, Georgia pride, has stolen the spotlight.

Promoters insist a Schmeling-Sharkey bout would be doomed to financial failure unless the Boston battler first disposes of Stribling or Victorio Campolo in an elimination series the commisison so far has refused to permit.

on the water and despite the hardship of the trip all but one survived in fine fashion.

Among the ponies, which incidentally, are considered the finest collection, according to Nelson, that have ever been shipped from South America, is Hurricana, the champion of the Argentine. He is a half brother of Citrone, the winner of the championship class at Meadowbrook last season.

The ponies will be conditioned at Midwick for the winter play which starts about January 15. Capt. Wesley White, famed international referee, will again be in charge of the tournaments this season, Midwick officials announced.

The Argentine team which will play here is a twenty-four-goal outfit.

Besides the Argentines, Tommy Hitchcock, the world's leading star; Capt. Pat Roark, Great Britain's leading player, and many other polo satellites will be seen in action during the winter tournaments.

tice on the rudiments of football and drill on new plays have returned the Cougars to the splendid physical condition they had as the season opened. Mel Hein, center, and Glenn Edwards, tackle, both on all-American teams, did not go through practice today because of old injuries, but Hollingbery said they would be ready to go at gun time.

Being the underdogs for the first time this season except just before the U.S.C. game has brought a determination to the Cougars of a kind Hollingbery said he has not seen before.

Hollingbery's attack plan was his own secret as the team left. He has developed a pass defense, strengthened his forward wall and worked up a brilliant aerial and ground offensive.

"We'll wait to see what Alabama has," he replied when asked what offense he intends using.

WOOD LEADS AT PASADENA

Shoots Par Cracking 69 to Top Great Field Over Brookside Course; Walter Hagen Shines

spanked his iron second into a trap guarding the green, was weak with his out and then three-putted from eight feet.

Brilliant finishes were chalked up by Kirkwood and Espinosa, however, the former coming home in 32, while Al finished with three consecutive treys. Richter, America's finest left-handed golfer, and Walsh, played close to par golf all the way.

A record opening-day gallery of 2000 saw a new Walter Hagen yesterday—a conscientious, determined golfer, who was really trying. "The Haig" registered a card of 35-37—72, and but for a bad 6 at the fourteenth hole and a dinky putt on the eighteenth would have finished in the 60's.

Joe Hurst, who has toted Walter's bag through two winter seasons—his loyalest backer and severest critic—says to look out for Hagen, and we can't help but agree with him. Walter is hitting the ball as of old. He still has the color and a few good rounds of golf will once more see him at the top of the heap.

Go to it, Walter!

Hagen tied with Clarence Clark of Tulsa, Okla.; Ernest Martin of Los Angeles and Ray Mangrum of Texas in the 72 bracket.

HORTON FALTERS

Al Barbee of the Bel-Air Country Club and Charles (Chuck) Berdrow of Fox Hills topped the amateurs with scores of 73. Well-known golfers in the 73 group are Tony Manero of New York and Jack Tarrant of Hollywood, California open champion.

Barbee and Berdrow were closely followed by John DeForest, young English amateur, and Johnny Dawson of Chicago, with 74's.

Horton Smith, the defending open champion, played in the feature foursome of the afternoon, made up of Hagen, A. K. Bourne, Pasadena sportsman, and Douglas Fairbanks. Horton finished with a 75, but it is not advisable to count him out yet.

Pasadena officials were beaming yesterday and even Robert Eugene Harlow, much publicized director of the P.G.A. tournament bureau, had a grin spread all over his physiognomy.

It seems that Pasadena's tournament committee took to heart reports that interest in tournament golf was on the ebb. Imagine their embarrassment when there were 291 entries, a new record, and even after the field had been cut down to 188 players not all were able to finish before dark.

Add to this a record first-day gallery and it can be readily appreciated that tournament golf still has its appeal, alleged bad business conditions and all.

Among those who must complete their rounds this morning are Harry Cooper, Olin Dutra, George Von Elm, J. S. Vincent, Dan Sangster, Bill Crowell, Leonard Loos, Alex McCafferty, Al Caris, Walter Slater, Ken Owens, Jack Douglas, Fred Clark, W. J. Wise, Leo Ramish, Pat Abbott, R. Haynes, Will Ramish, Gene Ruggiero, Phil Ayres, Red Mansell, W. Schmidt and Jimmy Edge.

FINE GOLF

The golf played yesterday was worth going a long way to see. Wood got off on the right foot with a birdie 3 on the 335-yard first hole and rapped in a long putt on the 491-yard sixth hole for an eagle 3. He also bagged two birdies coming in.

Espinosa canned a twelve-footer on the sixteenth hole for a birdie 3, got a par 3 on seventeen and then tapped in a putt of fifteen feet on eighteen for the finest finish of the day.

Kirkwood's finish also drew applause. To get his 32 he birdied three holes and parred the other six.

Hagen's only lapse in a fine round came at the 328-yard fourteenth hole. One under par going to this hole, Walter drove a trap in front of the green. His out was over and he was short coming back, taking three more from the edge of the green for a 6.

Practically all of the stars will be started between 10 o'clock and noon this morning. The feature threesome will again be Hagen, Smith and Bourne, starting at 11 o'clock.

ticipates a large entry list, only the low 128 players and ties will come out of the qualifying round and into the championship play proper. Of this number only the low 50 and ties will go into the final thirty-six-hole journey.

Chairman Owen of the golf committee also named five of the six courses over which qualifiers will compete. These are: Hillcrest, Hollywood, Fox Hills, Potrero and Sunset Hills. The sixth course will be named at a later date.

PACHO IN FEATURE MAIN-STREET BOUT

Bobby Pacho, Mexican featherweight, makes his first Main Street Athletic Club appearance tonight when he meets Bobbie Ramires in a scheduled six-round bout. Joe Bitto returns to the downtown club after an absence of more than a year and meets Tony Cadena. Their bout is also a six-rounder, making up the second half of the double main event.

Homer Gaines, local colored lightweight, will take on Ad Cadena in the six-round special event. Louis Ramos, who has boxed a number of main events at the downtown club, meets Bartola Magino in a fourth six-round bout. They are 130-pounders. Manuel Davila and Sailor Nebres, 160-pounders, are scheduled to step four rounds in the curtain raiser.

LEWIS NOT IN FEATURE BOUT

Ed Fails in Efforts to Land Top Position

Ed (Strangler) Lewis, former mat king, who will meet Joe Stocca, giant Italian, in a finish match, yesterday failed in his efforts to get the feature event spot on the wrestling program Promoter Lou Daro has scheduled for the Olympic Monday night.

Lewis, who recently returned from a mat tour of Australia in the best physical condition he has been in for years, has started a comeback that he expects to end with the world's heavyweight wrestling crown resting upon his head for the fourth time. Lewis has won the title three different times since December 13, 1920. He predicts he will win the title the first time he gets Don George, new world's champion, in the same ring. No wrestler known to the game has ever won the mat title four different times, and Lewis expects to be the first.

The former champion demanded the final spot on Daro's final card, which was scheduled for Monday instead of Wednesday this time because the latter day fell on Christmas Eve, when he agreed to meet Stocca, known in the East as a strong, rugged grappler. In a toss-up for places on the card, yesterday, Lewis lost.

Nick Lutze, the popular Venice life guard, will appear in the final feature event, also a three-fall finish match, against Henri De Glane, Greco-Roman wrestling champion, and a grappler who is rated as one of the greatest in the country at the present time.

Lutze has scheduled his last hard workout for this match for today. He is reported to be in better condition than he has been for any match here since his title battles with Lewis, and he is quite confident that De Glane's Greco-Roman holds, his great strength and endurance, will give him less bother than they did Everett Marshall here two months ago.

Mat critics predict Daro's final bout of the year will develop into one of the most sensational seen here this year. Both are in line for the first title match here with George.

"Dynamite" Gus Sonnenberg, who has been resting in this section since George won the title from him here last week, is about ready to start training again, it was reported yesterday, and he is expected to enter the fight here for a bout with the new champion.

Myron Cox, another Venice life guard, will meet Don De Laun of Glendale, in the opening event.

MANY FANS OUT FOR GOLF PLAY

Bourne. Jean Harlow and Jean Arthur, screen celebrities, launched the event in fitting style by teeing up the balls for the professional's initial drives. Fairbanks played only nine holes, turning in a snappy 39, while Bourne, who, with John H. Eagle, underwrites the tournament, went all the way around with Hagen and Smith.

The new size golf ball was official yesterday, and none of the professionals seemed to object to its use. Everybody agreed that it was possible to get almost as much distance with the new pellet as with the old one, although some declared that a high wind would have more effect on the new ball.

Fay Coleman, Southern California amateur champion, claimed that the new ball affected his putting, as he rimmed the cup a number of times. Coleman has been ill lately, and this is only the second time he has played with the new ball.

Johnny Dawson, amateur, who is playing from scratch was disappointed with his 74. He had considerable trouble with his brassies.

Tommy Armour blew a chance to tie Craig Wood's 69 when he took a 6 on the eighteenth for a 71. Armour was in the trap to the right of the green with his second, was out poorly, and three putted. Joe Kirkwood, playing in the same threesome, sank a 20 footer for his four.

Hagen, despite a long layoff, seems to be just as effective as ever in getting out of trouble. His 35 on the first nine was a thing of beauty. He was to the right of the green on the par 3 No. 8, but laid his second to within two feet of the pin for a par. On the eighteenth, however, he dubbed a careless attempt at an eight-inch putt, and took a 72 instead of a simple 71.

Ben Reichter, who turned in a 71, is the left-handed champion of the country. His southpaw woods and irons were working perfectly, but he had trouble with his putts. He missed four under four feet, that, if they had fallen, would have given him a 67.

Charles Lacey, the young English professional, did not look any too well. He has been ill lately. Many golfers consider him one of the most promising youngsters in the game today.

Mrs. Al Espinosa was on hand, as usual, following her husband around. She was rewarded with a snappy 71, including a 3-3-3 for the last three holes. Mrs. Al figures that she has watched her husband play about 2000 holes of golf since they were here last winter, which is about 400 miles of walking.

George Von Elm, the "business man" golfer, who shot a 64 at Rancho recently with the new ball, declares it is much easier to handle, and better to putt with, than the old ball.

Craig Wood started out brilliantly in his attempt to recover the championship he captured in its first year in 1928. His 69, two under par, give him a two-stroke lead on the field.

Bourne and Eagle financed that first tournament, with Jack Malley, Annandale pro, and former Southern California P.G.A. president, handling all arrangements. Last year the Pasadena Junior Chamber of Commerce took over the event, with Bourne and Eagle underwriting the expenses. The same arrangements hold forth this season.

Junior Chamber officials in charge of the event include Max Turner, L. K. Leishman and Jimmy Ingram, with Malley officiating as sub-chairman. Aaron Vice and Bill Hickey, professionals at the municipal club, have been extremely active in putting over the tourney in great style.

Scotty Chisholm, the veteran and demon announcer, was in great voice, as usual. Aside from the fact that he introduced Hagen as "Hogan," Scotty went through the day without a blunder.

Harry Cooper, who won the first Los Angeles $10,000 open, appears to be quite determined, although he seems to have lost a lot of the dash and zip that made him a colorful figure on the links a few years ago. Cooper is still playing great golf, however, recently winning the $10,000 open at St. Paul.

Horton Smith used one of his sand wedges to get out of a trap on the eighteenth, with a large gallery standing around. The trap sand was hard and firm, and he could have putted out easily. Of course, the fact that Horton sponsors the sand wedge, and receives a small sum for each one sold probably had nothing to do with the shot. The wedge really is a great club, at that.

Chuck Ward, the midget Brentwood golfer, sank a nifty birdie 3 on the eighteenth for a fine 75-4-71.

Al Barron, a promising young pro, almost drove the green on the 335-yard first, and then putted all over the place for a 6.

and with Carl Dittmar ought to give us as good a keystone combination as we had last year in Ditty and Sigafoos."

"Lorey Baker, the infielder we got from the Seals for Art Delaney, insures us of having a capable utility man. Baker plays any position on the infield and also can play the outfield. He's a better than .300 batter and a switch hitter.

"We still have three more players coming from the Cubs and when they join us the Angels will be ready for the opening game. Schulte, the big catcher from the Cubs, has always batted better than .300 and will give us a punch behind the plate. We are also trying to land Larry Woodall from Portland. If we get him I'll match the Cherub catching staff with any in the league."

Lelivelt says that the Angels had some other deals up their sleeve, but the draft squabble prevented them from going through. The Seraphs expect at least one hard-hitting outfielder from the Cubs who will end their outer garden worries. Jimmy Welsh, obtained from the Braves in the Schulmerich swap, and Jigger Statz are certain of taking care of two outfield posts.

Concerning the draft war, Lelivelt says he expects things to be patched up between the majors and minors before long.

"The way it stands now," says the Angel manager, "the Seraphs, Stars and Seals are the only outfits ready to start the 1931 race with contending clubs."

Lane brought back good news concerning the condition of Red Killefer, Mission prexy and manager, who was stricken ill at the Montreal meeting and operated on at Kalamazoo, Mich. According to the "hard rock miner," who stopped off to see Red on his way out, Killefer is rapidly regaining his strength and will be ready to come back to the Coast in a couple of weeks.

Kyne and Mack Appointed to Racing Board

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 19. (AP)—The names of Peter B. Kyne and Willard Mack, noted, respectively, as author and playwright, have been added to the list of governors of the Agua Caliente Jockey Club, it was announced yesterday. Wirt G. Bowman and James N. Crofton, president and general manager, respectively, of the club, have extended invitations to Kyne and Mack to join the board of governors of that organization.

Kyne, a turf enthusiast as well as a successful author, has been racing at Tanforan under the nom de course of El Gavilan Stable.

Mack, well known as a playwright of the legitimate and motion-picture stage, owns the Bill Bee Stable, which has connections in Connecticut and at San Ysidro, Cal.

Varner Stops Sid Torres in Hollywood Go

Claude Varner, hard-punching Bakersfield bantamweight, had too much dynamite in his gloves for Sid Torres last night in the main event at the Hollywood American Legion. Referee Freddie Gilmore stopped the battle in the third round, giving a technical knockout decision to Varner.

Punching Claude won all the way, crowding the Filipino in the first two rounds and dropping him to the canvas in the third session with hard wallops to the midsection and head. When Torres crumpled to the floor, Referee Gilmore didn't even bother about the count, but walked over to Varner and raised his hand in token of victory.

Young Sport, Mexican battler, took a six-round decision over Johnny Gabucco in the semi-windup. Gabucco was subbing for Jimmy Mack.

Augue Curtis outpointed Pepi Sanchez in the six-round special event. It was a fast fight all the way.

Joe Soldivar beat Leo Lomelli in one of the four-rounders, while Eddie Lloyd took the nod over Midgit Wiswell in the curtain-raiser.

Tiger Cagers Capture Pair

Coach Eddie Kienholz's Occidental cagers took a hard workout last night and chalked up two victories in a basketball double-header played on the Tigers' floor. Kienholz uncovered a new sophomore sensation in Don Main, who registered 20 points in the preliminary game, which saw the Tigers beat Pasadena Junior College, 48-40, and 7 more digits in the feature tussle, which Oxy won from the Shamrock Athletic Club by a score of 34-18.

The Tigers played without the services of their star forward, Dick Glover, who was married yesterday to Miss Emily Von Waggoner of Santa Barbara. Glover will return to school after the Christmas holidays.

Philbrook May Get Demands

RENO (Nev.) Dec. 19. (AP)—While one member of the football squad, who had voiced opposition to Coach George W. Philbrook, was being "taken for a ride" by an unidentified group of students, the University of Nevada student body today demanded its coach-selecting committee reconsider its action regarding a new contract for Philbrook.

Philbrook resigned Monday night when a committee comprising four students and three faculty members could not agree on offering him nothing better than a one-year contract at his present salary. The students today returned the matter to the committee by a unanimous vote, following a heated debate in the student-body meeting, and it was regarded as virtually certain tonight that the two-year contract offer sought will be forthcoming tomorrow.

Meanwhile Frank Powers, a third-string quarterback, was seized by a group of students early in the morning and taken several miles out of town, where he was left to walk in. He returned too late to have anything to say at this morning's meeting.

FILM CITY, PASADENA TO CLASH TOMORROW

Hollywood and the Pasadena A.C.C. will occupy the spotlight tomorrow afternoon at the home grounds of the City Soccer League. These teams play the feature game on the program. Hollywood is unbeaten to date. The Pasadena team is one of the real threats in the league. They are a group of hustling youngsters who seem bent on going somewhere in the league race. The Scots and the Victorias open the card.

At Tournament Park, Pasadena, the Los Angeles A.C. meets the Richfield Oilers. In the 3 p.m. game the Sons of St. George play the Magyars.

PICK NEW OFFICERS FOR TENNIS PATRONS

The Tennis Patrons' Association of Southern California held its annual meeting yesterday afternoon at the California Club, and the board of governors and new officers for 1930-31 were chosen. The board of governors for the next year is composed of Allen Davenport, William May Garland, James R. Paige, Richard J. Schweppe and Alfred Wright. The officers for the next year are Dr. Isaac Jones, president; Richard J. Schweppe, vice-president; Alfred Wright, treasurer; A. W. Kent, secretary, and Allen Davenport, assistant secretary.

MIDGET WOLGAST VICTOR

TORONTO (Ont.) Dec. 19. (AP)—Midget Wolgast of Philadelphia, recognized in some quarters as the world's flyweight champion, decisively outpointed Willie Davies, veteran Charleroi (Pa.) battler, in a ten-round bout here tonight.

GODFREY IN SLOW DRAW

ATLANTA, Dec. 19. (AP)—George Godfrey, Philadelphia Negro heavyweight, and Ed (Bearcat) Wright, Omaha (Neb.) boxer, fought ten slow rounds to a draw here tonight.

FIREMEN TAKE STIFF WORKOUT

Smoke-eaters Drilling for North Dakota Game

Fire Department football players went through the hardest workout of the season yesterday afternoon in preparation for their intersectional clash Christmas afternoon at the Coliseum with North Dakota University. Coach Bill Blewett drove the firemen players for more than two hours before he called a halt on the scrimmage with the scrubs.

Blewett has about decided on a new backfield combination for the first string. Capt. Les Grimes is out with a broken hand and Fremont is taking his place. That means the backfield will be Fremont at quarter, Beyers and Nolan at halves and Moses at fullback.

Nolan, Blewett claims, is one of the best kickers the west coast has ever seen. This player has not missed more than three attempts at goal this season. Moses is expected to be the spark plug of the running attack.

If the firemen take to passing Jimmy Dyer is a cinch to be called into the combination in the backfield. Dyer throws them with the speed of a bullet. In practice yesterday he almost knocked the helmets off some of his mates with his shots.

The North Dakota team arrives Monday morning. Thirty-three players are coming with Coach Jack West. The Flying Flickertails have a number of outstanding stars. They have won the North Central Conference championship three years in a row and besides that have lost but three games in that time. One of those games, incidentally, was dropped to the West Point Cadets.

Red Jarrett and John Bruma are the stars the Nodaks expect to run over the top of the firemen. Jarrett has scored on every team he has played this season.

Tickets for the game are on sale at Fire Department headquarters. E. O. Barnett, athletic director, looks for a crowd of 30,000 at the game.

Whittier and Chaffey Meet in Cage Final

HUNTINGTON PARK, Dec. 19.—The classy quintets of Whittier and Chaffey High will meet here tomorrow night in the finals of the second annual southern counties basketball championship tournament. Chaffey won the right to enter the title round by defeating Huntington Beach, 36 to 12, while Whittier defeated San Diego, 31-24, in its semifinal clash.

Chaffey won the title last year and will be a favorite to win tomorrow night, although Whittier has exhibited a lot of scoring power in the tourney so far.

In the quarter-finals today Whittier defeated Fullerton, 55-17, Chaffey swamped Orange, 33-9; San Diego trimmed Tustin, 32-24, and Huntington Beach bested Anaheim, 18-13.

Huntington Beach and San Diego clash tonight at 7:15 for third-place honors, while the Chaffey-Whittier game is to begin at 8:30. The tournament is being staged in the Huntington Beach gym.

ROYAL GIANTS AFTER ELEVEN WINS IN ROW

Having won their last nine starts, the Philadelphia Royal Giants, all-star colored squad that is performing at Wrigley Field, will seek to run their winning streak to eleven straight tomorrow when they tackle the Commercial Club in a double-header. Brewer and Foster will pitch for the Giants, with "Ace" Charleston in reserve. Wes Kingdon has strengthened the Commercial's line-up and is confident his men will halt the winning string of the Giants. The opener starts at 1:30 o'clock and women will be admitted free.

LIONS, PIRATES WILL MIX ON ICE TONIGHT

Gilmore Oil and Union Oil are tonight's Southern California Amateur Hockey League opponents for the Winter Garden Ice Palace. Ted LeRoy's Gilmore Lions, who won the league championship last season, are trying hard to repeat, but find the competition plenty tough.

The Lions and the Pirates are both conceded good chances in the race, which at present looks like a four-way struggle for the title. The Sunfreze Bears and the Shell Oil Tigers also have a look in. These teams will meet next Thursday.

HOLLYWOOD A.C. FIVE TAKES ON WHITTIER

Coach Chuck Kearney's strong Hollywood Athletic Club quintet will seek its fourth victory of the season tonight when it faces the Whittier College five in the H.A.C. gym. The Circle-H cagers, with Kearney and Cole as their scoring aces, have a victory over the Trojans to their credit, and suffered their lone defeat at the hands of the flashy U.C.L.A. Bruins.

TABERSKI WINS MATCH

NEW YORK, Dec. 19. (AP)—Frank Taberski of Schenectady, N. Y., defeated Onofrio Lauri of New York, 125 to 101, tonight in their play-off match to decide third place in the world's pocket billiards championship tournament. The match went thirty-six innings. Lauri had a high run of fifty-seven and Taberski of forty-one.

RETZLAFF WHIPS MATA

CHICAGO, Dec. 19. (AP)—Charlie Retzlaff, the Duluth (Minn.) dynamiter, knocked out Antonio Mata, Spanish heavyweight, in the first round of their eight-round bout at the Coliseum tonight. Retzlaff blasted the Spaniard to the canvas twice before finishing him.

AND ACTIVITIES AT LOS ANGELES HARBOR

FRENCH LINE TO START SERVICE

First Fast Express Carrier Arrives Tomorrow

New Liner San Antonio Due on Maiden Voyage

Six-Ship Fleet to Maintain Two-Weeks' Schedule

BY WALDO DRAKE

French Line's fortnightly express service between California and Le Havre, Dunkirk, Bordeaux and Antwerp will become a reality tomorrow morning with the arrival here from Le Havre of the new steamer San Antonio on her maiden voyage. She is the first of six sister ships built specially for California-Europe passenger, freight and refrigeration trade.

She will be followed on January 16 by the San Diego, while on February 14 the third ship, the San Francisco, is due at Los Angeles Harbor. They will be followed by the San Pedro, the San Jose and the San Mateo. All six steamers, with a deadweight capacity of 9000 tons and with a loaded speed of fifteen knots, were built at the Belfast yards of Harland & Wolff.

A fleet of fourteen vessels on regular schedule will hereafter maintain French Line's California-Europe service, according to Capt. Harry H. Birkholm, district manager of the General Steamship Corporation, freight agent of the French Line. The augmented fleet includes the six "San Antonios;" the passenger motorships Oregon and Washington; the turbine liners Winnipeg, Wyoming and Wisconsin, and a minimum of three freight steamers as cargo demands warrant. The San Antonio, to discharge 500 tons of freight here tomorrow, will sail homeward from Los Angeles Harbor on January 12.

BATTLESHIP REPAIR SHIP CREW KEPT BUSY

Christmas holidays are proving just two more weeks for the hard-working crew of the fleet repair ship Medusa. The battleship Maryland yesterday afternoon moored alongside the Medusa for her interim overhaul just after the dreadnaught Nevada had completed the same work. The ship's company of the Maryland and the Medusa's crew will both be at work putting the big ship in top trim until January 5, when she will go to sea with the battleship squadron to prepare for long-range battle practice.

All ten battleships were yesterday preparing for their annual Christmas parties, most of which will be for the benefit of poor children of the Southland. The first of two holiday leave periods has already been granted several thousand officers and men in the battle fleet, while the second will start next Wednesday.

Fox Movietone studios have just completed another marine picture titled "Seas Beneath," a picture the sea scenes of which have just been taken off the Isthmus of Catalina Island. In it were used the three-masted schooner Meta Nelson, two navy submarines, a destroyer and a mine sweeper. The Meta Nelson is disguised as a mystery ship, which drops down her bulwarks and proves herself a battler instead of an inoffensive freighter by shoving guns over the edge. George O'Brien and Miss Lessing are featured.

The Lassco combination liner Diamond Head is scheduled to sail for Honolulu and other Hawaiian ports at noon today with a capacity passenger list of sixteen travelers and a cargo of cement, plaster, lumber and other building materials. The liner Calawaii of the same line, with 170 passengers and island cargo, is due in Los Angeles tomorrow from Hawaii. Principal cargo items include fresh and canned pineapples, coffee, sugar, rubber, alcohol, express matter and general mechandise.

Another 2200 tons of raw copra from the South Seas is due the 24th inst., on the Norwegian motorship Soloy, under time charter to the American Trading Company, for delivery to the Copra Oil and Meal Company. The Stuart Dollar also arrived from the trans-Pacific yesterday with several hundred additional tons. Importations are rapidly developing to a point where Los Angeles may contest with San Francisco the claim to being the greatest copra importing port on the Pacific.

The Norwegian motor tanker Atlantic will this morning complete her long run from Buenos Aires on five cylinders and go to the yards of the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Corporation for repairs. The Atlantic, owned by William Jebsen of Bergen, broke down at sea a month ago and was towed into Bahia Blanca. She is under charter to the Shell Oil Company.

The new Jebsen motor tanker Sveve, fresh from her builders' yards on the Tyne, is due at Los Angeles Harbor on the 27th inst., to enter offshore service in the Shell fleet.

News of Ships and Sailings at Pacific Ports

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 19. (AP)—The steamer Corinto, which has been laid up since September 11, last, is scheduled to re-enter the service of the Panama Mail Line January 3, next, C. C. Mallory, general manager of the company, announced here today.

Commodore Charles J. Holland, who has been ill for several weeks, will be on the bridge of the Corinto when she sails, Mallory said. At the Panama Canal he will exchange commands with Capt. Thomas Williams of the motorship City of San Francisco.

The liner Monowai, replacing the Tahiti, which foundered in the South Pacific last August, arrived here today from Australia.

The vessel was built originally for the "P. and O." hot weather service in the Red Sea. Union Steamship Company officials say she is the fastest vessel operating in the San Francisco-Sydney service, being able to make twenty-one knots.

SEATTLE, Dec. 19.—Stiffening of rates for full grain cargoes from the Pacific Northwest to Europe was reported today.

At Vancouver, B. C., the Langleorse has been fixed for January-February loading at 22s. to 22s. 9d. At Portland the Crown of Galicia will load in January at 23s. 9d. The Stonepool has been fixed for December and January and the Holmstone in January at 22s. 6d.

PORTLAND (Or.) Dec. 19.—Several hull plates on the Isthmian Line steamer Chattanooga City were damaged today when the vessel grounded off Pilar Rock in the Lower Columbia. An examination by a diver after the steamer reached Portland disclosed the damage.

TACOMA (Wash.) Dec. 19.—Nine thousand boxes of apples were loaded today by two large European carriers. The Moveria of the Donaldson Line sailed for the United Kingdom with 6000 boxes and a quanity of plywood, doors, lumber and canned goods. The Norwegian motorship Abraham Lincoln of the Fred Olsen Line took 3000 boxes and some general freight.

ROVERS MAY UPSET RIVALS TOMORROW

Although the Rovers were rather decisively beaten by the Buccaneers on the Uplifters' polo field last Sunday, tomorrow's return engagement between the two teams is apt to be a different story. The Rovers have revamped their line-up and now appear to have a decided edge. Reggie Weiss, former six-goal player, will ride at No. 3. Will Rogers is expected to go in at back with Will, Jr., in the No. 2 position. Dr. Rex Duncan completes the team at No. 1. Lionel Pedley, mainstay of the Buccaneers, will again perform in the No. 3 position, aided by Winslow Felix and John Brandeis in the forward berths and by Lyell Puckett at back. Probable line-ups:

Rovers		Buccaneers
Dr. Rex Duncan	No. 1	Winslow Felix
Will Rogers, Jr.	No. 2	John Brandeis
Reggie Weiss	No. 3	Lionel Pedley
Will Rogers, Sr.	Back	Lyell Puckett

THISTLETHWAITE MAY RETAIN HIS JOB

MADISON (Wis.) Dec. 19. (AP)—The University of Wisconsin athletic council, after a special secret meeting today, indicated Glenn Thistlethwaite would be retained as football coach next season, but made no formal recommendation to the president of the university or the board of regents, which have final decision in all appointments to the faculty.

The football coach at the University of Wisconsin is a member of the faculty and is appointed from year to year as is any other member. He does not have a contract.

STANDARD OIL CHANGES BOARD

California Company Retires Four Members

Younger Officials Selected as Directors

J. F. Brooks Appointed to New Position

Retirement of four directors of Standard Oil Company of California, each of whom has served the company for forty years or more and the selection of their successors from the company's younger officials was formally announced yesterday.

The retiring board members are R. J. Hanna, H. M. Storey, H. T. Harper and R. C. Warner, whose connection with the company covered its great development and the growth of the oil industry in California.

J. H. Tuttle, G. E. Kennedy, A. S. Russell and R. K. Davies have been selected to fill the vacancies on the board of directors. J. F. Brooks, at present general manager of refineries, will be appointed assistant vice-president, a new position in the company.

All of the new directors have served the company a number of years, advancing from post to post in their respective departments. Mr. Tuttle entered the company's service in 1903 and in 1926 he was appointed secretary and comptroller. Mr. Kennedy became associated with the company's sales department in 1899, advancing through a number of positions to general sales manager in 1930.

Entering the manufacturing department as an engineer in 1911, Mr. Russell advanced to vice-chairman of the manufacturing committee in 1926 and in 1927 was made manager of the El Segundo refinery, a position which he now holds. Mr. Davies joined the sales department as a clerk in 1912 at Fresno and became secretary of the sales committee in 1928. He is at present stationed at the home office and is executive vice-president of the International Bitumen Emulsion Corporation.

Mr. Brooks, the new assistant vice-president, became affiliated with the company in 1895 when the Arctic Oil Company was acquired. He advanced to manager of the Richmond refinery in 1919 and in 1922 was made general manager of refineries in the home office at San Francisco.

Brighter Tone Noted in Trade Survey of Week

NEW YORK, Dec. 19. (AP)—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Marked irregularity in volume of dealings and in prices for securities for important commodities, with concentration of interest on retail distribution contrast with a further quieting in wholesale and jobbing trade, aside from a fairly seasonal booking of quick fill-in orders, and a definitely slower pace in industry, which is relaxing speed previous to inventories. After a sharp downturn in prices of stocks and other speculatively dealt-in commodities, which saw new low levels reached in many cases, an equally sharp rebound was noted in stocks, with a more deliberate upturn in cotton, the leading grains and similar lines.

In retail trade, holiday buying aided by a return of cold weather, was responsible for adding to the turnover, with the result that an increased number of markets report a total volume of buying equal to a year ago, whereas the value of the trade is generally conceded to be well below last year. There is added in many reports the information that cheaper lines of goods have tended to sell better than the more expensive sorts and the relatively greater activity in these contrasts, with reports of slower buying of luxury lines and novelties.

Weekly bank clearings, $10,501,221,000, a decrease of 14.3 per cent.

TRADE MORTALITY HIGHER FOR WEEK

NEW YORK, Dec. 19. (AP)—Commercial failures for the week totaled 604, an increase of forty-two over the 562 insolvencies reported in the previous week, R. G. Dun & Co. says. For the corresponding week last year the total was 498. The upturn in the current week was mainly in the East, where a rise of forty-six occurred, and the Pacific Coast, which had an increase of seventeen. Those increases more than offset the reduction of seventeen in the South and four in the West. Defaults with liabilities of more than $5000 totaled 393, against 365 last week and 316 a year ago.

CHAIN APPLIES TO LIST MORE STOCK

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—F. and W. Grand Silver Stores, Inc., has applied to the New York Stock Exchange to list 163,865 additional common shares, 160,000 shares of which are in conection with the recent underwriting of $8,000,000 6 per cent ten-year Grand Silver debentures by a banking group. The proceeds from this were used to acquire the Metropolitan Chain Store's Canadian units. The remaining 3856 shares represent a recently authorized stock dividend.

RAIL PLACES LARGE LOCOMOTIVE ORDERS

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—New York Central Railroad has placed an order for forty Hudson type locomotives with American Locomotive Company and ten Hudson type locomotives with Lima Locomotive Company. The order involves $5,000,000.

LOW PRICE OF SILVER ATTRACTS

Necessity for Checking Drop Gets Attention on Financial Market

NEW YORK, Dec. 19. (AP)—Silver, which much of the world's population still uses as the basis of its currency, was quoted 3-8 of a cent higher in the New York market today after reaching another of a long series of historic new lows yesterday.

The price was 31 5-8 cents an ounce, compared with 31 1-4 on the previous day. The drop in the price has been reflected in far eastern currencies and also the Mexican silver peso which reached a new low for the year yesterday.

Dow, Jones & Co., says it understands the National City Bank has offered the Mexican government a credit variously estimated from $5,000,000 up to help bolster the silver currency but agreement has not yet been reached as to the terms.

Commenting on the situation that has developed as a result of the sharply depreciated value of silver, the Irving Trust Company says in its monthly review of business, "that it seems safe to infer that the silver catastrophe has been a major factor in the unrest in India and the economic crisis in China. If so, the full effects of the situation have not been witnessed."

Punctuated by occasional rallies, the price of silver has declined since 1926 from 65 cents an ounce to less than half that figure at the present time. Among the major factors contributing to this decline economists point to the action of the Indian government in adopting a gold bullion standard in place of the previous silver standard. The plan involved selling in the open market the excess stocks of silver consisting of several hundred million ounces in the Indian treasury.

Coast Utility Financing Heavy

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 19. (AP)—In advance of its annual report to be released January 1, the State Railroad Commission announced today stocks, bonds, notes and other forms of securities authorized during the fiscal year of 1930 totaled $300,000,000.

Henry Frazier, commission recorder, said with the exception of 1923, the figures represented the largest issuance of securities by public utilities in the history of California. In 1923, he said, $335,000,000 worth of securities was issued, but because of a reduction in par values of from $100 to $25 in many instances, the total was not representative.

Security-First to Pay Regular

Coincident with the announcement yesterday of the declaration of the regular quarterly dividend of $1.12 a share, J. F. Sartori, president of the Security-First National Bank, stated that his recent estimate of probable net earnings for the current year has been verified by the results of November and December to date.

The earnings will amount to approximately $6,840,000, or $5.70 a share. Dividend payments will total $5,376,000. The current dividend is payable January 2 to stockholders of record today. The board also confirmed the transfer of five branch managers.

Sears-Roebuck Prices Slashed

CHICAGO, Dec. 19. (AP)—Sears, Roebuck & Co. announced today its merchandise prices for January and February would be the lowest "in ten to twenty years," featuring a reduction of more than 18 per cent in cotton domestics, its largest selling commodity.

Other decreases in prices compared with the same period last year were wool, 16 per cent; silk, 27.5 per cent; tires, 14.5 per cent; iron and steel, 5.6 per cent; furniture, 5.9 per cent.

DIVIDEND CUT

WARREN (O.) Dec. 19.—Packard Electric Company declared today a quarterly dividend of 25 cents a share placing the common stock on a $1 annual basis against $1.60 heretofore.

YIELDS RELATIVELY HIGH

Fifteen Local Stocks Return Average of 7.2 Per Cent; Signal Oil and Western Pipe Top List

BY EARLE E. CROWE

For the speculators and investors looking for high or moderately high yields in listed securities, the active stocks on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange offer possibilities at current prices. At yesterday's close the fifteen stocks in the subjoined table yielded 7.2 per cent on the average.

Whether the dividends are safe or whether these stocks are likely to show still further price declines are questions the investors and traders will have to decide for themselves. Careful investigation, however, should readily decide the question of dividend safety in particular instances.

SOME OUT OF LINE

Deflation undoubtedly has carried many of the stocks included in the table to levels not warranted by either current or prospective earnings. On the other hand, it is probable that some of the stocks are fairly accurately appraised by current prices because of depressed earning power.

The three oil stocks used in this tabulation offer relatively high yields, mostly in reflection of unsettlement over oil prices and the future of crude oil curtailment. Signal Oil and Gas is selling to yield 13.3 per cent, Union Oil, 9.1 per cent, and Standard of California, 5.4 per cent.

The Standard Oil yield would run higher if the extra 2 per cent stock dividend paid in the last two years were considered as an annual distribution. In the case of Union Oil the board has intimated that the question of extra stock or cash dividends will be considered in the future at the close of each year.

Wheat Sowings Slightly Less Than Year Ago

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (AP)—Fall sowings of winter wheat this year were announced today by the Department of Agriculture to be 42,042,000 acres, or 1.1 per cent less than the acreage sown last fall, while rye sowings are 4,158,000 acres, or 4.1 per cent more than last year.

The condition of winter wheat on the 1st inst. was 86.3 per cent of a normal, as compared with 86 a year ago, and 83.2 the ten-year, December 1, average.

The condition of rye was 82.6 per cent of a normal, compared with 87.2 a year ago and 87.8, the ten-year December 1 average.

The abandonment of winter-wheat acreage in 1930 was 9.2 per cent of the acreage sown, compared with 6.2 per cent last year and the average in the ten years, 1919-28 was 11.7 per cent.

KINNER PLANT TO CLOSE FOR PERIOD

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 19. (AP)—An early decline in cotton today under a little southern selling and liquidation promoted by relatively easy Liverpool cables was followed by rallies on covering and some commission-house buying, believed to be partly for trade account.

Offerings were light after the early selling had been absorbed and the market was narrow enough to be influenced by comparatively small orders either way. After selling off to 9.85 at the start, March rallied to 9.97, with the mid-afternoon market ruling net 2 points lower to 2 points higher.

COTTONSEED OIL

NEW YORK, Dec. 19. (Exclusive)—The cottonseed oil market was only moderately active today. Scattered covering was prompted by the sharp advance in lard, the rally in stocks and the late firmness in grains. The closing was steady, with prices net unchanged to 20 points higher. Total sales were 2700 barrels, all in new contracts. Stocks of cotton oil in New York dock stores on the 15th inst. were 1589 barrels, against 1615 on the 1st inst. WHAT'S BEHIND YOUR STOCK

CONTINENTAL CAN

This company is now ranked as the second largest manufacturer of tin containers in the country, having come forward rapidly since 1928 by acquiring various plants throughout the United States and Cuba—thus enlarging its field of operations beyond the Eastern and Middle Western States, to which its activities were formerly confined. In order to further strengthen its position and earning power, the company has increased its facilities for the manufacture of "general line" cans, thus getting away from a former dependence on fruit and vegetable packers as the only customers for tin containers. About one-third of present output is now under this general purpose classification that includes containers for paints, chemicals, coffee, baking powder and other food products.

Sales for the company, according to a recent announcement were slightly ahead of last year in the first nine months of 1930, and indications are that earnings will closely approximate the 1929 figure of $5.02 per share.

Standard Unit Plans Combine

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—Stanolind Oil and Gas Company, subsidiary of Standard Oil Company of Indiana, on January 1, next, will take over all properties, assets and liabilities of the Midwest Exploration Company in Texas and of the Dixie Oil Company and the McMan Oil and Gas Company in all States in which they are domesticated and operating, according to Edward G. Seubert, president of Standard of Indiana.

The Midwest Exploration Company will withdraw from Texas and the Dixie Oil Company and the McMan Oil and Gas Company will be liquidated and cease to exist.

STANDARD OIL TRUST SHARE INCOME TOLD

Total accumulation now on hand at the Empire Trust Company of New York, trustee for Associated Standard Oil stock shares Series A, shows 55 cents per share available for January distribution, which is equal to 7 per cent on the current price of about 7 5-8 per share, for the past six months of this year, or a total of approximately 13 per cent for the year, it was announced yesterday by Douglas Morris Company, Pacific Coast distributor for the shares. Definite announcement regarding the total amount to be paid to shareholders of record as late as the 30th inst. will be made January 5, next.

RATE INCREASED ON TRUST SHARES

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—Distributors Group, Inc., today declared a quarterly dividend of 25 cents a share, placing the stock on a $1 annual basis instead of the 50 cents previously paid. The dividend is payable January 1 to stock of record the 20th inst.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 19.—Directors of the Pittsburgh Steel Foundries today voted an extra dividend of 12½ cents and the regular quarterly dividend of 25 cents. In the previous quarter an extra of 25 cents a share was paid. The dividends are payable January 15 to stock of record January 9.

ESCROW ASSOCIATION HEARS LEGAL TALK

Obligations of the notary public who attests the authenticity of signatures to documents were explained by Prof. W. E. Burdy of the law department of the University of Southern California, in an address on "Incumbrances on Real Property," delivered last night before the California Escrow Association at the Masonic Club. Cleveland Hayter of the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Long Beach also addressed the meeting.

UNIVERSAL OIL STOCK GETS JOLT

Failure of Shut-off in Lost Hill Project Hits Price on Curb Market

Breaking 9 5-8 points from Thursday's closing price of 15 3-4, Universal Consolidated Oil stock opened at 6 1-8 on the Los Angeles Curb yesterday on the report of an unsuccessful water shut-off in the company's Lost Hills well No. 49. A single block of 3300 shares was taken at 6 1-8 on the second sale after which most of the sales were in 100-share lots.

After touching 6, the price of the stock began a steady advance to 9 from which it receded fractionally at several periods during the trading. The day's high was 9 7-8 and the close, 8½, off 7½. Sales totaled 19,600 shares.

Announcement was made by the oil company that it planned to recement at once the water string of its Lost Hills well on which another test is to be made in about one week. The company reported that as soon as the well was opened, it made several spurts well above the floor of the derrick showing oil, a large amount of gas and a strong odor of gasoline.

Then hot salt water, it was stated, forced itself into the hole. Investigation showed that this water broke in around the shoe, officials said.

The activity in Universal Consolidated Oil trading in the last few weeks has afforded oil share followers the first real action in the speculative oil list witnessed for some time. Until the Lost Hills well of the company neared completion, the stock was inactive and selling under $4 a share. Under the stimulus of the Lost Hills possibilities, the stock scored a meteoric rise to 18 over a two-day period and with the exception of several upward flurries attributed to pool operations held around 10 to 12 until Thursday's upward drive.

Fidelity Loan Pays Interest Ahead of Date

Following a custom established forty years ago, the Fidelity Savings and Loan Association will send out interest checks today on full paid investment certificates, ten days in advance of the date due, according to an annoupcement made yesterday by officials of the institution. The interest, exceeding $400,000, will be in the mail today, and more than 5000 investors in Fidelity will receive their checks before Christmas.

Interest on full paid certificates is normally due January 1, it was pointed out, but since its organization Fidelity Savings has followed the practice of sending interest checks for the last quarter of the year early enough to be in the hands of investors several days preceding Christmas.

The closing quarter of the current year will bring resources of Fidelity Savings to the highest peak reached in its history. It was further stated that a greater gain has been recorded during the last year than in any twelve-month period since the inception of the organization in 1891. The quarterly financial statement of Fidelity, to be published early next month, will show 1930 to be the most prosperous year in the entire history of the institution, officials stated.

College Plans Winter Course

EXPORTS TO CHINA TURN UP

October Gain on September of 6 Per Cent Shown, but $72,000,000 Under 1929 Month

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

[Copyright, 1930, by the North American Newspaper Alliance]

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—Trade with China and the Far East was up 6 per cent in October in spite of the impressive drop in the price of silver. The total trade—both import and export—of $113,796,000 was an increase of 10½ per cent over the September total. But it was 38 per cent below the total trade with the Orient in October last year, which was then $185,762,000. This drop in business of nearly $72,000,000 was largely caused by declining commodity prices, the decline in silver prices, and the general business depression throughout the world.

Becoming more specific, we find that the United States exports to the Far East during October totaled over $1,500,000 for every working day.

During the month, America bought less from India, China, Australia and New Zealand, but more from Japan and the Philippines.

More and more, American exporters are turning to China and South America for future business, rather than to Europe.

The League of Nations says that the world is increasing in population at the rate of 50,000 a day, with the total world population now about 2,000,000,000, just twelve to the square kilometer.

Australia is the most sparsely settled continent, one person per kilometer; South America has four; Africa, five; North America, six.

In Asia, the number increased to twenty-one, and to forty-five in Europe. To bring it down to a finer point, there are 300 persons per kilometer in Saxony, and about 10,000 per kilometer in New York, London and other large cities.

How many people can inhabit the earth comfortably? This is an economic question, says the League. One German authority estimates that the world can support from 3,500,000,000 to 9,000,000,000 of people—a pure conjecture. Of the present 2,000,000,000 of population 80 per cent live in Europe and Asia combined; 9.35 per cent in North and South America, and the remainder in Africa and Australia.

But in the next 300 years, Africa is liable to have 29 per cent; Europe and Asia, 26 per cent; South America, 25 per cent; North America, 11 per cent, and Australia, 9 per cent. The continents of the future are now said to be South America and Africa.

WOOL MART STILL DULL AND SOFTER

Weekly Review Reports Trade Light With Prices in Favor of Buyer

BOSTON, Dec. 19. (AP)—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow:

The wool market continues sluggish and prices favor the buyer, although there has been comparatively little change in values this past week. The trade is watching the piece-goods market closely but they afford little basis for optimism for the moment, although a better demand is looked for after the turn of the year.

The Australian preholiday sales closed Thursday with prices back to the October level, the lowest of the season. With small offerings in New Zealand, however, prices were a bit firmer for cross-breds at the sale in Dunedin, Thursday, largely on speculators' bidding.

Some presharing loans have been placed in the West on the coming clip, but the National Wool Marketing Corporation has decided to reduce the amount of its loans per head, loans to be on a graded basis.

Mohair still is dull and prices largely nominal.

The rail-and-water shipments of wool from Boston from January 1, 1930, to December 18, 1930, inclusive, were 126,402,000 pounds against 166,522,000 pounds for the same period last year. The receipts from January 1, 1930, to December 18, 1930, inclusive, were 314,569,212 pounds, against 298,675,900 pounds for the same period last year.

The bulletin will publish the following quotations:

Taylor Milling Head Purchases Runnymede Hens

J. Hartley Taylor, president of the Taylor Milling Corporation, announced yesterday his purchase of more than 180,000 hens as well as equipment and certain mortgages on property of the Runnymede egg ranch, which with the Runnymede Finance Corporation has been in the hands of a receiver. The statement was issued in denial of current Spring street reports that Taylor Milling Corporation had acquired the ranch.

The deal, however, brings a new account to the Taylor Milling Corporation for sales of feed which will run about $30,000 a month, he said. The ranch covers approximately 120 acres and has a current production of about 100 cases or 3000 dozen eggs a day.

Runnymede, which is reputed to be the largest individual egg and poultry ranch of its kind, is valued at close to $1,000,000 when fully stocked, he said.

The association was organized in 1917 and is a member of the National Advisory Council composed of Safe Deposit Associations throughout the United States. Its object is to standardize the procedure of safe deposit work and educate the public regarding services of safe deposit departments.

Cash Register Pays Regular

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—National Cash Register Company today declared the regular quarterly of 75 cents a share on Class A stock, payable January 15 to stock of record the 30th inst. In the two previous years extras of $1 each were paid. A dividend of $1.50 was declared for the year on the Class B stock, payable January 3 to stock of record the 31st inst.

The company estimates earnings for the fourth quarter will be approximately $1,500,000. This more than covers the quarter dividend on Class A stock and the dividend declared on the Class B stock. During the past year the company has taken steps to reduce expenses which were almost fully reflected in the last quarter.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, Dec. 19. (AP)—Bargain hunters did some more shopping in the bond market today, bidding so vigorously for recent depressed issues, the average gains were the largest of any session this year.

Seldom has the bond market seen such a strong rally as was born yesterday and continued today, with scores of issues rising 1 to 3 points. The most spectacular comeback has been staged by second grade railroad obligations where advances averaged about 2 points, and in some instances ranged as high as 5. Prime investment rails and some utilities, which usually fluctuate narrowly were wide movers, and gains of a point were not uncommon in issues selling around par.

Turnover was about 11,500,000 and while not up to the best of the week was encouraging to bond circles, whose recent concern for the unexpected crash of prices has given way to renewed confidence a rising bond market will develop next year. Investment houses said banks and insurance companies and some individuals had become active on the buying side after being convinced the bottom of the current decline had been reached.

Pressure against foreign bonds diminished, and in some instances was supplanted by buying, especially in recently depressed Latin-Americans. United States governments were steady to firm.

The change of trend of bond prices is traditionally slow, but in forty-eight hours has undergone an unusually sharp change, which is illustrated by the weighted averages. The rise for thirty domestic bonds in two days amounts to 2.2 points, and for ten rails, 2.7 points. As gauged by the averages the advance of 1.2 in the composite average today is the best of the year.

Some gains in rails were unusually large.

Frisco 4½s climbed 5, Spokane International 5s 6, Norfolk Southern 5s 5½.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low, and both low and close when same as the high.

LOS ANGELES CURB

With the exception of the activity in Universal Consolidated Oil, trading in dollar list on the Los Angeles Curb yesterday was light and devoid of any significance. New lows were made on fractional declines by Consolidated Steel preferred at 9 7-8 and Tidewater Associated at 6 7-8.

Universal Consolidated sales totaled 19,600 shares between 6 and 9 7-8, with the closing price 8½, off 7 1-4. The sharp decline in the price came with the announcement by the company that the water shut-off in its Lost Hills well was unsuccessful. Another test is planned in about a week.

Fox Film A advanced 3 3-4 to 28 3-4, while Aviation Corporation at 3 1-8, General Motors at 34 7-8, Gladding-McBean at 24 3-4, Intercoast Trading at 6 7-8 and Mexican Seaboard at 12 were all fractionally higher.

Lincoln Drilling in the penny list, reflecting the unfavorable outcome of the Universal Consolidated's test in Lost Hills, sold down to $1.10, as compared with Thursday's close at $2. Buying support brought the price up to the day's high at $1.67½. The closing quotation of $1.52½ was off 42½ cents from the previous close.

Consolidated Steel common, off 20 cents to $2.55, Electrical Products of Washington down 50 cents to $4.50, and Holly Oil off 25 cents to $2.25, all made new lows.

Sales totaled 46,085 shares, valued at $243,027; previous day, 38,-582 shares, valued at $264,255.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, Dec. 19. (AP)—The recovery of curb market shares progressed through a third session at a more leisurely pace today.

The list worked irregularly higher, but gains were mostly narrow. Total sales were 520,100 shares, about 240,000 less than yesterday.

Firmness of Standard of Indiana was a feature of the petroleum issues. This stock moved up a point in active trading. Vacuum gained as much, but Gulf reacted a couple of points. Cities Service sagged, but met late support, and closed steady.

Electric Bond and Share advanced to 43⅛, and closed at 42⅞, up ⅝ net. Electric Power Associates "A" rose a point. American Gas and Electric lost 2 points then rallied to close a fraction higher. United Light "B," rarely traded, moved up to 69½, a net gain of 12½. The Class "A" stock lost ¾ of a point.

Better export sales of copper may have been a factor in firmer tone in these issues. Noranda, Newmont and Mayflower Associates all gained about a point. Western Air Express rallied a point, but Aviation Corporation of the Americas sagged as much to a new low.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low, and both low and close when same as the high.

LOS ANGELES MARKET

CATTLE—Friday's offerings were largely she stock with only one or two loads of medium steers included. Several loads arrived late but with the exception of some steers, were sold shortly after noon. Prices were mostly steady. Little was done toward cleaning up around 575 holdover cattle, largely stockers and feeders.

A load of medium 924-pound steers brought 8.60 and the load unsold was held around 8.50. A few odd head of rather plain steers ranged from 8.50@7.75. A load of 505-pound Arizonas went to a feeder at 7.25.

A small lot of 660-pound heifers brought 8.10 with odd head at 8.00 and others at 7.50 down, including heiferish cows at 7.00. A load of 1023-pound cows scored 6.40, with odd lots at 6.00@6.25 and bulk of common to low medium offerings at 4.75@5.75, low cutters and cutters bulked at 2.85@4.50, with a few down to 2.50. Two loads of Arizona stock cows were sold at 4.25. A few medium to good bulls brought 5.00@6.00.

CALVES—A fairly active and steady trade took practically all calves and vealers. A few head of medium native milk vealers brought 9.00@11.50 with a load of 302-pound New Mexico calves to a killer at 8.25. A load of 319-pound New Mexico stock calves brought 7.90 with some down to 7.25. A few heavy calves went down to 6.00.

HOGS—Demand was light and with only three loads available trade was slow and steady to 25c lower, the lighter weights showing the most loss. Part loads of 173 to 221-pound Texas butchers topped at 9.25 with a load of 226-pound Nebraskas at 9.10. The heavy sorts off the Texas loads brought 8.55@9.00 and averaged 245 to 276 pounds. A few 148-pound locals made 8.75 and 335-pound packing sows brought 8.00.

SHEEP—Two decks of common to medium 84-pound California lambs were considered around steady at 6.45 straight. Choice lambs are quoted to around 8.00 with medium to choice ewes quoted 3.00@4.00.

RUBBER MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 19. (Exclusive)—Crude rubber prices dipped rather sharply today, with the losses amounting uniformly to ¼c in the various grades and maturities. The only encouraging factor in the situation was the shrinkage in trading volume as the decline in prices proceeded. Prices are now generally on their lowest levels since the second week of November. The Department of Commerce has just made public figures on the value of total shipments or deliveries in 1929 of rubber goods other than tires, tubes, boots and soles. The value of these shipments, f.o.b. factory, was $320,374,129, an increase of 2.1 per cent over the $313,750,086 reported for 1927, during the last census year.

MUSIC FEATURE IN BROADCASTS

Today's Offerings Promise Plenty of Melody

"Cheer Up and Smile Hour" Billed by KHJ

Civic Christmas Pageant on KMTR Schedule

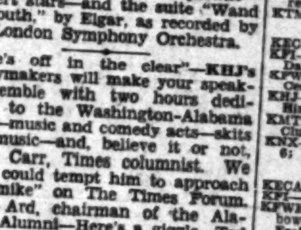
The Times Forum, KHJ, at 1:30 p.m. Lucille Gibbs, soprano, "Songs of a bouquet of Flowers. World-wide News 12:30, 4:45 and 10 p.m.

BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

Radio promises so many delightful musical offerings today that to pit a few against the many would be decidedly unfair.

For a period in the morning, however, when you may need a little cheer because of having the youngsters "under your feet," dial KHJ's "Cheer Up and Smile Hour" at 10 o'clock.

For the evening hours there will be features galore, from Senators to showboats.



They tell us that—

"The Poisoned Dagger"—a four-act comedy-drama—dragged from the nuptial altar—Pinkerton Grey, a detective — a melodrama teeming with tears and laughter—Columbia's Showboat—KHJ at 7 p.m. Sit tight.

Classic masterpieces—Floyd Gibbons—Walter Damrosch wields the baton—the General Electric Symphony Orchestra from New York—an NBC program—KFI at 6 p.m.

Four community choruses — 600 playground children—St. Paul's Cathedral Choir—Huge outdoor civic Christmas pageant at the steps of the Los Angeles City Hall—KMTR from 8 to 10 tonight—Boy Scouts and Campfire Girls.

KNX will have two periods tonight featuring Negro voices — 8 o'clock is to bring the Dixie Vocal Symphony—a full group of spirituals and popular numbers; then at 9:30—Kenneth Spencer, 19-year-old colored basso — spirituals and ballads.

Senator Johnson speaks tonight on "The World Court"—KHJ from the East is 6:30.

The Manchester Operetta Club—twenty girls—"One Stormy Christmas Eve"—a musical fantasy—KTM at 3:30 this afternoon.

Here is an innovation—KNX from 2 to 5 p.m.—a Grand Record Concert—four distinct groups of recordings — symphonic — operatic — concert stars—and the suite "Wand of Youth," by Elgar, as recorded by the London Symphony Orchestra.

"He's off in the clear"—KHJ's Merrymakers will make your speaker tremble with two hours dedicated to the Washington-Alabama game—music and comedy acts—skits and music—and, believe it or not, Harry Carr, Times columnist. We never could tempt him to approach the "mike" on The Times Forum. L. B. Ard, chairman of the Alabama Alumni—Here's a giggle—Ted Osborne will pick an all-American team—8 to 10.

At last! "Four Moods"—KFWB at 8 p.m.—last week they were to travel to Persia, Siberia and way-stations — but the signals were mixed. Tonight they will make the trip. Concert orchestra in music of these countries—let's journey with them.

"School Days, "Naomi of the North," a dramatic offering, the "Walter Beban Period" the "Do You Remember Period" and the customary college offering — KECA at 10:30 p.m. Haywire Trio — Spotlight Review—two cornet solos. And more, too.

Ann Leaf, Columbia's organist—at 1 p.m. over KHJ—you'll like her music.

The first of a series of bi-weekly Foreign Policy Association luncheon programs—Dr. Alfred E. Zimmern, director of the School of International Study—KECA at 11:30 a.m.

KFWB's Last "Collegiate Frolic"—7:45 p.m.—the coming New Year's game—the old spirit.

SEA YIELDS ONE BODY IN DROWNING

Hope Fades for Other Eight of Forty Wrecked North of Tomales Bay

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 19. (Exclusive)—One woman's body, two crushed row boats, a battered hatch and the wreck of a twenty-six-foot launch were recovered today from the sea north of Tomales Bay, remnants of the tragedy in which nine persons were swept to their deaths in the storm-whipped waters when their launch foundered at the bay entrance late yesterday.

All hope for the other eight was abandoned by officials and relatives and friends. After a ceaseless twenty-four-hour search, Coast Guardsmen and seasoned boatmen of that capricious stretch of the Pacific said the missing ones surely were drowned.

The body of Mrs. Helen Freas, 26 years of age, wife of Jack Freas of Marshall, Tomales Bay village, was recovered from the surf 200 yards north of Dillon's Beach.

The other victims were Jack Freas, his sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Freas, Manuel Augustine, prosperous Tomales Bay rancher; his wife, three of their children, Virginia, 17; Gertrude, 16, and Daniel, 14, and Tony Alfonso Nicasio, rancher.

The two crushed rowboats, one the little green "life boat" of the wrecked launch, the other used by Grant and Orburn Gray in their attempted rescue of the other, were found tossed up on the shore.

The launch, the Helen, owned by George Freas, was found battering itself to pieces on the rocks three-quarters of a mile north of Dillon Beach.

Judge Lyle Says Capone's Death in Chair Sought

CHICAGO, Dec. 19. (AP) — Judge Lyle today was quoted as saying efforts will be made to send Alphonse Capone, gang chief, to the electric chair in connection with the slaying of two men.

"We will send Capone to the chair if it is possible to do so," said Judge Lyle, who issued a vagrancy warrant for Capone several months or more ago. "He deserves to die. He has no right to live."

Speaking before the Chicago Safety Council, the judge mentioned Capone's name in connection with the killing in 1920 of "Big Jim" Colosimo, reputed "vice lord," and also in connection with the death of another man whose name he did not reveal.

PRUSSIA GOVERNMENT WEATHERS FILM ROW

BERLIN, Dec. 19. (AP)—Prussia's government today weathered the "film crisis" when the Diet voted down a no-confidence motion against Premier Braun and Carl Severine, Minister of the Interior. The motion was introduced by the Nationalists as a protest against the two officials' disapproval of the ban placed by the film censors on the film "All Quiet on the Western Front."

Sugar Tariff's Flaw Reported

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (AP)—The Tariff Commission reported today that the 1930 tariff act, while protecting the domestic raw sugar producers to a greater extent than the old tariff, does not offer as much protection to American sugar refiners.

The report was filed with the House Ways and Means Committee in reply to a request of last June. It showed while refiners were required to pay a duty of 2 cents a pound on imported Cuban raws, the rate of 12 cents per 100 pounds on imported refined sugars failed by 1 cents of properly protecting the American refiner against foreign competition.

ANNIVERSARY MEDAL FAVORED BY HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (AP)—Minting of a special medal in connection with the coming sesquicentennial celebration of the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown was approved today by the House Coinage Committee. It is to be octagonal in shape to avoid objections of the administration to striking coins for special events which may be confused with regular currency.

CHANGE GRANTED IN LONG BEACH BUILDING

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (Exclusive)—The new Federal Building at Long Beach will be faced with terra cotta instead of stucco as planned, but local demands for other changes must be turned down, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Heath wrote Representative Evans today.

PROBATIONARY RADIO LICENSES EXTENDED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. (AP)—The Radio Commission today extended for thirty-one days from the 31st inst. the licenses of eighteen stations now on probation for asserted violations of radio regulations. The action was taken, the commission said, because it was not possible to dispose of the cases before the existing licenses expired. The stations included KMPC, Beverly Hills, Cal., and KGAR, Tucson, Ariz.

MRS. MARX SUES

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 19. (AP)—Mrs. Viola Marx, daughter of Aaron Kamp, wealthy pioneer merchant of Fresno, today filed suit for divorce against Achille Marx, San Francisco wool dealer. She charges cruelty.

DRUGGIST SLAIN IN STORE

SPOKANE (Wash.) Dec. 19. (AP)—Henry G. Anderson, 55 years of age, a pharmacist, was shot and fatally wounded by one of two young men who walked into his store, stepped around a partition and fired point blank as he sat at a table. They then fled.

NOTICIAS MUNDIALES DE ULTIMA HORA

NOTAS TELEGRAFICAS

Clausura su Periodo de Sesiones la Cámara de los Comunes

LONDRES, Diciembre 19.—La cámara de los comunes, extenuada de trabajo, suspendió hoy las sesiones hasta el próximo 20 de Enero, en medio de una atmósfera cargada de dudas e incertidumbres.

Ha habido tantos sucesos de importancia, uno a la zaga del otro, en el tablado político, durante estas últimas semanas, que los miembros de todos los partidos se hallan aturdidos, no saben qué terreno pisan. Solo los profetas políticos más atrevidos se aventuran a hacer vaticinios de lo que ocurría inmediatamente después de que el parlamento abra su nuevo periodo de sesiones.

El pacto—que oficialmente no lo es—entre los liberales y el gobierno laborista del primer ministro MacDonald sigue siendo la clave de toda la situación política, del mismo modo que ha sido la fuente constante de esperanzas, temores y rumores en el curso de estas dos últimas semanas.

El "Mayflower" se Convertirá en Barco de Guerra

WASHINGTON, Diciembre 19.—El "Mayflower", yate presidencial desde hace veintisiete años, será acondicionado para cañonero y actuará de almiranta de la escuadra de servicio especial que tenemos en aguas centroamericanas.

Esta noticia, dada hoy en el ministerio de Marina, invalida la orden según la cual el "Mayflower" iba a reemplazar al barco nacional "Niagara" en el servicio de levantamientos navales.

De acuerdo con los términos del último decreto, el "Mayflower" relevará al barco federal "Rochester", que lleva treinta y siete años de servir a la Armada como crucero de segunda línea.

Se Habla de Secesión en Forma Más Explícita

WINNIPEG (Manitoba), Diciembre 19.—El primer ministro John Bracken, de Manitoba, teme que se dejen oír, antes de que se resuelvan los problemas actuales, más y más voces de las que piden la secesión entre el oeste y el resto del dominio canadiense.

"Debemos lamentar que sean tales las condiciones, desde muchos puntos de vista, que estén justificadas las demandas de que se ha hecho mérito", declaró el señor Bracken, refiriéndose a una moción aprobada por una corporación agrícola en Wilkie (Saskatchawan), en la que se recomienda la secesión, a menos de que se dicten medidas que favorezcan a los labradores. "Y mucho me temo", dijo el citado funcionario, "que se presenten más exigencias de esta clase antes de que lleguemos a resolver nuestros actuales problemas."

El Coronel Lindbergh Apaga las Llamas de su Propio Avión

BALTIMORE, Diciembre 19.—El avión del coronel Charles A. Lindbergh empezó a arder hoy en el aeródromo de Logan, cuando se disponía el ilustre piloto a emprender el vuelo rumbo a Nueva York con la señora Lindbergh; pero pudo él mismo extinguir las llamas sin auxilio ninguno.

La señora Lindbergh se hallaba ya en la cámara, cuando se prendió el aceite o la gasolina de un tubo de escape, a causa, según parece, de explosión tardía. El coronel Lindbergh echó mano sin vacilar de un extintor de incendios y apagó inmediatamente las llamas.

Este principio de incendio demoró unas dos horas a los Lindberghs. Después de algunas composturas someras, el coronel Lindbergh emprendió el vuelo rumbo al aeropuerto de Newark.

Estelle Taylor Declara en un Juicio

MORRISTOWN (Pensilvania), Diciembre 18.—Estelle Taylor, actriz de cine y esposa de Jack Dempsey, presentó hoy testimonio en el juzgado del condado en favor de su padrastro Harry J. Boylan.

Acusábase a éste de posesión ilegal y de transporte de una botella de licor. Se le impuso por dichos delitos una multa de $50. La señorita Taylor dijo de él que era un hombre sobrio y trabajador.

Robinson Sea Quizá el Próximo Candidato de los Demócratas

DALLAS (Tejas), Diciembre 19.—Jed C. Adams, de Dallas, miembro del comité democrático nacional de Tejas, anunció hoy que el senador Robinson, de Arkansas, era su candidato para la designación presidencial demócrata de 1932.

El gobernador Moody, en entrevista de ayer, mencionó al senador Walsh, de Montana, como "el candidato más probable", y dijo que el partido democrático necesitaba otro cruzado como Wilson.

NOTAS LOCALES

Los Vendedores de Periódicos Desfilarán Antes de su Banquete

Tres mil vendedores de periódicos de Los Angeles formarán en un desfile que pasará por las calles céntricas de esta ciudad la mañana del Día de Navidad, y, después de él, serán huéspedes de Fred H. Solomon en la décimoquinta comida anual de vendedores de periódicos, que se efectuará esta vez en el Hotel Biltmore.

A las nueve de la mañana, unos taxis proporcionados por la Yellow Cab Company comenzarán a recoger a los chicos en las varias redacciones de periódicos, y, llevando a la cabeza una escolta de policías motociclistas y la banda de los bomberos de Los Angeles, se dirigirán los taxis a la entrada del hotel citado en la avenida Grand. Los chicos serán conducidos a las 10:45 al salón de baile, donde se hallarán las mesas cargadas de pavos asados con todos los aderezos de rigor. Mientras coman, habrá un programa artístico-musical que amenice el banquete.

FAMED PHYSICIST HAS ANNIVERSARY

Dr. Albert A. Michelson

BIRTHDAY OF MICHELSON CELEBRATED

Scientist Almost Forgets Date on Which He First Viewed Earth's Light Rays

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, Dec. 19.—Dr Albert A. Michelson, dean of the world's physicists, whose early experiments underlie the theories of Dr. Albert Einstein, celebrated his seventy-eighth birthday today at his home on San Pasqual street. The "light wizard" admitted he had forgotten about his birthday until reminded by a friend last night.

Due to unexpected delays occasioned by the illness of an assistant, Dr. Michelson has been unable to start on schedule his final research to determine the exact speed of light.

"Within a few weeks, we hope to start our experiments with the mile-long vacuum tube that has been installed on the Irvine ranch near Santa Ana," he said.

Interrupted while engaged in a game of chess this afternoon, Dr. Michelson ascribed his increasing joy in living to the fact that he has so many enjoyable hobbies including painting, violin playing, tennis and bridge. "But science is the best hobby of all," he laughed as he backed his adversary's king into a corner.

The famous physicist has no rigid rules of life. He eats what, when and where he likes and doesn't exercise unless he takes a notion to do so.

A youthful outlook, he believes cannot go hand in hand with addiction to fads.

City to Seek Share of Gas Tax Revenue

To fill the gap of depleted city funds, the City Council yesterday took steps to appeal to the Board of Supervisors for an allocation of $354,280 from the county's share of the gasoline tax fund and $106,000 from the good roads fund, the county's share of license fees.

Due to limited income this year, a report of the Finance Committee sets forth, the additional money is required to keep the Bureau of Engineering staff and the city's rock, gravel and mixing plants in operation.

RESERVE MEN PROMOTED

Promotion of three Los Angeles officers in the United States Army Reserve Corps was announced yesterday. They are Capt. George L. Armstrong, Infantry Reserve, 808 North Harvard Boulevard, to major; Second Lieutenant Llewellyn G. Ludwig, chemical warfare reserve, 4125 Rosewood avenue, to first lieutenant, and Second Lieutenant Claude E. Whitcomb, Air Corps Reserve, 2268 West Fourteenth street, to first lieutenant.

GROWERS END SESSION HERE

Wide Range of Subjects Given Consideration

New Standardization Law Provisions Outlined

Many Resolutions Passed on Closing Day

The California Fruit and Vegetable Standardization Act, shot full of holes by one court decision after another, is to be rebuilt from the ground up on a new basis by organized agriculture. F. W. Read, manager of the standardization department of the California Fruit Exchange at Sacramento, outlined the program to the sixty-third convention of fruit growers and farmers, which closed its three-day session at the Alexandria late yesterday afternoon.

The new law will base its prohibitions primarily on deception practiced by the grower or packer, and it is hoped thus to frame a measure which will stand the test of constitutionality.

"The present law," Mr. Read told the delegates, "is so detailed in character that many recent court decisions seem to point to the fact that it is unconstituional. Accordingly a new law must be written based on the thought of protection to the public and the consumer through the elimination of deceptive packs, products dangerous to public health, immature fruits and vegetables, and the like. Definite grade standards can be provided through government standards, backed up shipping point inspection by government agents."

MANY RESOLUTIONS

The closing day of the convention was devoted not only to standardization but to quarantine and to the adoption of resolutions submitted during the closing hours by the resolutions committee.

Among these was one charging that the agricultural radio station at San Jose, KQW, had broadcast partisan political programs under the guise of agricultural matter. The resolution demanded that the station be sponsored by a committee of three, with one member from the California State Farm Bureau Federation, and one from the State Grange.

Other resolutions were: A vote of confidence to members of the State Board of Agriculture; urging the appointment of a farm man to the Federal Reserve Board and the extension of rural credits; opposition to amendments which would weaken the Agricultural Marketing Act; opposition to any effort to reduce farm tariffs; commendation for the work of the Federal Farm Board and C. C. Teague of Santa Paula; proposing that the Federal Perishable Commodities Act be administered through the State Department of Agriculture, co-operatively; recommending the uniform contracts and accounts forms drawn up by the State Department of Agriculture to aid in the dealings between producer and middleman; expression of a desire that the State Department of Agriculture be supplied special legal counsel; that the Producers' and Dealers' Act be amended to allow the State department to examine the books of those thought to be operating without a license; expression of appreciation of the work of G. H. Hecke, and others.

MORNING SESSION

At the morning session H. J. Ramsey, California Fruit Growers' Exchange, in discussing the color standards for citrus fruits, said the law as now worded is vague and unenforceable. E. M. Seifert, vegetable dealer of Los Angeles, stressed good quality, declaring that poor stuff had hurt the last lettuce and melon deals.

Dr. Alonzo E. Taylor, director of the Food Research Institute at Stanford University, declared that the growers of juice grapes must do away with low quality, determine what their market will absorb, and find some by-product outlet for the rest. He indorsed the Grape Control Board.

Dwight K. Grady, secretary of the Dried Fruit Association of California, said the standards set up by his association had been well received and might be accepted all over the world. Jess Hession, deputy State Attorney-General, pointed out some of the legal problems arising out of enforcement of the present standardization law.

Lee A. Strong, chief of the State quarantine and control administration, outlined the quarantine situation. Prof. H. J. Quayle of the University of California Citrus Experiment Station, Riverside, blasted the theory that California is too arid to serve as a habitat for the fruit fly. He said he had observed the fly under many conditions of temperature and humidity, and de-

AIR CRASH FATAL FOR MRS. FAHY

Wife of Flyer Killed in Michigan Accident Dies at Tonopah, Nev.

Less than a year after her husband was killed in an air crash which she survived, Mrs. Claire Fahy, local air pilot, succumbed to injuries yesterday morning in Tonopah, Nev. She was injured there last Monday, when her sport biplane stalled on a take-off and crashed.

Funeral services are tentatively scheduled for next Monday here with interment in Valhalla Cemetery, a stone's throw from where she hangared her ship.

The body will be brought here by motor ambulance. The private plane of William Gibbs McAdoo, dispatched to Tonopah yesterday to bring the then unconscious aviatrix here for an operation, arrived there after Mrs. Fahy had expired.

She received a fractured skull, fractured jaw and numerous other injuries and did not regain consciousness after she was removed from the wreckage of her speedy little ship.

Lieut. Herbert J. Fahy, her husband, met death when he and Mrs.

Rosita Moreno Denies Troth to "Orv" Mohler

Orville Mohler, University of Southern California football star, and Rosita Moreno, motion-picture actress, aren't really engaged or anything like that but Miss Moreno does "think the world of Orv." This answer came in reply to reports of their engagement yesterday.

"It is true that we have been going together for some time but marriage has never been mentioned between us," Miss Moreno stated. "He is a wonderful boy and maybe later there might be an announcement to make. I am only 19 years of age and he still has nearly three years of college remaining."

The report the couple is engaged created somewhat of a sensation at the university yesterday where Mohler, a quarterback, issued his denial. He admitted he and Miss Moreno have been seen together frequently but denied they are engaged.

Miss Moreno went to Paramount studio in Hollywood from the New York stage. Mohler is a son of "Kid" Mohler, former major-league baseball player and now coach at the United States Naval Academy.

SCHOOL FOR BOYS SCENE OF FESTIVAL

Annual Christmas Dinner and Celebration Held at McKinley Industrial Home

The presentation of gold watches to two small boys last night marked the high spot of the year for the 282 students of the McKinley Industrial Home when the boys were the guests of the sponsors of the institution at a Christmas celebration held in the school auditorium. The watch awards, the gift of George Brock, vice-president of the school, were made for high scholarship to Neil Broderick and Dwayne Cristler.

The annual Christmas dinner and festival at the home, Woodman avenue and Riverside Drive, Van Nuys, was given jointly by the officers and directors of the home and by members of the Kiwanis Club.

Joseph B. Dabney, president of the McKinley Industrial Home Society, in a brief address at the festival which followed the dinner, said the fellowship between the youths attending the school and the members of the Kiwanis Club is a benefit to both groups. He thanked the club members for their contributions of toys and for the musical program presented.

Lew Haynes, Dr. Ernest G. Bashor and Mrs. John H. Schurry, the latter president of the Kiwanis Women's Auxiliary, were additional speakers on the program which included as well several musical numbers.

BOVARD RITES MONDAY

No Additional Light Thrown on His Suicide; Widow Due to Arrive Today

With only members of the family and a few intimate friends present, funeral services for Warren B. Bovard, comptroller and vice-president of the University of Southern California, who shot himself at his home Wednesday night, will be conducted at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning at Bresee Brothers funeral chapel, it was announced yesterday.

The private services will be followed by interment in Hollywood Cemetery. Any further arrangements for the funeral will await the arrival of Mrs. Bovard, who is due from Wichita, Kan., late today on the Santa Fe.

Friends of Bovard who had stated that melancholia due to domestic difficulties no doubt brought about the tragedy said they preferred to make no comment on the statement credited to Mrs. Bovard in Wichita to the effect that there was no domestic trouble. The contents of two letters, said to have been from Mrs. Bovard and found in the room where Bovard killed himself remained unrevealed. It was said that they will remain as matter sacred to Mr. and Mrs. Bovard and they will be handed to her when she arrives from the East.

Detective Lieutenants Bain and Craig of the Wilshire station, who handled the case for the police, announced that their investigation was closed with the officers satisfied that it was a plain case of suicide.

SCHOOL PRINCIPAL DIES IN AUTOMOBILE WRECK

Theodore Fulton

Theodore Fulton, for the past fourteen years principal of Jefferson High School, was killed instantly yesterday and his wife was probably fatally injured when the automobile in which they were driving to spend Christmas with a daughter in Kentfield, left the road and overturned twelve miles south of Bakersfield. In the car also was their daughter Ruth, 16 years of age, but aside from severe shock she suffered no serious effects from the accident.

Heavily laden with Christmas packages, the Fulton car was traveling north on the Golden State Highway when, at about 12:30 p.m., near Switzer's Tavern, Mr. Fulton lost control of the car as he was attempting to pass another machine and it careened off the road and upset in a ditch at the roadside.

INJURIES SERIOUS

Mrs. Fulton and her daughter were rushed to the San Joaquin Hospital at Bakersfield, where it was said the former has little chance to recover from serious internal injuries. The body of Mr. Fulton was taken to the Fleckinger Chapel at Bakersfield, where

OTHERS FACING FRAUD CHARGE

Beesemyer Presents Plea of "Not Guilty"

Grand Juror Will Fight for New Indictments

Gold Shipment Has Part in Investigation

Other persons in addition to Gilbert H. Beesemyer will be indicted as a result of the theft of $8,000,000, which caused the crash of the Guaranty Building and Loan Association, it was predicted last night by Roy L. Donely, member of the criminal complaints committee of grand jury.

"I don't know what other members of the grand jury may think but I am going to demand that others be indicted in this case," asserted Donely. "From the evidence already placed before the grand jury I am convinced that others are implicated in this gigantic steal and I feel that they should be brought to trial the same as Beesemyer."

READY TO "FIGHT"

Donely declared he considers that the evidence already before the jury is sufficient to warrant the indictment of more suspects and that he intends to "fight" if necessary to see that these indictments are returned.

"All of the evidence in the case is being presented before the grand jury for whatever action it sees fit," commented Dist.-Atty. Fitts, when told of Donely's statement. "If the jury indicts any more persons in this case my office will prosecute the cases in the courts to the limit of our ability."

While the grand jury was hearing evidence which may result in indictments against others, Fitts and Chief Deputy District Attorney Stewart declared they will go before the inquisitorial body Tuesday and ask that Beesemyer be reindicted on sixty more counts, thirty charging grand theft and thirty charging violation of the State law which prohibits an executive of a building and loan company "borrowing" money from the company he represents.

"NOT GUILTY" PLEA

The sixty new charges, it was not denied, will be asked as a retaliatory measure against Beesemyer who, on the advice of his attorney, Le Compte Davis, pleaded not guilty to ten counts of grand theft already returned against him when he was arraigned for plea yesterday morning in Superior Judge Wood's court.

Despite the possibility of the sixty new indictments, Attorney Davis last night said:

"All that I or my client want in this matter is justice—justice that is not blinded by hysteria and mob psychology. Beesemyer is not seeking by his plea to escape punishment. He feels, however, that if he is not rushed to prison he can aid the receivers of the defunct company in recovering a large amount of the loss and prove himself not such a black character as the present hue and cry have led many to believe. Are the depositors and Beesemyer to be deprived of this opportunity because certain people believe that inflamed public opinion demands it?"

NEW ANGLES

While these elements were moving toward a climax possibility of excitement from two new angles under investigation by the District Attorney's office also were revealed.

Outstanding of these was the admission that investigators are at work learning the conditions under which more than $400,000 in personal loans was made by Beesemyer to various persons, as revealed by his private accounts. The question involved, it is asserted, is whether there is any responsibility upon the part of a person who accepted a loan from the executive of a loan company knowing that his funds came from the company he represented.

GOLD SHIPMENT

The second angle that gives portent of interesting developments is an investigation of a gold bullion shipment which left Beesemyer's office on the 8th inst. It was disclosed at the District Attorney's office last night that investigators have learned that four bars of gold bullion, weighing 135 pounds and worth $25,000 were shipped by express to the American Smelting and Refining Company at Selby, Cal. Express records, it is said, listed the gold as coming from the Eldorado-Rand Mining Company, 6331 Hollywood Boulevard. The address, however, is that of the Guaranty Building and Loan Company, and the investigators said they discovered witnesses who personally saw Beesemyer assist in loading the gold into the express conveyance.

The outside investigation in no

Hollywood Institution's Officials Plan Resumption With Cash Surplus of $1,000,000

Belief that the Bank of Hollywood, closed on the 8th inst., on order of State Superintendent of Banks Wood, will be able to reopen its doors soon, was expressed yesterday by K. J. Koebig, vice-president.

Indicating that bank officials, who have been working night and day since the closing to put the institution on its feet again, were not ready to make any definite statement, Koebig nevertheless, is certain that the bank will be reorganized and that depositors will not suffer loss.

"Whether we will be in a position to open the doors next Monday is doubtful," Koebig declared, "but I can assure you that the way things look now business will be resumed soon and our customers will be protected."

This statement, made informally in a private room of the bank building where directors and officers, bending every effort to straighten out the bank's affairs, are in session, indicated that a suitable plan of reorganization has been formed and one that will meet with the approval of Supt. Wood.

The latter has set the final deadline for reorganization for next Monday. He gave the officers a week's extension of time last Monday.

G. R. Dexter, president of the bank, who has directed the financial battle to bring the institution back to its former place in the local bus-

The Lancer

by Harry Carr

A NEW complication has come into our lives. It has now become necessary to act your best when in the process of being held up by bandits.

The so-called "Scotch bandit," who has confessed to 300 hold-ups within two months, made caustic comments to the victims lined up in front of the police "shadow screen" to identify him.

"Yeah, I remember you," he said to one of the embarrassed victims. "You cried like a baby when I stuck you up."

It seems to me that bandits should be more patient. The hapless citizen is doing his full duty when he turns his pockets inside out without being expected to carry off the situation in a grand theatric gesture. No one is feeling his best when in the act of being held up, anyhow.

A SIMPLE LANGUAGE

If you think it will be of any material benefit in the present troubled condition of affairs, you can now say your prayers in the Cheyenne tongue, Rev. Rodolphe Petter having so translated the Bible.

Following is a passage done into "Indian;" Na nisxevoss emhanesenaastovhesetovachaevohon Maheasononehatasoomahona easevesezehon onitavenszistovazistohwenasehes - haeovoss Matasoomaho.

Simple, expressive and easy to say. Of course, every schoolboy knows that it means: "And they were filled with the Holy Ghost and began to speak with other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance."

SHE HAS ESCAPED

Monica Shannon Wing, author of "California Fairy Tales," writes from her ranch at Three Rivers—up in the big Sequoia country:

"Autumn still smolders in our Sierra Nevada foothills. The bears are up and around raising considerable Cain in the park. The deer are coming down to the slopes to feed. Some of the old bucks have already rubbed off one horn and look as unbalanced as John Huss does in his pictures. The woodpeckers are still digging out the acorns they cached away in our roof."

RUBBING IT IN

Now I ask anybody if it is nice to write that way to a fellow who has to take his life in his hands every night as he drives home through the insane rush on Wilshire Boulevard? And smell monoxide gas instead of pine cones!

SWEETNESS AND LIGHT

Mrs. Beesemyer, in a sob sister interview, says she had to remonstrate with "Gilbert" at times. "Gilbert," she had to say, "you should stop doing so much for others and consider your own interests."

COUSINS ARE SAFE

Orders have gone forth in one of the biggest Hollywood studios to cut production costs to $200,000 a picture. Something over 40 per cent of this is "general overhead." Which means that the cousins and nephews and in-laws of the producers will get through the winter nicely—however the stockholders fare.

COST MAP SUBMITTED

The assessment district map for the Main-street and One Hundred and Eleventh Place storm drain was submitted to the City Council yesterday by City Engineer Jessup. It was referred to the Public Works Committee.

"SUICIDE" FOUND ALIVE AND SAFE

Desperate ex-Editor's Plans to End Life Fail

Nerve Breaks After Writing Farewell Letters

Friends Will Endeavor to Find Job for Him

Emil Elsner, former editor of the Southern California Pilot, who Thursday sent a supposedly suicide letter to two newspapers, is alive and well. Friends found him yesterday at 207 North Olive street and today they will attempt to get the man a job.

Elsner told Rev. Arthur C. Keck, Alhambra Lutheran minister, that he lost his nerve and was unable to kill himself as he had fully intended to do when he wrote the letters to The Times and the Alhambra Post Advocate. He was out of work and penniless, he told the minister. Yesterday he pawned a suit of clothes and obtained $3. He then sent a telegram to Rev. Keck asking him to come to him at the North Olive street address. Mr. Keck, accompanied by Clayton Ward, editor of the Post Advocate, went to the address and found him.

In a letter received yesterday in Alhambra he inclosed a ticket, good for one meal, from the Main-street mission. On the back of this he had scribbled: "Unable to stomach this. Would rather cross the famous bridge. Good-by."

In the letter received by The Times it was stated that as soon as his death had been established that certain things were to be done if Alhambra city officials would consent. They were to follow his body to the grave and aid his wife, who is in Germany. Elsner recently returned from a trip to Germany, where he acted as representative of Alhambra. He was also appointed representative of Germany in the 1932 Olympic Games, he said.

REPORT DUE TUESDAY ON AQUEDUCT

Three Score Southland Cities to Hear Details by Board of Review

Citizens and officials from sixty-five cities in Southern California will attend the meeting of the Metropolitan Water District in Culbertson Hall, California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, Tuesday at 2 p.m. At this meeting details of the engineering board of review report on the Colorado River aqueduct will be heard.

Secretary of the Interior Wilbur's statement of Thursday that April 15 has definitely been set as the date on which construction of Boulder Dam will start will tend to hasten plans for construction of the aqueduct that will deliver water to this section of the State, declared Chairman Whitsett.

Thaddeus Merriman, chief engineer of the New York City water supply and distribution system and chairman of the board of review, will discuss the report on the aqueduct. Chairman Whitsett of the Metropolitan Water District board of directors, will preside. He will introduce among other speakers, Chief Engineer Frank E. Weymouth of the Metropolitan Water District.

JEFFERSON HIGH PRINCIPAL DIES

it awaits the arrival of his daughter, Mrs. J. Sidney Jones of San Jose.

In addition to Ruth Fulton and Mrs. Jones, the Fultons have two other daughters, Mrs. Carol Gaylord of San Jose and Mrs. Ward Austin, whom they were on their way to visit at her home in Kentfield.

The school principal and his wife and unmarried daughter lived at 502 North Baltimore street, Monterey Park. He was 55 years of age, and his wife is 56. He was born in Merritt, Pa., and educated in Kansas, attending grade and high school in Harper and graduating from Emporia College.

CAME HERE IN 1908

After teaching in Harper for several years, he came to Los Angeles in 1908 and obtained a position as teacher in the Thirtieth-street Elementary School. Two years later he was appointed to the faculty of Manual Arts High School, where he subsequently became head of the mathematics department. Then in 1916 he received his appointment as principal of Jefferson High School and continued in that post until his death yesterday.

In an accident twenty-two miles north of Bakersfield Thursday night three residents of Los Angeles were slightly injured. A truck filled with oranges in which they were riding on a dirt road overturned. The injured are the driver, Sol Adler, 32, of 207 South Boyle avenue; Charles Rowland, 29, of 1312 West Thirty-fi Place, and Lois Robertson, 21, of 5063 Klem street.

IN THE interest of the Disabled Veterans of the World War more than fifty children stage and screen players, directed by Miss Gay Seabrook, today will appear on the streets of Los Angeles and near-by communities selling little blue forget-me-not flowers. The children are working in conjunction with nine Los Angeles county chapters of the disabled veterans to raise funds to finance the liaison service of the organization, which aids disabled men and women in the adjudication of their claims for Federal compensation. The flower drive started Thursday and will end tomorrow. The youngsters will wear white head dress.

versity, said that Mr. Bovard's financial relations with the university were perfect. So valuable was he considered to the university, it was disclosed, that his life was insured for $50,000 in favor of the institution.

Dr. J. Walter Reeves, close friend and personal physician of Mr. Bovard, issued the following statement on the tragedy yesterday:

"Warren Bovard had consulted me professionally very frequently for over a year, regarding his health. The responsibility which he carried seemed to weigh heavily upon his mind. In spite of apparent lightheartedness, he worried a great deal about his work. He was unable to rest well at night and complained of continuous indigestion. The past few weeks this condition seemed greatly aggravated. He was advized to take a six-months' leave of absence for complete rest, but he insisted that this would be impossible until after the first of the year. A few weeks ago it became necessary to place him in the hospital for a short rest and observation, after which he seemed somewhat improved. The only possible explanation of his act is that a fine mind, weighted down with responsibility and grief, suddenly slipped from his control."

According to Dr. R. B. Von KleinSmid, president of the university, Mr. Bovard's parents, Dr. and Mrs. George F. Bovard, are bearing up remarkably well under the burden of the tragedy.

CHILDREN GOING TO PARTY

More than 1000 children are expected to attend the Christmas party which will be given by the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Employees' Association for its members' children this afternoon in the auditorium of the company's main office building from 2 to 4 o'clock. There will be a large lighted tree and Santa Claus will appear to present each youngster with candy and toys.

CHRISTMAS PLEA MADE TO JURORS

"Send Bernard Home for Yuletide Dinner," Urges Counsel in Last Appeal

Pleas to send Macy O. Bernard home to Christmas dinner were made last evening in Superior Judge Craig's court, where the former Police Chief of Culver City is on trial charged with bribery. After Attorney Clare Woolwine had made the Yuletide plea to the jury Dep. Dist.-Atty. Kearney warned the seven men and five women in the box that that is the cry raised for every person on trial at Christmas time. Kearney closed with an admonition that the jury's duty is to return a verdict of guilty, leaving to the judge the matter of the accused officer's Christmas dining place.

Judge Craig adjourned the trial until Monday morning, when he will instruct the jury.

Bernard is accused of accepting five bribes, totaling $650, for "police protection" of a liquor still and a restaurant where liquor was sold, both in Culver City. His chief accuser is Harry A. Howard, former owner of the restaurant and the still. Woolwine, in final argument yesterday, asserted that Howard was motivated against Bernard because the former Police Chief stood in his way of reopening a restaurant in Culver City.

Wife Says Mate Tore Up House

When she went to a basketball game alone, her husband tore up her photographs and left home, Mrs. Emma Lou Robinson yesterday testified in winning a divorce from Ralph L. Robinson, store manager.

"When I reached home, I found my pictures torn up and scattered on the floor, curtains torn and furniture upset. He had packed his clothes and gone. Once before, he kicked me out of bed and made me sleep on the floor," the wife testified.

Superior Judge Yankwich granted her a divorce, and ordered Robinson to pay $5 a week toward the support of their adopted child.

WAR-MADE ORPHANS TO BE ENTERTAINED

A Christmas party, including a turkey dinner and a visit from Santa Claus, will be given to 100 Gold Star Children of World War Sacrifice and other poor children, from 6 to 9 p.m. at Patriotic Hall on the 23rd inst. The entertainment is sponsored by Submarine Post, No. 388, American Legion, which founded and maintains the Gold Star Children's organization, composed of orphans whose fathers died in the war and whose mothers also are dead. Howard B. Green is commander and Miss Belle Bennett godmother of the post and of the Gold Star Children. Howard Straw is chairman of the committee on arrangements. Motion-picture actors including Miss Bennett, Joe E. Brown, Will Rogers and the Lawrence Sisters, have promised to attend the party and help entertain the children.

WIFE SAYS DIVORCE GOOD CHRISTMAS GIFT

This Christmas Eve is approached more happily than the preceding five, Mrs. May Cloward yesterday admitted, after getting a divorce from Orsen A. Cloward. She told Superior Judge Henderson that on Christmas Eve, 1925, her husband tried to shoot her. "He jammed a gun into my side," she testified. "The trigger stuck, and that saved my life. I have lived in fear ever since." Cloward demanded custody of their elder daughter, Marie, 13 years of age. Mrs. Cloward agreed to this request, and she retained the younger child, Dorothy, 3.

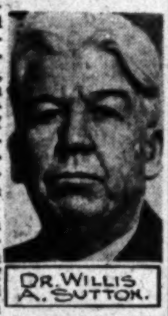
HEALTH ADVICE GIVEN TEACHERS

Dr. Willis Sutton Asks for Better Care of Pupils

Many "Incorrigibles" Said to Need Medical Work

Other Speakers Give Views as Institute Week Ends

"The chief health officer of America is the classroom teacher," 2000 teachers assembled in Bible Institute Auditorium were told yesterday morning by Dr. Willis A. Sutton, who in addition to being superintendent of schools of Atlanta is president of the National Education Associaiton.



DR. WILLIS A. SUTTON.

Dr. Sutton was one of seven speakers on the programs of four general sessions which featured the final day of institute week for the teachers of Southern California. His topic was "The Three Great Objectives of Education," which he named as health, scholarship and character.

His remarks were confined almost wholly, however, to the subject of health, inasmuch, he said, as his audience had just heard the matter of character well covered in an address by Dr. R. L. Lyman on "Ethical Values in School Routine."

IMPORTANCE OF HEALTH

In respect to scholarship he told the teachers that "too many of us blur the thinking of children with prejudice and preconceived notions; if you are going to have sound scholarship you've got to get that narrow stuff out of the mind." His advice was that teachers should endeavor to "teach children to think through something."

It was his own early experience in the management of young students whom other teachers had described as incorrigible which first opened the eyes of Dr. Sutton, he said, to the extreme importance of health as a factor in education.

"There is no such animal as a 'bad boy,'" he asserted and illustrated his contention with the history of the worst case of apparent incorrigibility he encountered in his first years as a school principal. Physical examination of this boy disclosed that he had eleven abscessed teeth and other defects, which required two surgical operations. Physical rehabilitation of this boy brought about a complete spiritual regeneration, Dr. Sutton said, and today that former pupil occupies one of the top positions in the engineering department of the State of Georgia.

CLASS MAKES GOOD

The boy, whose history Dr. Sutton gave in detail, was a member of a class of thirty-seven boys expelled from other high schools in Atlanta and voluntarily taken by Dr. Sutton into his own school. First and foremost in his program to make good students and eventually good citizens of these boys, the speaker said, was a complete physical examination of each and good treatment for whatever ailments they were found to possess.

"This required the services of nineteen physicians and five dentists," he added, "but within thirteen weeks I had sent twenty-seven of these boys back to their own schools and all the thirty-seven graduated from high school, while thirty-two of them went on and graduated from college."

Before outlining what he regards as an ideal health program for schools, Dr. Sutton stated emphatically that "one great object of education as a fundamental is to preserve and strengthen the physical inheritance of the race."

DOUBLE PROGRAM

"We are never going to have the right conception of health education, however," he continued, "until we get our philosophy of health right. As long as people put people down into the ground with the formula that God took them away, we're never going to have a correct philosophy of health. As long as people think they have to be sick, we'll get nowhere. We need to teach children and youth that we don't have to be sick."

The first fundamental of a school health program he designated an "inspection by competent physicians and dentists, at the expense of the State, city or district." It is the duty of the classroom teacher to see not only that this part of the program is carried out but also that the corrective measures, which form the second portion of Dr. Sutton's program, are also undertaken, the speaker insisted.

In respect to corrective measures, Dr. Sutton said he is opposed to physical education teachers spending their time coaching football, basketball or other athletic teams. Their proper function is in corrective work for weak, little, defective children, "and that's what they must spend all their time doing in Atlanta," he added.

Prevention is the third tenet of Dr. Sutton's health program. That, he said, consists in seeing that children eat the right food and the right amount of it, seeing that they get enough sleep, seeing that their eliminative organs are functioning properly, and giving them the right attitude toward health.

"Give your boyhood," he told the teachers, "the idea that he is not just Life but the Life of the race."

FUNDAMENTAL FACTOR

"The teacher's own health is also one of the fundamental factors in education," Dr. Sutton advised his auditors. "The health of the teacher means the health of the school. The childhood of this country needs to be taught by healthy, strong teachers, without physical defects."

Teachers should be examined physically at least once a year at public expense, he added, and in cases where their condition indicates need of a rest they should be granted sabbatical leaves.

Dr. Lyman in his address stressed what he termed the fallaciousness of attempting to teach by error, that is, the dwelling upon the mistakes of the pupil. He described that method as "trying to make pupils succeed by emphasizing failure." He also decried the holding out of rewards either for good conduct or proficiency in scholarship.

At the Philharmonic Auditorium session, Dr. Boyd H. Bode of Ohio State University, speaking on "Our Educational Predicament," asserted present-day education's outstanding defect is that the student is not supplied with a philosophy of life and that we are turning our youth loose in the world without chart or compass.

Other speakers at yesterday's general sessions were: Lorado Taft, at Philharmonic Auditorium; Dr. Maxie N. Woodring of Columbia University and Dr. L. A. Peckstein, of the University of Cincinnati, at Trinity Auditorium, and Dr. Frank Bohn, at Bible Institute Auditorium in the afternoon.

FINAL TALKS GIVEN

The final talks of their special lecture series were given yesterday by Dr. Gordon J. Laing, Dr. A. Franklin Shull, Dr. E. A. Ross, Dr. Boris E. Morkovin, Edwin Avery Park, Vachel Lindsay, Mary Agnes Doyle, Edgar H. Wileman and Dr. Bruce Gordon Kingsley.

The vocational education section conducted its final session yesterday morning at Adams Junior High School auditorium, with R. J. Werner of the San Jose State Teachers' College speaking on "An Agriculture Program for California Schools." The California Interscholastic Federation conducted a business meeting at the Bible Institute following Dr. Sutton's address. A breakfast and three luncheons concluded the social program for the week.

AVIATRIX SPURNS ALIMONY OFFER

Marjorie Crawford Able to Support Herself, She Informs Court

Marjorie Crawford, aviatrix, thinks so well of her ability to navigate the air that she declined an offer of alimony in Superior Judge Crawford's court yesterday.

"My client is able to support herself and does not need alimony," said Attorney S. S. Hahn for the plaintiff.

Mrs. Crawford divorced her husband, Carl C. Crawford, on ground of nonsupport. She testified that while she was in the hospital her husband didn't help her financially. The couple were married January 30, 1927, and separated December 5, 1928.

MRS. FAHY DIES FROM INJURIES

Fahy attempted to take off from a snow-covered field on the Michigan estate of Cliff Durant, automobile magnate, last spring. The two-seated plane struck a stump, turned over and trapped the flyer and his wife.

Mrs. Fahy was severely shaken up, but after a rest following her husband's death, purchased a pleasure plane and went back to flying.

She was on her way home from an airport dedication in Nevada when her ship stalled at an altitude of fifty feet, fell off into the start of a spin and Mrs. Fahy did not have altitude enough to right it before it struck the ground.

Mrs. Fahy, 28 years of age, was considered an able pilot and spent many hours in the air, flying with her husband and alone, since his death.

She resided here at 227 North Vendome street with her 3-year-old son, Jimmy.

SCIENTIST JUNGLE VICTIM

Dr. Adolph J. Greil, Lecturer, Dies From Infection Caused by Old Serpent Bite

Paying with his life for scientific knowledge obtained in South American jungles, Dr. Adolph J. Greit, lecturer on geological, economic and historical subjects, died at St. Vincent's Hospital last Tuesday from an infection in his leg caused by bites of poisonous serpents several years ago, it was learned yesterday from Dr. John Ruddock, who attended Dr. Greit during his brief illness.

Although he had given hundreds of lectures in various parts of the United States and was unofficially connected with scores of great industrial organizations, efforts on the part of Cunningham and O'Connor, undertakers, and of his many friends, to locate relatives of Dr. Greit, so far have proved futile. There are a daughter and two cousins somewhere in New York and two sons, one of them supposed to be in Cuba and the other in the Orient. Mrs. Greit died nine years ago.

Special permission has been granted the undertakers to keep the body for several days beyond the regular five-day period in order that they may make further inquiries as to the location of Dr. Greit's relatives.

Dr. Greit had lived in Los Angeles for the last three years at the Irving Apartments. He was born in New York. His people had been noted for achievements in the fields of geology, chemistry and mechanics. His father supervised the laying of the piers of Brooklyn Bridge, developed the iron beds in Alabama and invented the cotton compressor.

Dr. Greit knew seven languages and had lectured in every part of the world. After spending several years in South America, studying the natural resources, Dr. Greit returned to America and was in charge of the entertainment of prominent South American families who visited Washington following the return of President Hoover from his trip to South America.

Dr. Greit, who was about 66 years of age, weighed 280 pounds and apparently was in excellent health until the pain in his leg caused him to seek treatment at the hospital on the 13th inst. He died three days later.

BUSINESS GOOD FOR EDISONIANS

Electric Company Workers at Annual Yule Party

There'll Be Work for All in 1931, Employees Told

Directors Increase Budget to Assure Steady Jobs

"Business as usual," was slogan presented by R. H. Ballard, president of the Southern California Edison Company, Ltd., in an address last night to Edison company employees and their families at their annual Christmas party and dance. Nearly 3000 Edisonians from the Los Angeles metropolitan area attended the party and heard Mr. Ballard's review of the splendid record of achievement made by the organization during the past year.

He also spoke of the company's new business objectives for 1931 and plans for the expenditure of one of the largest construction budgets in the company's history, totaling $28,000,000. Mr. Ballard's talk was broadcast for the benefit of the several thousand employees who, because of distance or the necessity of maintaining service, were unable to attend.

BUDGET INCREASED

"As you in the Edison family know, there has been no employment slash during the year just ending for our company and our 5100 regular employees can be assured that our schedule of work for the coming year is such as to provide continuous work for the entire organization," Mr. Ballard said. "Our board of directors has added $8,000,000 to the normal 1931 budget total to make possible to you this assurance of regular and steady employment throughout 1931.

"Business is going ahead. We must prepare for the added million of population which will head for our Southern California with the turn of the economic tide. The total of new business taken onto our lines in the twelve months of 1930 will be but slightly less than the record accomplishment of 1929. Total consumption of electricity during the current year will exceed any previous year's record, in spite of the curtailment in oil-field use of power and a 10 per cent drop from normal in the use of electric energy for industrial purposes.

CONSUMPTION GREATER

"During the past year great strides have been made in popularizing the use of electricity in the home, with the result that domestic consumption shows an increase of 15 per cent over 1929. During the year more than 6000 families have been introduced to the pleasures and economies of electric cooking. Approximately 10,000 electric refrgerators, more than 8000 washing machines, 2500 ironers, 2000 electric water heaters and more than 100,000 small appliances have been purchased by our consumers."

FISCHER ELECTED AS VICE-PRESIDENT

Will H. Fischer was elected vice-president in charge of public relations at the regular meeting of the board of directors of the Southern California Edison Company, Ltd., yesterday. He has been associated with the Edison company since 1921 as assistant vice-president and later as assistant to the president.

WILL H. FISCHER.

He was born in Yolo county and upon the completion of his education took up newspaper work, serving in various capacities with papers in San Francisco and Los Angeles as well a ssome of the smaller cities in the State.

For the past twenty years he has been quite active in Masonic circles, culminating with his election as Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of California in 1927.

clared that, in his opinion, it would be a worse pest here than in Spain.

Harold J. Ryan, agricultural commissioner of Los Angeles county, cited instances where major pests had been intercepted in apparently innocent packages. J. A. McNaughton, vice-president and general manager of the Union Stockyards, Los Angeles, commended the work of the Federal and State men in fending off the foot and mouth disease and other troublesome livestock ills, and laid out a program which he thought would be of benefit in insuring against future outbreaks. The discussion was closed by Dr. W. E. Howe, inspector in charge of the Bureau of Animal Industry, State Department of Agriculture, Sacramento.

Light Frosts in Citrus Belt Held Possible

Frost conditions in the Southern California citrus belt appeared possible last night on the face of the forecast by F. D. Young, government observer at Pomona, who predicted light frost in sheltered places and minor smudging operations in scattered localities.

Young expected a little firing in the colder areas after 2 a.m today, while the temperatures ranged between 27 and 29 deg. over the district.

In the Santa Clara and San Fernando valleys, E. S. Ellison, observer for those areas, said that prevailing light breezes will prevent serious frost conditions and while no damage is expected he advised growers to raise the temperatures slightly in the more sheltered places.

The local Weather Bureau forecast fair weather and moderate temperatures for today and tomorrow. The sun shone its total allotted hours yesterday—9 hours and 53 minutes—and the temperatures ranged from 48 to 67 deg.

The plant to be built by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer will be erected in Culver City. According to the film company, it will be the largest laboratory erected inside a motion-picture studio. It will contain five developing rooms with revolving tanks two stories high, hypo rooms, waxing rooms, receiving and shipping departments, water-filtering and softening plant, a chemical laboratory, a plant to reclaim silver from used developing fluid, and twelve projection and inspection rooms.

Two hundred men will be employed in building the plant.

Work on the Radio Pictures' film laboratory will start as soon as the City Council gives its final approval of the plans, Joseph L. Schnitzer, president, and William Le Baron, vice-president in charge of production, announced yesterday. The City Planning Commission, after visiting the proposed site approved the rezoning of three lots at Gower and Waring streets as a necessary preliminary to the erection of the laboratory.

This laboratory will be fireproof, of Spanish stucco and tile, and employ the latest improvements and innovations, it is announced. Employment of several hundred additional persons [illegible] follow the erection of the [illegible] tory, it is announced.

ACTRESS IN BRIDE ROLE MISSES CUE AND WEEPS

With a six-days' growth of beard on his face Bill Boyd, screen actor, married Dorothy Sebastian, also a film player, at Las Vegas, Nev., and last night they were back in Beverly Hills to receive the felicitations of friends. They returned in a specially chartered Transcontinental and Western Air plane.

The ceremony took place in a small room of the National Hotel in Las Vegas with District Judge Orr officiating. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Shafer, who accompanied the couple, were the witnesses.

Miss Sebastian wept all during the ceremony.

"It's just a habit with me, I guess," she said.

Neither Boyd nor Miss Sebastian ventured forth from the hotel until they got ready to leave, William Scott, Clerk of the District Court, taking the license to them.

Miss Sebastian gave her age as 26 and said she had been previously married in Birmingham, Ala., six years ago and divorced. She declined to give the name of her former husband. Boyd's former wife is Elinor Fair, screen actress, whose divorce became final last month. He gave his age as 33 years. Previously he had been married to the late Diana Miller, actress, who divorced him in 1924.

The couple met on a set a year ago at the Pathe studio, when Miss Sebastian was engaged as Boyd's leading lady.

RITES FOR CAMPBELL ANNOUNCED

Funeral Services Will Be Conducted This Afternoon for Leasehold Official

Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 p.m. today at the chapel of B. E. Dayton, Inc., for John S. Campbell, 49 years of age of 1425 Crestview Court, secretary-treasurer of the Lincoln Leasehold Corporation, who died Wednesday at the Hollywood Hospital after a major operation. Services will be conducted under the auspices of Beverly Hills Lodge No. 528, F. & A. M. The body will be cremated at Hollywood Cemetery.

Mr. Campbell, a graduate of the Western Reserve University, was formerly associated with the Cleveland Trust Company of Cleveland until 1920, when he came to Los Angeles and became an employee of the Citizens National Trust & Savings Bank. He later became vice-president of the bank and held this position until 1928 when he became connected with the Lincoln Leasehold Corporation.

Mr. Campbell was on the budget committee of the Community Chest, and was a prominent worker in the Beverly Hills Kiwanis Club besides being a member of the Masons, and serving on alumni committees of his college fraternity, Beta Theta Phi.

He leaves his widow, Helen Clements Campbell, whom he married in 1913, a son, John S. Campbell III; a daughter, Helen Patricia Campbell; two brothers, Dr. F. C. Campbell and Dr. R. W. Campbell, both of Los Angeles; a sister, Mrs. Ralph Wein of Cleveland, and his father, Dr. J. S. Campbell, also of Cleveland.

DIMES CASE PAIR WILL BE TRIED APART

Brown Technically Wins Separate Hearing Plea in Murder of Woman

Benjamin F. Brown, accused of having slain Mrs. Merle Ells for a handful of dimes, technically won a separate trial from Emory Ells, the dead woman's husband, in Superior Judge Wood's court yesterday when the court continued his trial until January 12, 1931. Ells's trial is scheduled to be conducted Monday in Superior Judge McComb's court. Originally both defendants were ordered to be tried together.

The continuance was granted to permit Brown to obtain affidavits from acquaintances in the East concerning his mental condition when he was a child.

Mrs. Ells was riddled by a charge of buckshot and instantly killed as she slept in her home at 323 East Ninety-ninth street on November 2, last. Her baby son sleeping with her was uninjured.

Police charge that Ells promised Brown $2000 to slay Mrs. Ells, his estranged wife, and after the shooting handed Brown twenty-two dimes as a down payment on the "contract."

COMMITTEE NAMED FOR JACKSON DINNER

Monroe Butler, chairman of the Los Angeles County Democratic Central Committee, yesterday announced the appointment of the following committee in charge of the Jackson Day dinner to be held on January 8, at 6:30 p.m. in the Alexandria: J. Ray Files, chairman; Dwight W. Stephenson, secretary; Rufus C. Porter, Mrs. Marie A. Larkey, Miss Mary Foy, Miss Jane Humphreys, Mrs. J. Henry Stewart, Miss Maude Oyler, Judge Dailey S. Stafford, William H. Neblett, F. M. Hall, P. J. Cooney, George R. Martin and Mrs. Mary Holland Kinkaid.

OUNT OF COUNTY CASH SOUGHT BY SUPERVISOR

for years, was denied by County Treasurer Bryam.

"Such a thought is ridiculous," said Treasurer Bryam. "We get our money into the banks just as fast as we can in order to get interest from it. Why, last year the interest earned from county funds amounted to approximately $1,800,000."

As this is the time of the year much tax money is coming in, the office is a busy one. More than $500,000 was counted, baled and sent to the banks by the office yesterday.

The County Treasurer stated that, aside from the time tax money comes in, there is seldom more than $7000 on hand at any one time, except around the first of the month when county warrants are being paid.

All county money, he said, is counted every month by the County Auditor's office, the Treasurer's office and once a year by auditors from the grand jury.

PICKETING DENOUNCED AT HEARING

Sale of Newspaper With Attack on Theater Said to Constitute Violation

Sale of a weekly newspaper bearing in large type a headline stating that a downtown theater is "unfair to union labor," is picketing, and such sales should be punished according to the city ordinance and State law against such activity, Deputy City Prosecutor Matherly argued in Superior Judge Gates's court yesterday, in the contempt hearing of Chief of Police Steckel and others charged with violating a temporary injunction and arresting two newsboys.

Particularly is the act a violation of the law when the papers are sold in front of the theater in question, which is not on a corner, or at a place where newspapers are usually sold, Deputy Matherly argued. The extraordinary headlines, and the extraordinary means used to distribute the newspapers constituted picketing, he asserted.

Mendel B. Silberberg, attorney for the theater, appearing as amicus curiae, argued that the place to try the case is in Municipal Court, with the newsboys who were arrested for selling the papers as defendants.

"This question has nothing to do with freedom of the press," said Attorney Silberberg. "It makes no difference whether a picketer has in his hands a newspaper or a black jack, picketing is picketing. Publication of the edition of this newspaper with its unusual headlines, is a clever subterfuge to avoid the intent of the antipicket ordinance."

Attorneys Thomas P. White and Daniel G. Marshall for the newspaper, the Los Angeles Citizen, argued on the contrary that the freedom of the press, and constitutional rights of free speech were involved in the arrest of the Citizen's newsboys. The case will be resumed Monday.

RULING ON BUS CRASH REVERSED

Eugene Hunt Wins Appeal Against Directed Verdict in Suit on Son's Death

Holding that the evidence was reasonably sufficient to have supported a verdict for the plaintiff, the Appellate Court of the First Appellate District, in a decision just received here from San Francisco, reversed a directed verdict for the Los Angeles Railway Corporation in an action brought by Eugene Hunt, the father of Gillard Hunt, for damages for his son's death in a motor bus accident.

Young Hunt, who was 11 years of age, was run over and killed by a motor bus in La Brea avenue between Eighth and Ninth streets on September 15, 1925. The boy was riding a bicycle and the motor bus overtook him. The boy swerved his bicycle to the left and was run down. The corporation denied negligence and asserted contributory negligence on the part of the accident victim.

The court recited that it believes the question of the boy's asserted negligence was a question for the jury.

MARKSMAN DEAD FROM OWN SHOT

Police Discredit Story of Accident in Purported Target Practice Firing

After firing ten bullets into a bullseye with a small target pistol in a Main-street shooting gallery yesterday, Brewer L. Anderson, 30 years of age, an advertising man, reloaded the gun and when he again pressed the trigger two bullets were fired into his abdomen. He died at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, several hours later.

Although Anderson, who came from San Francisco and has been here unemployed for nine months, declared the shooting accidental, police support the theory that the man—an expert marksman—turned the gun on himself.

Anderson lived at the Y.M.C.A. The shooting occurred at 345 South Main street, and was witnessed by G. H. Borden, manager of the gallery, the police report asserts.

ABDUCTION THREAT DIRECTED AT PUPIL

Dolores Bock

BOY BLAMED FOR RANSOM ATTEMPTS

Two Letters to Physician Demand $5000 on Penalty of Kidnaping Daughter

The weird imagination of a schoolboy last night was credited with the authorship of two ransom letters demanding $5000 from Dr. Charles Bock, 2211 Juliet street, and threatening to kidnap the physician's 15-year-old daughter, Dolores, if the money was not paid. The first letter demanding that the cash be placed on a street corner near the Bock home was received by the physician last Tuesday, and another Thursday.

"Kidnap your daughter if $5000 is not left on corner of Twenty-fourth and Vermont between 10 and 11 Tuesday night. Watch for red light. Beware," was the wording of the letter received Tuesday by Dr. Bock. The physician paid no attention to the missive except to notify his daughter's teachers at the St. Agnes High School.

The second letter which read: "Wasn't there, eh? Beware, we mean business. Watching our chance," was turned over to detectives at the Wilshire Police station.

Detective Lieutenants Bain and Craig, who yesterday attempted to trace the sender of the letter, declared close examination of the handwriting indicated that they were the work of a boy seeking a vicarious thrill.

"A year ago," Lieut. Craig said last night, "we had a similar experience in the same neighborhood and found a small boy had written several threatening letters."

One suspect was questioned at the Wilshire station yesterday and released when a comparison of his handwriting failed to reveal a similarity to the ransom letters.

Ben Gorchakoff, Tennis Star, to Become Benedict

Ben Gorchakoff, member of the national intercollegiate tennis doubles championship team of 1928, and Miss Kathryn E. Coger yesterday filed their notice of intention to marry. Although, families of the betrothed couple said the ceremony will probably take place within a few days, neither the time nor the place was announced.

Gorchakoff was born in Los Angeles and graduated from Occidental College, and is now employed by the Union Oil Company in the personnel department at San Jose.

Miss Coger is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Coger, 1931 West Thirty-sixth Place, and is a graduate of the University of Southern California.

Relatives said last night the ceremony might take place in San Jose where the couple will make their home after the wedding.

ELYSIAN PARK RADIO STATION APPROVED

Approval of the use of Elysian Park for the erection of the police department radio transmitting station was given by the Park Commission yesterday, following receipt of a communication from City Clerk Dominguez that Mayor Porter had approved the transfer of funds to take care of the installation and purchase of radio equipment for the police radio system. Tests disclosed that erection of the transmitting station on buildings in the downtown and other districts would not provide the efficiency that would be obtained by a separate unit in the park. It is the plan of the police department to have the station where it will give the best service to the forty-seven police cars which are to be equipped with receiving sets.

"SHOP FOR YOUR MAN," WIFE'S RIVAL ADVISES

"Go shopping for your man," Mrs. Gertrude Muriel Wallace was advised by "the other woman," she testified yesterday in divorcing Ernest LeRoy Wallace, patent attorney. Mrs. Wallace offered in evidence two leters which she said were written to her by another woman, her husband's office assistant, which spurred her on to divorce. Superior Judge Craig granted the wife a decree. One letter contained the following:

"You cannot be happy if you are emotionally denied. There is no love relationship with your husband. Only the scars of resentment remain. He is a mere shell with no enthusiasm—the Great American Husband.

"Go shopping for your man. I venture to advise you to come out of the fog and get wise to yourself. You have a special quality of pain—the kind you give everybody.

[Signed] "MEMOREA."

The Wallaces were married the first time for eighteen years, when the wife divorced Wallace, and married another man. She testified that Wallace aided her in divorcing her second husband in order to remarry her November 7, 1925. They separated October 23, last. Judge Craig approved a property settlement and ordered Wallace to pay $155 a month toward his wife's support, she to retain the home.

YOUTH BLAMED IN TRIO'S DEATH

But Inquest Jury Holds Auto Tragedy Accident

Fatality Laid to Careless Manner of Driving

Manslaughter Complaint Issued by Fitts

While fixing the deaths of three elderly persons who were killed last Wednesday night when they were struck by an automobile driven by Fayette Dickinson Marble, 20 years of age, son of William C. Marble, broker, of 2045 Monterey Road, South Pasadena, as accidental, a Coroner's jury yesterday held also that the mishap was due to careless driving on the part of Marble.

Late yesterday Marble was named in a complaint issued by the office of the District Attorney in which he was accused in three counts of manslaughter.

Deaths of the three, Samuel O. Cooper, 73, and his wife, Mrs. Leah A. Cooper, 73, of 326 North Avenue 54, and Mrs. Ermina B. Johnson, 62, 338½ North Avenue 57, occurred while they were crossing Pasadena avenue in a pedestrian zone at Avenue 53, testimony disclosed.

Several eyewitnesses and police officers were called to testify by Deputy Coroner Monfort, as well as three youthful companions of Marble, who were riding in the automobile with him. The latter three, Robert L. Wood, 296 South Euclid avenue, Pasadena; Margaret Isett, 361 South Berkeley avenue, Pasadena, and Jean Marble, sister of Marble, testified they were stunned when the car struck the victims and did not see them until after the impact.

Police officers testified that the body of Mrs. Johnson was thrown fourteen feet from the point of impact, that of Mrs. Cooper seventy-eight feet and that the body of Mr. Cooper was found 210 feet from the point at which he was hit. Passengers in Marble's car stated that Mr. Cooper's body was carried along on the automobile.

On advice of Jerry Geisler, attorney, Marble refused to testify.

EXTORTION SUSPECTS HELD OVER

Bail of Biffer and Floyd Raised to $2500 Each as Judge Denounces Former

Accused of attempting to extort $150 from his mother, Mrs. Katherine Biffer, 80 years of age, Frank Biffer, 40, and his asserted accomplice, Elmer Floyd, 21, were held for Superior Court trial by Municipal Judge Baird yesterday.

In ordering them held Judge Baird increased their bail from $1000 to $2500 each and declared Biffer "deserves no sympathy from anyone."

Mrs. Biffer, called as a witness by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Sullivan, told of telephone calls threatening her and her daughter, and of instructions to deliver money to a messenger boy who called at her home at 1253 West Fifth street. The messenger boy, Orville Braden, was followed and Floyd was arrested when he received the package, police said. Braden knew nothing of the contents of the package, he testified, but had been sent by Floyd to pick it up.

Sullivan introduced into evidence a letter from Biffer threatening his mother. Biffer was represented by Attorney Harold L. Davis.

Rites Will Be Arranged Today for Mrs. Crary

Arrangements will be completed today for the funeral of Mrs. Charles E. Crary, pioneer resident of Los Angeles and member of the Ebell Club, who died unexpectedly Thursday night at her home, 1025 Arapahoe street.

Mrs. Crary was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., and lived for many years after her marriage in New Mexico, where her husband was in business. She came to Los Angeles in 1897 and was one of the small group of women who built the old Ebell Club headquarters on Figueroa street. Until shortly before her death she served on the board of directors. She also was president of the Stimson Memorial Home and an active member of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Crary leaves three sons, Allan, Gordon and George Crary, and one daughter, Mrs. Ora Pearson.

JOBLESS AID PLANS FILED

The Public Welfare Committee yesterday cleared its files of suggestions for the alleviation of unemployment by filing such requests as the general sale of apples on the streets in favor of the comprehensive plan wherein the county, city and Chamber of Commerce are cooperating.

Christmas dinner at Travaglini's Cafe, San Clemente . . . doesn't the idea appeal to you? It is such a glorious motor trip down with such a sumptuous repast awaiting you and your arrival at San Clemente—"the Spanish village by the sea"—and the hospitable attention you receive from Mr. Travaglini himself will make your desire to return often, greater than ever.

Better make your reservations now . . . $1.25 and $1.75 a plate is to be the price of dinner. Oh, but you will have a grand and glorious time down there—remember it's just a short two hours' drive on the Coast Highway . . . half-way between Los Angeles and San Diego.

Cucumber and Radish Salad—Use cucumbers, peeled and thinly sliced, and let stand in ice water one-half hour; drain and lay in a circle on a lettuce leaf alternately with thin slices of bright red radishes; spread a small amount of French dressing over it and serve at once.

What could be more acceptable for a Christmas gift than table cutlery! Why, do you know those $5 carving sets of stainless steel are truly exceptional. You may get them at Steinen's Cutlery Shop, 210 West Third street.

Window Cleaning Helps—Before washing windows, brush all dust off the frames, using a wooden skewer and a cloth for corners and grooves. Do not use soap, or wash when sun is shining on them, as it makes them streaked. A few drops of kerosene or bluing in water used for cleaning, or a little alcohol on a cloth for the final polish, gives the glass a brilliant, crystal-like appearance.

Altering and repairing of shirts is done in the very finest manner by Arthur M. Werner, the custom shirt maker of 122 S. Spring street, (MUtual 1589.) So if your husband's collar bands bother him; if his sleeves are too long or too short or the cuffs need turning, send them to this concern.

To mend broken glassware, cover the broken edges with this: Add one part of solution of bichromate of potash to five parts of gelatine. Press the edges together and stand the article in direct sunlight for a few hours. If neatly done the break will not show and will withstand hot water.

Have your coffee percolator put in perfect condition by the Peerless Platers of 239 1-2 South Spring St. (upstairs.) They can replate it and put new little legs on it so that it will be as good as when new! This concern's prices are very, very reasonable, I might add, and they do the most beautiful work.

To Clean Tinware—Apply common soda with a moistened newspaper and polish with a dry piece; it will make it like new. Or, scour it every two or three weeks with finely sifted coal ashes. A cabbage leaf is fine for cleaning greasy tins.

To remove paint and varnish from the windows of a new house, use fine steel wool, dipped in a mixture of wood alcohol and powdered Bon Ami.

I had a very profitable and interesting experience this week, during which I learned that there is a most amazing difference in the value of the different qualities of spices put up under different labels by competing manufacturers over the country. I learned what a difference there is in spices which have been packed solely to meet price competition and spices packed to meet the highest quality standards.

It was in the research department of the home of Ben-Hur Food Products where I saw them opening and comparing different brands of spices, some of which they told me were being shipped into Los Angeles from northern and eastern cities.

Side by side with other brands, the Ben-Hur brand of spices was so outstandingly superior to all of the others that the difference was plainly discernible to the eye, without even using the sense of taste or smell.

I must tell you about a few of the comparisons so that you will be able to make them for yourself. First was the cinnamon. Ben-Hur is the dark, rich color of the finest thin-quill Saigon bark, having almost double the strength in comparison with the nearest brand, and with a most pleasing and lasting flavor. The second brand was light in color, only medium in strength, with a woody flavor fading out into bitterness. A third brand was woody with practically no flavor. I was told Ben-Hur cinnamon costs fully 20 per cent more to pack than the next best brand being compared, but that grocers made no difference in pricing same to the housewife.

The same value differential applied to cloves, Ben-Hur brand being very dark and oily, being ground from the finest cloves obtainable, while the second brand was much lighter in color and less oily and pungent in aroma. The third brand was so dry and light colored that one of the men remarked, "It looks like this brand has had all the valuable oil of cloves pressed out of it, leaving the valueless residue to pack in the can for the unsuspecting housewife."

The same great quality differences appeared in more or less degree on the items of black and white pepper, ginger, allspice, cayenne and even in sage. The Ben-Hur quality stood out, being fresher, brighter colored, while other brands were dry and dead and lacked the aromatic pungency of the Ben-Hur quality.

I had never realized before that there could be such a difference in quality of such commonly used items. I was told that only by educating the public to this vast difference in spice quality, could the manufacturer hope to keep Ben-Hur spices on the grocers' shelves. Competitive conditions are so keen that dealers here and there are already trying to overcome losses from general conditions by increasing the profit on items that the public is not so familiar with as to quality. I hope my readers will show grocers that they are not ignorant as to spice quality, refusing to allow inferior grades of spices to be sold them at the same price at which they can buy the finest quality known to the world's markets.

As 85 per cent of the grocers in the great Southwest are handling Ben-Hur spices, you will have no difficulty in securing them if your grocer does not carry them. Ben-Hur spices on the grocers' shelves are the sure sign of a dependable merchant, as great sales pressure is being brought to bear upon all grocers to buy inferior spices which will show them a greater profit. The grocer who maintains high quality merchandise on his shelves for the benefit of his customers can safely be trusted with your grocery order.

For a good broom holder, nail two spools to the wall about two inches apart and hang the broom upside down between them.

ROAST GOOSE WITH POTATO STUFFING

One goose (about eight pounds.) Potato stuffing. Salt and pepper. Flour.

GUASTI COOKING SHERRY

Select a goose that is about 4 months old. Singe the goose, wash it carefully in hot water and wipe it dry on the outside; then draw it and clean it thoroughly inside. Flatten the breastbone by striking it with a rolling pin. Partly fill the cavity with potato stuffing, stitch up the openings and truss the goose. Bake in a hot oven (500 deg. Fahrenheit.) for forty-five minutes. Remove it from the oven, pour out all the fat, sprinkle the bird all over with a small quantity of salt and pepper, dredge with flour and return it to the oven. Reduce the heat, but do not let it get below 350 deg. Fahrenheit.

When the flour is a good brown, pour a cupful of Guasti Cooking Sherry over the goose and baste it often, dredging it each time with a slight sifting of flour to absorb the fat. Allow twenty minutes to the pound for a young goose and twenty-five for one that is old. Remove the goose from the pan, add a cupful of hot water to the gravy and thicken it, if necessary, with browned flour. Garnish the goose with parsley and Guasti Burgundy Wine Jelly and serve with giblet gravy.

To clean silver—Put a little peroxide on a flannel cloth, rub it on a cake of soap and apply it to the silver; then polish with a soft cloth.

You can buy the most interesting gifts imported from Manila at Orlanes Philippine Products Co., 110 E. First street. Among the numerous articles are exquisite embroideries, black coral and silver bracelets, native sandals, to say nothing of the delicious guava jelly, mangoes, and other fruits peculiar to the Orient.

You will be glad to know that you may buy the very best olive oil as well as imported Italian and French groceries at R. Fazzi & Co., 219 South Spring street. MUtual 7612.

Paint the window screens on the inside with thin white paint; then persons who are inside the house can see out, but passers-by cannot see within.

Won't you try and get up a bundle of old clothes you no longer wear, and include in it any articles about the house you do not want, and send this bundle to the Children's Hospital Salvage Department at 712 Maple avenue. TUcker 1203? Such a gift will be greatly appreciated of that I can assure you!

Orange Cake—One cupful of sugar, one-half cupful of butter, one-half cupful of milk, two eggs; one and one-half cupfuls of flour sifted with one-half teaspoonful of soda and one teaspoonful of cream of tartar; grated rind of one orange. For frosting use the following: Juice of one large orange mixed stiff with confectioner's sugar. Place walnut halves on the top.

The corrected telephone number of Mrs. Gardner, 1036 South Western, who has the lovely hand-quilted quilts in blue and white, pink and white, and a few antique ones in red, green and white—is ORegon 3247.

To make brooms and brushes last longer and do better work, give them an occasional bath in two quarts of lukewarm water to which add four tablespoonfuls of ammonia; let the bristles or straws stand in this for one-half hour, then rinse them thoroughly and hang them up in a cool place to dry.

Any one of my readers who has any old carpets will do well to have them made into attractive Fluff Rugs by the Hoffman Rug Works, 2914 W. Jefferson St. (EMpire 2046.) This concern does splendid work and their charges are most modest. By the way, they make Colonial Rugs from rags, too.

LAST RITES CONDUCTED FOR GARVEY

Tributes Paid to Pioneer Who Aided in Agricultural Development of Southland

Funeral services for Richard Garvey, pioneer resident of Los Angeles who died last Tuesday, were conducted yesterday at the family residence, 2302 West Ninth street, Mgr. Francis J. Conaty officiating. Pallbearers were John B. Treadwell, James Cuzner, Isidore Dockweiler, John G. Mott, M. F. Betkouski and Joseph Scott.

Following services at the house the body was taken to the Plaza Church which was filled with men and women who had come to pay respects to the memory of their friend. Requiem high mass was celebrated by Mgr. Conaty and a sermon was preached by Bishop Cantwell, who told the story of the life of Mr. Garvey from the time he left Ireland at 12 years of age, until his death.

At the services at Calvary Cemetery, a brief eulogy of Mr. Garvey was voiced by Joseph Mesmer, a fellow-member with Mr. Garvey of the Pioneer Society, who told of his aged friend's interest in civic and religious affairs.

Mr. Garvey, who was 92 years of age, came to Los Angeles in 1858 and for more than half a century had been identified with the agricultural and industrial development of the Southland.

MRS. McPHERSON QUIZ ON FILM PACT DELAYED

The mere rustle of a paper is sufficient to cause Aimee Semple McPherson, pastor of Angelus Temple, to go into a dead faint, according to the information given Attorneys Kaye and Johnstone as a reason why she was unable to appear at their office in the Bartlett Building yesterday morning and make a deposition regarding a motion-picture contract with her former attorney, Cromwell Ormsby, now serving a term in San Quentin prison for bribery.

F. C. Winters, temple business manager, declared Mrs. McPherson will be unable to stand questioning at this time regarding her proposed picture, "Clay in the Potter's Hands," in which she has contracted with Roy Stewart, motion-picture actor and producer, to appear in the leading role.

Mrs. McPherson's recovery is very slow, according to Winters. She is passing most of the time at her beach cottage with her two children and Mae Waldron, her secretary, but she has not fully recovered from her nervous breakdown of last August.

It is understood that Stewart held a conference with Winters and Miss Waldron yesterday and that it was agreed to allow the deposition go until after the new year. Stewart obtained a court order requiring Mrs. McPherson to state definitely the terms of her contract with Ormsby. The suit is a friendly one, Stewart said.

"She fully intends to make the picture as soon as she is well enough, we were told," Attorney Johnstone said yesterday.

ALHAMBRA DRIVER MUST PAY $10,400 FOR DEATH

Six months in the County Jail, forfeiture of his automobile operator's license for one year, and payment of $10,400 to the family of the man he ran down and killed two months ago is the penalty Philip D. Hulme, Alhambra real estate man, must pay to fulfill the conditions of a ten-year period of probation granted to him yesterday by Superior Judge Schauer.

Judge Schauer ordered payment of $500 in cash to the heirs of David R. Thomas, the victim, within thirty days. For three years thereafter he must pay $100 a month to the family, and for the seven succeeding years $75 a month.

Hulme, although he denied being the motorist who ran Thomas down and killed him, was convicted of manslaughter. He was apprehended and identified by officers by his hat found near the scene of the tragedy. The investigators charged that Hulme had been drinking and was intoxicated.

Hulme, however, asserted that Thomas was struck by someone else and already was lying on the pavement when he drove by.

Today's Bible Text

Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years.—Rev. xx: 6.

YEAH-MEN

It is all a mistake. There are no yes-men any more. Nor is there an increase of no-men. They are all yeah-men.

DEFINED AT LAST

Frigid compressed air comes from bowels of earth through oil well. That may be the explanation of the oft-heard paradoxical expression in the East, "It's as cold as hell."

HANDSOME HEAVIES?

Germany objects because the villain in a German war talkie "looks like a crook." Our "good-bad boys" in Hollywood will have to brush up on their German.

OR JUST PLAIN GLASSES

Science has audited accounts of business man who lived 3500 years ago in Northern Mesopotamia. Apparently some scientists are needed a little nearer home.

EDUCATION NOTE

Berkeley, Cal., has a police force of A.B.'s and it is said they qualify in a great way. Doubtless the garbage man is also a Ph.D., and we venture the fruit-stand man talks Italian and the restaurant owner does not even garble his Greek.

CHEER LEADER

If business wants to win, it should choose a cheer leader and conduct yells for dear old alma pater. Then maybe the team in the big game of life would strike its stride and have a winning streak. Knocking Coach Hoover does not help business.

MONEY TO BURN?

William Wrigley is trading chewing gum for Canadian wheat. The farmers of Idaho, finding wheat only $9 a ton, wood $10 a cord and coal $16.50 a ton, are burning wheat for fuel. All of which illustrates the present conditions of topsy-turvydom.

SIN-KUST

A Portland preacher delivers a sermon on "Sin-Kissed Fruit." We have a peculiar feeling that he may be referring to something in California. Could he have the nerve to be prodding Hollywood? Or is he just thinking of the bandit boys of Los Angeles? Is anyone able to figure out what he is driving at? If he had said "Sin-kust," would he come nearer the truth? Our pride feels a trifle ruffled.

RECOGNIZE SOVIETS?

Here and there in Uncle Samuel's vast domain is published a newspaper that supports the Borah notion that we ought to recognize the soviet government. One of these journals is the Brooklyn Eagle, which lately made the plea that, because we refused the Brazilian rebels permission to purchase arms in the United States while they were warring against their country, but recognized them as soon as they had established their own government, we should have done the same with soviet Russia.

The two cases were wholly dissimilar. When we refused to let the rebels buy arms in the United States we merely continued a traditional policy. Had we made an exception in this instance we would have been justly charged with prejudice and favoritism as well as interference. The new regime is not complaining about our action, as it realizes that it was taken in the regular course of affairs.

Another and vital difference in the two cases is that Brazil is far from being a Communist country and that it has not repudiated any of its just debts to us, while soviet Russia is a Red repudiator over $150,000,000 in debt to this country. In the twenty-five nations that have recognized the Moscow government the seeds of Communism are being diligently sown. They are learning that the soviet regime is not to be trusted and that it is not improving in political or social ethics. In fact, there is less reason for us to recognize it today than when Wilson refused to do so thirteen years ago.

POLITICS AND MISERY

Accuracy of the President's declaration that certain Congressmen and Senators are "playing politics with human misery" can hardly be questioned after the legislative jam that developed on the emergency relief bills. The Senate, with a grand gesture of generosity with the taxpayers' money, doubled the budget estimates of $30,000,000 for aid to farmers in the drought area and made the money available to buy food and clothing as well as seed. Though the House rejected this and the amount was finally cut in conference to $45,000,000, the bill goes through with a clause which permits the loan of money for other than capital expenditures. If this permission is made use of, a precedent is set which puts the United States government in the position of a direct dispenser of charity.

The dangerous extension of paternalism implied in the original Senate bill was warmly defended by several Democrats, including Congressman Garner, leader of his party in the House, despite the fact that the precedent would be demoralizing. Cases of destitution such as would require subsidies for food and clothing ought to be taken care of by local agencies, and not by the national government.

It is just such a precedent that was set by the first Roman emperor who decreed "bread and circuses" for the common people. The distribution of free wheat to the Roman populace, continued over a course of centuries, degenerated a self-supporting, self-reliant citizenry into a rabble of paupers. The Elizabethan poor laws in England were conceived in a similar generous spirit and cursed England continually until they were repealed. England is suffering today under the dole system—a system which started with the laudable if mistaken purpose of providing unemployment insurance for workers and has developed into a treasury-draining subsidy for many who never worked and never will.

The American farmer has never asked charity, and when he understands the true nature of this attempted gift by the politically minded Senators and Congressmen, will rightly resent it.

That the real intention of these Senators and Congressmen was to bait the President and annoy and harass him in his efforts to pull the country out of the hole is shown by the juggling with the emergency employment relief measure. The President asked for $150,000,000, to be expended, at his discretion, upon public works already authorized in detail by Congress. The drought relief measure was boosted $15,000,000; the employment relief bill was cut to $116,000,000, and the Senate adopted an amendment by Senator Couzens (which the House so far has very sensibly rejected) requiring that none but local labor of ninety-days residence be employed on any of the projects and that the highest prevailing rate of wages be paid. The Senate yielded under pressure from the House on its insistence that the hands of the President should be further tied by designating where every specific nickel should be spent, but only after Senator McKellar had made a disgraceful and intemperate attack on Hoover's administration of relief funds in Europe during the war and had been properly rebuked by Senator Glenn and others.

The Couzens amendment would defeat the object of the legislation. It would take so long to make sure that every man employed on the job was a bona fide resident that few could get hired on any project. Besides, should make no difference to Congress where the worker lives; the nation consists of all American citizens, wheresoever dispersed, and all are entitled to equal treatment. Discrimination, in a national affair, either in favor of or against any locality is unjust, unfair and vicious in principle.

As for giving the President a free hand in directing the expenditures, if Congress was able to make the wisest possible distribution conditions would be sure to change and render shifts desirable. The general public will believe that the President knows more about handling relief funds than any Senator or Congressman or all of them combined. The Senatorial plan would have produced a political backfire.

The condition can only enhance the disgust of the American people with politics as it is played in Congress, and hasten the day when the power of disturbers and wreckers will be shorn from them. Real party responsibility and party discipline are necessary to the successful conduct of government, and some day the people will take steps to bring it about.

IL DUCE DUCKS

In his efforts to make a scapegoat out of the United States Signor Mussolini follows general European precedent and there is no new occasion for complaint on this score. But for the record it may be noted that there was no law compelling the subjects of Il Duce to indulge in stock gambling and so become involved in the general stock crash of 1929. The Americans caught in the market have not blamed anybody but themselves.

Nor are the present Italian economic troubles exclusively caused by outside influences. Italian business has, in fact, been in hot water ever since Mussolini, three years ago, insisted on stabilizing the lira at 5.26 cents gold instead of the natural exchange rate of about 4 cents and wrecked the price and wage structure of his country.

Also, the Italian budget is thrown out of line by heavy military expenditures, which, Mussolini says, are necessary so long as "all the rest of the world talks war." This is just nonsense. Italy was never in less danger from attack and Europe's principal war danger (aside from the situation in Spain) arises from Il Duce's hostility toward France and backing of the extreme Nationalist elements in Germany. Italy has nothing that France wants, at least nothing that France wants badly enough to fight for, and the armament of France is principally defensive against a possible Italo-German combination, with Russia in the background. If Italy reduced her military spending it is extremely probable France would follow suit.

As matters stand it seems likely that either France or Italy could guarantee European peace for many years by certain concessions; France, by conceding Italy a bigger share of North Africa; Italy by dropping her demands for an African outlet and making it plain that she would join no combination against France. Rapprochement between France and Germany would then be possible, and the soviet union would be baffled in its efforts to make trouble. Il Duce thus holds the key to the situation, in large part, in his hands.

His effort to duck responsibility is only too apparent.

WARREN BOVARD

A wave of sorrow, sympathy and shock swept social and educational circles, in which Warren Bradley Bovard held a prominent position, at the news of his tragic death at the height of a career of unusual credit. What combination of untoward circumstances led up to the sad finale is known to himself and his Maker. From those who were close to him in the work he was carrying on at the University of Southern California, from those who felt the influence of his magnetic personality and who remember both his peace and wartime services, there is nothing but a feeling of the deepest regret at the loss the community has sustained and of universally tendered sympathy to his honored family.

Warren Bovard had a record of achievement that seldom comes to man or woman so early in life. In his prime he had reached distinctions older aspirants have striven for in vain. As educator, business man, athlete, churchman, friend or counselor, he stood in the esteem of all who came in contact with him. In the life of the university, so intimately connected with the name he bore, his zeal was recognized by faculty and student body alike. Of this his rise from assistant treasurer in his twentieth year to the position of vice-president twenty-two years later is conclusive evidence.

Seldom has an individual gone so far in so short a time as did this native son of Los Angeles born into one of our best-known Southern California families. Seldom has the future apparently held promise of higher rewards for work well done. An inscrutable destiny has ruled otherwise. His death has hung a pall of gloom over our home university and brought a poignant sorrow to the family from which it has drawn so much of its inspiration. But what he accomplished remains and on it will be builded yet higher steps for carrying forward the citizenship and culture that proudly carry the initials, U.S.C.

COLLEGE CRAMP-US

Dr. Flexner, expert with the Carnegie Foundation for Advancement of Teaching and the Rockefeller General Education Board, seems to be miffed at institutions that give degrees for dish-washing and janitor work.

He regards poultry raising, home laundering and dancing for men to be insufficiently mentally exhausting for a bachelor of anything in particular. A year ago he likened the modern university to a corner drug store, where everything, and some drugs, are on sale.

Even though he may miss it at times, Flexner is interesting. And there is some truth in his statements. In these days of rapid transit, if a man hardly more than pass through a college campus in his car, he demands a diploma for his effort. And so the college campus has become the college cramp-us to the watch dog at the endowment doors of the big institutions of learning. Every time a flunk emerges from the college halls with a mortar board on his head he lowers the value of every graduate's certificate.

A LETTER TO SANTA CLAUS

By James J. Montague

Dear Sir—through mutual friends I hear
Of your deep interest
In those, who at this time of year
Are troubled and distressed.
Our fifth and sixth vice-president—
Or tenth—I can't be sure—
Has said you sometimes pay the rent
For the deserving poor,
And furnish help to needy men
Till business shall pick up again.

For years I've had much work on hand
And deeply I regret—
As you no doubt will understand
That we have never met.
But though my tasks are manifold
And I have much to do,
I very much should like to hold
A conference with you.
A friendly little talk, you know,
We should have had long years ago.

You'll find me in the office here
Where we can chat at ease,

The LEE SIDE O' L.A.

BY Lee Shippey

NOW that so many of us men have to "go shopping" it is timely to consider the case of Bullard Lowder.

Lowder might be taken as Los Angeles' most representative business man. He belongs to three service clubs and rates as an executive because he has a corking good secretary to do his work. Frequently he comes home looking very tired because he has smoked too much, and often he thinks of himself as a tired business man. Though he is the life of the party at the weekly luncheons of the Ostrich Club he is a pretty yawny fellow around home.

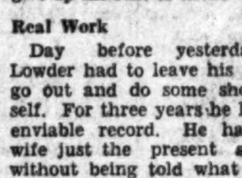
The Alibi of Lowder

One of Lowder's favorite theories has been that now women have equality it is no longer necessary for a gentleman to give up his street-car seat to any of them except those who have a personal claim on him. He always catches his rush-hour homeward-bound car at the station and gets a seat, and would even rather read an afternoon paper than see a strap-hanging woman. He just can't bear to look at them, so he doesn't. Though they step on his toes and brush against his paper he never sees one, unless she happens to be decidedly good looking.

"They've just been shopping," he growls. "Why can't they do their shopping earlier and not crowd the rush-hour cars so? Women are the least considerate animals on earth. After they've just been running around town all day they expect a man who's been really working to give up his seat to them. Not for me."

Real Work

Day before yesterday, though, Lowder had to leave his real work to go out and do some shopping himself. For three years he has made an enviable record. He has given his wife just the present she wanted, without being told what to buy. He has established himself as a husband who really is understanding and noticing. Between us, the reason he has that record is that he has had his efficient secretary go out and do his Christmas shopping for him. But he never told his wife that, partly because he wants all the credit himself and partly because the secretary happens to be a blond.



A SHOPPING I MUST GO!

Day before yesterday the secretary suddenly became ill. There was nothing for it but for Lowder to do his own shopping.

He had a luncheon engagement—with the Ostrich Club—at noon. So he left his office at 11, to pick up a present on the way to the club's meeting place.

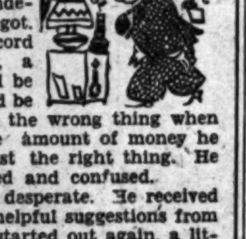
For the first time since the Ostriches began sticking their heads in the sandwiches Lowder was tardy, almost absent. The committee of which he was head feared there'd been a traffic accident.

But just as the crowd was dispersing he staggered in. His face was drawn, his hair disheveled, he looked as if he'd been run over.

"What happened?" asked his anxious friends.

"I've," he panted, "been shopping."

The Tiredest Tired Business Man



SOMETHING?
JES' LOOKING MADAM!

He had seen 100 things he thought his wife might like, but the more he saw the more undecided he got. With a record such as his, a mistake would be fatal. It would be tragic to give the wrong thing when for the same amount of money he might give just the right thing. He was bewildered and confused.

But he was desperate. He received a score of unhelpful suggestions from his pals and started out again, a little more confused than before. He let business go hang and spent all the afternoon blundering about the stores.

At last he made a purchase and tottered out of the store to catch his homebound car. There was a crowd waiting for it, but with his last ounce of strength he sprang ahead of women and children to catch it while it was in motion and so secured a seat. In a minute others were swarming in and the seats and aisle were packed. Just in front of him stood a woman who sagged with weariness. He tried hard not to look at her, but he couldn't help it. Finally, with half-averted eyes, he mumbled:

"I'd give you this seat, madam, but I'm all in. I've—I've been shopping!"

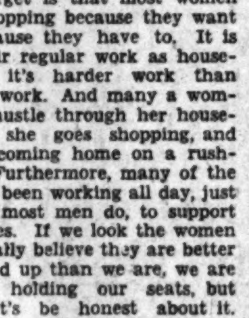
She turned and looked at him commiseratingly. "Why, Bullard!" she exclaimed. It was his wife.

He realized in a moment that she had been shopping, too. He glared about. Half a dozen seated men nearby were resolutely failing to see the standing women. Lowder sniffed scornfully and struggled to his feet.

"Not a gentleman in the crowd," he muttered. "Here, honey, take this seat."

From Pedestal to Strap

Now the thing most of us Bullard Lowders forget is that most women don't go shopping because they want to, but because they have to. It is part of their regular work as housewives. And it's harder work than most office work. And many a woman has to hustle through her housework before she goes shopping, and can't help coming home on a rush-hour car. Furthermore, many of the others have been working all day, just as hard as most men do, to support their families. If we look the women over and really believe they are better able to stand up than we are, we are justified in holding our seats, but otherwise let's be honest about it. Let's don't excuse ourselves on the ground that they've "just been shopping" while we are "tired business men." Let's frankly admit we're selfish and unchivalrous. Let's confess that instead of putting woman on a pedestal modern manhood prefers to sit down and let her hang to a strap.



GOLLY, HOW MY FEET HURT!

THE GREAT AMERICAN BIRD

BY WILLIAM HAMILTON CLINE

Are you aware that the powers that were, in choosing an emblem for these very young United States some 150 years ago, discussed and disagreed for full six years whether it should be the eagle, which we put on our great seal, or the turkey, which we put on our plates?

Would you ever guess that none other than Benjamin Franklin himself — printer, scientist, statesman, ambassador, author and Postmaster-General—fathered the idea of the turkey for the post of honor it did not attain? And it was this same Franklin who, when our first coins and seals came from the Philadelphia mint, chortled in unholy glee because the eagle on them looked a lot more like a turkey—an inebriated one, at that! Of it, he said:

"I am not displeased that the figure is not known as a bald eagle, but looks more like a turkey. For in truth the turkey is in comparison a much more respectable bird, and withal, a true native of America. He is, besides (though a little vain and silly, it is true, but not the worse emblem for that,) a bird of courage and would not hesitate to attack a grenadier of the British Guards who should presume to enter his farmyard with a red coat on."

As a matter of fact, Ben Franklin and the other advocates of the choice of the turkey as the fittest candidates for national emblematic honor knew what they were urging, at that. At least, the turkey was indigenous; a native-born fowl, at first restricted to America, which the eagle never was. Besides, from the time of Rome in her Caesarian glory, and perhaps long before, the eagle had been the imperial aegis, and many lands had so used it, while none had ever adopted the turkey in any heraldic way. Thus we might have selected it and have had a totem all our own. But, even as we debated in our first Congress about offering a crown to George Washington, so we had to pick on a bird with a royalty complex; we were not yet far enough away from the pomp and circumstance of regal associations, it seems. Hence the eagle usurped the place of the turkey, his fit and better rival.

The turkey is a noble bird in his native wilds. He may be vain and love to strut at times—don't most of us Americans, at that? But when you rile him, he's no mean foe. Keen of eye, long of leg, alert of mind, with a purposeful and dangerous beak, he's no weakling when it comes to doing battle 'gainst his enemies. He can scrounch down on his aerial perch, tuck in his head, ruffle up his feathers and offer an almost impregnable defense against attack from aloft. He has a sentinel system in flock that is an epitome of strategy and smartness. And the hen is a more devoted mother than is a chicken, and her eggs are a more tasty morsel; if you've ever tasted them, you'll agree. Despite that the gobbler is as unfaithful a spouse as the feathered kingdom affords, there are still admirable qualities about both turkey sexes—and isn't an eagle a bird of prey, when you come to think of it? Which a turkey never is, or was.

The early Conquistadores gave the turkey to Europe, as they did many other native American treasures. The Aztecs knew the gastronomical goodness of the bird, and featured it; Montezuma fed the Spanish invaders on it and they took it back across the Atlantic with them; Cortez's own confessor, Fra Agapida, propagandized it while still in Mexico, and that great conqueror was exceedingly proud of the flock he carried over to Castile and Aragon. By 1530, turkeys were known and enjoyed even in England, and by 1541, it was decreed that an ecclesiastic could have "onley one to a dishe"—which is a tribute to noble trenchermanship, if nothing else. By 1555, the birds were cheap enough for the populace to afford them.

The name? It has no relation to the land that also bears it. It was supposed when first brought to Europe that the turkey was a species of guinea fowl, then a Portuguese importation from Africa, called "turk-y" from a crude imitation of its raucous cry. There are no turkeys raised in Turkey.

All of which, good folk, while being authentic history and thus worthy of record, doesn't eliminate the joy we must feel that in his endeavor to canonize, as it were, this native bird into our national emblem, old Ben failed utterly. What a disaster, suppose he hadn't, to be permitted merely to revere our greatest feathered comestible, and to have to take out our holiday hunger on a tough old eagle!

MADE IN AMERICA

Too much care, it seems, cannot be expended in pictures which portray foreign countries. When folks see their home towns on the screen they are sure to find something wrong with the picture. "All Quiet on the Western Front" does not find favor in Germany and "White Shadows of the South Seas" has been barred from parts of Palestine. Meanwhile the film makers are importing native actors for foreign talkies and the radio is helping the ends of the earth to get together. Libraries all over the country report growing interest in books of travel and geography and in discussions of international relations.

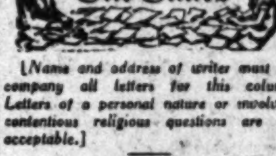
$1500 Found in Old Stump

Gold was struck by a man while chopping wood in the back yard of his home at Perth, Australia, recently. Three ingots weighing over seventy-five ounces and valued at $1500 were inside a hollow stump, which had been taken out of the ground a year ago. It is thought the gold had been hidden there by a thief in the old pioneering days.



LETTERS TO The Times

[Name and address of writer must accompany all letters for this column. Letters of a personal nature or involving contentious religious questions are not acceptable.]

Origin of Name

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 15.—[To the Editor of The Times:] The name of Hollywood acquired its origin from the suggestion of my father, Ivar A. Weid. In the latter part of the year 1886, Ivar A. Weid and H. H. Wilcox, who owned lands adjoining each other in what is now the center of Hollywood, were discussing the names that should be given to their new projected subdivisions while driving in Mr. Wilcox's carriage through Weid Canyon (owned by Ivar Weid, which canyon lies directly back of, or north of, Hollywood's business center, and which adjoins the territory where now Mulholland Dam and Hollywood Lake are located.)

Mr. Weid, impressed by the great abundance of holly trees and the beauty of the holly berries in his canyon, for which this canyon was noted for many years, suggested the name of Hollywood or Hollywoods, and the name Hollywood was chosen by Mr. Wilcox for his new subdivision, mostly all level land; while Mr. Weid chose the name of Hollywood Heights for his new subdivision, mostly hill and canyon land. When Mr. Wilcox platted and filed his subdivision maps of Hollywood (first filing, February 1, 1887; second filing, February 7, 1888) he named Wilcox avenue for himself, Ivar avenue for Ivar A. Weid and Selma avenue for the latter's daughter. When later Mr. Weid filed his map, he named the principal street in his subdivision Wilcox avenue, the two Wilcox avenues in the respective subdivisions forming one continuous street.

For Active Service

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 12.—[To the Editor of The Times:] There is such evident need for more men on our police force and of course need for all now on the force to be on active duty and also need for finding employment for the many idle just now. At every street crossing near schools we have officers making sure the children can reach the school in the traffic. And that's right, too. But why not put ex-service men at these duties and release the officers for more strenuous duty? The veterans are trained and could be given full authority to make arrests at those points. Many of them would make good officers. It would serve a double purpose, it would seem.

NOT A VETERAN.

Salvage Not Wreckage

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 17.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I read your editorial in today's Times and appreciate the wisdom of the expressions therein contained.

I am one of the victims and have wondered if the State should not seize everything that has been produced from moneys taken from the Guaranty Building and Loan Association by Beesemyer or at least such part as is owned by him. As you related relative to the Los Angeles Investment Company, by conserving the remaining assets some new management might restore it and in the course of time pay the depositors or certificate holders in full.

Surely if a multitude of suits are instituted and permitted the wreckage in time will be complete and as you suggest all will be lost to the ones who should be protected.

J. K. LUNDY.

Timorous Souls

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 17.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Some timorous souls who have a little money in loan companies have expressed a lack of confidence in loan companies in general because of the recent exposure.

It seems to me that the scandal will tend to make loan companies safer than ever because they will in future be subject to very much closer inspection than before and it is very unlikely that such liberties will have been taken with company funds by other managers.

CHRISTMAS JOY BELLS

When Christmas bells are ringing
In music half divine
I hear angelic voices
In far-off Palestine.

Beside the Golden City,
By little Bethlehem
I seem to see yon shepherds
And watch the sheep with them.

There where the winter starlight
Falls over hill and plain
I almost see the angels
And hear their songs again.

"Good news, good news," they're singing—
Hark! Hark! the wondrous lay—
"To you in yonder village
The Christ is born today."

Joy, joy, Oh, Bells of Christmas
And all your glad refrain,
With you I've been a little while In Bethlehem again.

As in a dream your voices
In yonder voices melt,
And I have felt this Christmas night
The joy the shepherds felt.

Buffalo Hunters Busy

The depression which has clouded Australia is reported to not be touching the buffalo hunters in the northern part of the country. In the last twelve months, it is estimated, 15,000 bulls were shot, the hunters receiving an average of $5 a hide from exporters at Darwin.

Gilbert I. Beesemyer, go to trial on charges of the Guaranty Building and of approximately was chairman of the of the Bank of Hollywood, by John McPaul, charge of th. Los Angeles office, Division of Banks, State Department of Investments, that the bank's difficulties did not grow out of Beesemyer's admitted peculations in the building and loan organization.

It was indicated that closing was caused by a considerable amount of bank assets which could not be liquidated fast enough to meet a sudden rush of withdrawals.

While the bank officers were in session in the building which houses the institution at Hollywood Boulevard and Vine street, a block farther down the boulevard at Ivar avenue State Examiner Milton O. Shaw issued a warning from the Guaranty offices to depositors in the institution.

"LEAGUES" DENOUNCED

"There are so-called depositors' protective leagues being formed among certificate holders of Guaranty Building and Loan Association which can do no good," Shaw declared.

"I understand these plan to collect a fee for services their directors say may result in recovering deposits.

"That fee is about all the action these leagues or associations expect and anyone contributing will lose just that much more."

Shaw is the man who first uncovered Beesemyer's activities in juggling the corporation's books and is conducting further examination of its records.

A group of about twelve civic leaders assembled in United States District Judge Cosgrave's chambers late yesterday to discuss with the jurist the Federal receivership into which the plundered company is expected to be delivered today. The committee, said to have convened at the invitation of Judge Cosgrave, included prominent merchants, industrialists, bankers, insurance executives, public officials and attorneys.

BANKRUPTCY MOVE AIMED AT BEESEMYER

That the Guaranty Building and Loan Association was given preference over other creditors when Gilbert H. Beesemyer transferred from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000 of his personal assets to the concern was made the basis for an involuntary petition in bankruptcy filed yesterday in United States District Court against Beesemyer.

The petitioners, Pledger & Co., Inc.; Laura Greenberger and F. H. Gregory, assert that Beesemyer, by transferring his personal assets to preferred creditors, including the Guaranty company, committed an act of insolvency.

Claims of $1425 by Gregory and $500 by Laura Greenberger were recited in the petition. Gregory and Mrs. Greenberger set forth that they bought trust certificates from the Guaranty Building and Loan Company, which later became insolvent through acts of Beesemyer and made him personally liable for the amount of the indebtedness.

STOCKHOLDERS ORGANIZE TO PROTECT INTERESTS

Seeking an immediate appraisal of assets of the Guaranty Building and Loan Association and opposing the appointment at this time of a receiver under Federal laws, depositors representing some $4,000,000 in the defunct financial institution met yesterday and formed the Central Protective Association of Guaranty Building and Loan depositors.

At the meeting held at the Hollywood Athletic Club purposes of the organization were outlined and a permanent working body effected with the naming of A. L. Lewis as chairman, Clarence Kincaid as vice-chairman and Harrison H. Crawford, secretary.

The immediate purpose, according to the officers, is to amalgamate all the organizations looking to the interests of the depositors and stockholders in the Beesemyer organization into one central body and work to a common goal. Centralization of effort was outlined as the prime need of the present situation.

Delay in the appointment of a receiver will also be recommended by the new organization, which appointed a representative committee of ten to appear this morning at the Federal Court hearing. This group will ask a continuance of this case, as well as a delay in any effort just now to attempt to liquidate the assets of the defunct association.

—The depositors' group was advised at a second meeting last night, by Lewis A. Copeland, president of the Los Angeles County Building and Loan Secretaries' League, that the co-operation of local building and loan corporations will be extended to the fullest extent in the effort to obtain an early and satisfactory settlement of depositors' claims.

LIE-MONGERS HIT AT BANKS

Anonymous "Warnings" to Depositors Vicious and Groundless

It has been brought to the attention of The Times that some local mischief-maker—possibly more than one—is trying to make trouble for certain Los Angeles banks by means of anonymous letters and telephone calls to depositors advising them to withdraw their deposits.

The inference that the banks in question are in an unsound condition is absolutely groundless and of vicious and obviously interested origin. The business depression which has temporarily withdrawn large sums of money from customary investment channels has coincidentally raised bank deposits to the highest point in history. Not in many years have local banks been in so liquid a condition in point of actual cash on hand as at present. In addition the great majority of these institutions have behind them the vast resources of the Clearinghouse Association and the Federal Reserve System.

There is not the slightest occasion for uneasiness on the part of any depositor in any of the banks which are being made the objects of these anonymous attacks.

TOLL OF CRIME STILL GROWING

December Robberies Likely to Set New Record

Total of 214 Reported for First Eighteen Days

Criminals Active in Last Twenty-four Hours

During the first eighteen days of this month the total of 214 robberies reported to police was higher, by three cases, than the highest monthly record in the history of the city up until this record was broken with a total of 275 hold-ups in November, last. The former record was established in January, 1928, when 211 robberies were reported.

Indication that November's figure will be outstripped at the end of this month is shown when the total of 214 robberies for the first eighteen days is compared with a total of 157 during the same period last month. In December last year at the same time, robberies totaled only ninety-four. Burglaries, according to figures given out by the police statistician's office, increased to 394, as compared to 356 in November, last, and 335 in December last year.

VICTIM SLUGGED

In one of eleven hold-ups reported between 8 p.m. Thursday and noon yesterday, S. B. Svenson, 33 years of age, had his right ear nearly torn off and suffered a possible skull fracture when struck with a heavy fire hose nozzle in the hands of a lone bandit who attacked him in his hotel room at 326 1-2 South Spring street. The bandit got away with $100. Svenson was given emergency treatment at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital.

Thirty burglaries reported during the same period netted burglars a total of $10,500 in cash and plunder. The largest haul was made in the home of Morris Spector at 444 South Sycamore avenue. All of the rooms in the dwelling were completely ransacked and furs, clothing and jewelry valued at $7000 were taken. Entrance was effected by use of a pass key.

GROCERS ROBBED

In the list of robberies three groceries were held up. One at 102 North Belmont avenue, where F. Carroll was robbed of $15 by two bandits, another at 1112 West Pico Boulevard, where C. K. Lim, proprietor, and two customers, Jose Villami of 915 Gratton street, and Mrs. Grace Mitchell of 1324 Bond street, were held up by two bandits and $85 taken from Lim, and the third at 7511 Sunset Boulevard, where A. F. Dalabar, manager, and A. Ducker, clerk, were bound with adhesive tape by two bandits and $150 taken from an office safe.

In the Betty Bolton Candy Shop at 5602 Santa Monica Boulevard, a lone bandit robbed Miss Emily Burd of $7, after threatening her with a revolver.

Drug stores were the scenes of two hold-ups. F. C. Eisenhauer, proprietor, and Jimmy Gregg, clerk, were held up by two bandits at 3526 West Washington Boulevard and robbed of $75. A lone bandit obtained $12 from H. G. Lippen in his pharmacy at 10862 Santa Monica Boulevard.

Service stations, as usual, failed to escape the marauders. At 4001 South Main street H. A. Barnett was robbed of $15 by a bandit, and at 5400 South Main street E. H. McNeill was held up by a bandit of similar description and robbed of $30.

In a clothing store at 5400 Santa Monica Boulevard, E. R. Meyer reported a lone bandit robbed him of $150 after threatening to shoot him when he attempted to argue with the robber.

Just as he parked his automobile near his home at 835 South Oxford street, Chester Reynolds was confronted by a bandit with an automatic pistol and robbed of $16.

A. J. Scott, president of the Policy Holders' Life Insurance Association, yielded $9 to a youthful bandit who held him up shortly after noon in his office in the I. W. Hellman Building. The robber posed as a prospective client and as Scott turned his back a moment in search of some specimen policies, the youth produced an automatic pistol and commanded his victim to turn over the cash. Scott gave detectives a good description of the bandit.

A bandit held up C. A. Beckenbridge in the latter's garage at the rear of 439 North Fuller street yesterday, taking $14.

Speeches were made by members of the Board of Supervisors, and William Davidson, county mechanical engineer, who was master of ceremonies. Entertainment was furnished by Kenneth Harlan.

Without Job, He Ends Life

Inability to find work is said to have been the reason W. H. Sumners, 52 years of age, ended his life with gas yesterday in a hotel room at 212 South Broadway. He was found in bed covered by a blanket, and a gas tube in his mouth.

The explanation was given by his son, Warren Sumner of Monrovia, who told police his father had gone to Los Angeles seeking work and had been greatly depressed at his failure to find it.

LIFE SENTENCE GIVEN SLAYER

Killer of Brother-in-Law Enters Guilty Plea

Story of Murder Detailed on Witness Stand

Victim's Head Crushed by Blows With Ax

Pleading guilty to the ax murder of his brother-in-law, J. C. Farmer, on October 3, last, William P. Sutton, 73 years of age, yesterday was sentenced to life imprisonment in San Quentin prison for first-degree murder after he had waived time for sentence in Superior Judge Schauer's court.

Upon entering the guilty plea Sutton took the stand and testified to enable the court to fix the degree of the crime. He declared that he killed Farmer because he had insulted him vilely. The crime occurred at 2610 Beach avenue, Venice.

According to Sutton, after Farmer had cursed him he left the house, took a short walk and returned, taking an ax from the garage as he re-entered the house. Sutton said he then struck Farmer over the head three times with the ax and cut his throat with a paring knife.

Earlier in the evening, Sutton declared, Farmer had ejected his wife from the house, forcing her to seek shelter with friends. This led to the argument between the two. The defendant also told the court that he had provided a home for Farmer for more than ten years and had tried to persuade him to cease his abuse of Mrs. Farmer.

John Hill, deputy Public Defender, who represented Sutton, and Willard Burgess, deputy District Attorney prosecuting the case, joined in asking Judge Schauer not to impose the death penalty.

OFFICERS SELECTED BY WILSHIRE COUNCIL

At the annual election yesterday at the Wilshire Community Council, a federation of twenty-one civic and business organizations in the western part of the city, Henry P. Leavitt, of the Ambassador District Property Owners Association, was elected chairman; Stanley Sayer of the West Adams Chamber of Commerce, first vice-chairman; B. J. Gallager of the Northwest Chamber of Commerce, second vice-chairman; O. W. Lord of the Vermontshire Association, third vice-chairman; F. O. Hammer of Greater Beverly Boulevard Association, fourth vice-chairman; H. A. Henry of the Western-Avenue-Uptown Chamber of Commerce, secretary, and Paul D. Robinson of the Westlake Business Association, treasurer.

A proposal to enact legislation to give to incorporated cities a share of the gasoline tax was discussed as a relief for the present special assessment evil.

STREET WORK ASKED

A request that improvement work be constructed in Franlie Drive, Hillrose street and Venors' street was filed with the City Council yesterday by the Sunland Improvement Association and referred to the City Engineer and the Public Works Committee.

ACTRESS ADMITS HER ENGAGEMENT

Jeanette MacDonald

Hollywood watches its romances closely but it was not until yesterday that Jeanette MacDonald, former New York stage actress and now in motion pictures, decided to admit her engagement to Robert Ritchie, artist's representative in the film colony. A large diamond ring gave away their secret.

It has been reported for more than a year the couple are betrothed and the rumors even went so far as saying they were married when Miss MacDonald made a recent vacation trip to the East.

"We certainly aren't married but we intend to be," Miss MacDonald said yesterday at the Fox Studio. "We have been engaged for some time but wanted to keep it a secret."

Miss MacDonald said they have no plans for the wedding but expect it will be in the near future.

FLY-BY-NIGHT AUCTION RACKET DEALT BLOW

The City Council yesterday adopted an emergency ordinance designed to call a halt to fly-by-night auctioneers over the Christmas holidays. Unless the establishment doing the auctioning has been operating one year, the auctioning of platinum, gold, silver, precious stones and jewelry is prohibited. The auctioneer must be an American citizen and a resident of Los Angeles one year.

DRILLING PERMITS FAVORED

The City Planning Commission yesterday recommended to the City Council that permits to drill for oil in Venice be granted E. M. Stanley on three properties and Rose Lieber on one.

M.-G.-M. SIGNS LILLIAN BOND

Stage Actress Will Perform in Film Production

Donald Cook Gets Part in Ruth Chatterton Vehicle

Ben Turpin Cast as Aviator in "Assorted Nuts"

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

Once more Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer is reaching out to Broadway for acting talent.

This time it is Lillian Bond, noted in several New York plays, who is to appear in pictures for M.-G.-M. Miss Bond is arriving in town tomorrow, and on Monday will undergo voice and screen tests for an important role in a new production not yet titled.

Up to two years ago, Miss Bond was a chorus girl with Earl Carroll's "Vanities." Edmund MacGregor saw her and decided she was good leading lady material. He placed her in a leading role in Elmer Harris's "Stepping Out," and she was at once a success. She played a lead afterward in "Follow Thru."

Her latest appearance was in Hammerstein's "Luana," a musicalized version of "The Bird of Paradise."

COOK PLAYS IN CHATTERTON FILM

RUTH CHATTERTON

Whether or not Paramount means to take over the contract of Donald Cook, Oregon college athlete, who lately signed with First National, the fact remains that the former organization has just engaged Cook to make his film debut in a notable role, according to the announcement of B. P. Schulberg.

The part is an important one in Ruth Chatterton's current starring vehicle, "New Morals," and is indeed the role which Lester Vail was to have played. Vail, we hear, is to be transferred to another production.

The athlete has had some stage experience, but none in pictures heretofore. He appeared as juvenile lead with Pauline Lord in "Spellbound," and with Madge Kennedy in "Paris Bound."

John Cromwell will direct the new production, according to the announcement. Paul Lukas has another of the leading male roles in the picture.

BEN TURPIN NOW WITH RADIO FILMS

BEN TURPIN

The eccentric-visioned Ben Turpin has done about all the athletic stunts in the black-and-blue comedies that could be expected of any one man.

Nevertheless, he is about to perform still another one. He has signed with Radio Pictures to play the role of a cross-eyed aviator in "Assorted Nuts," the current co-starring vehicle of Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey.

But not all unprepared does the valiant little comedian approach his job, for he has lately been taking aviation lessons, and declares himself quite ready and willing to carry on along that line in the interests of art.

Incidentally, Turpin's appearance in this film reunites the comedian with Director Eddie Kline, who formerly, when both were associated with Mack Sennett, guided Turpin's talents in many a lively comedy.

Stella Moore With Paramount

Stella Moore, former Broadway actress, is still another stage star who is being brought west by Paramount.

The young player has been assigned an important role in Ruth Chatterton's current starring vehicle, "New Morals," we learned yesterday.

Douglas Gilmore, juvenile, has also been cast for a leading role in the same picture.

Nat Carr With Radio

Nat Carr, noted Hebrew comedian, has just been signed by Radio. He will star in one of the Humanettes series, not titled. Various and sundry noted players have appeared in these pictures, including Walter Catlett.

Sam Hardy With Paramount

Paramount seems to be rounding up all the available noted comedians for "June Moon," despite the fact that the popular Jack Oakie is the star.

Now it is Sam Hardy who has just been signed for a leading comedy role in support of Oakie.

Formerly of the stage, Hardy made one of his first big hits with Warners in "On With the Show."

Stork Note

The stork yesterday visited the home of Leon d'Usseau, Radio Pictures music expert, and Ottola Nesmith, actress, bringing a baby boy. Already the child has been named Loring.

Harry Beresford in It

Harry Beresford, former Broadway actor and vaudeville headliner, has been signed by Paramount to play an important part in "The Haddocks," adapted from Donald Ogden Stewart's stories of the same name.

SHRINE CEREMONIAL TO DRAW LARGE CROWD

More than 5000 Shriners are expected to turn out tonight to honor their Potentate, Fred J. Wadley, Jr., at his final initiation ceremonial at Al Malaikah Temple. A large class of candidates will be put through some novel initiation "stunts."

POLICE STUNNED BY BOLD AUTO LIQUOR TRANSFER

Directly in front of the City Hall at Beverly Hills an astonished police sergeant and two detective lieutenants yesterday witnessed what is charged to have been either a case of hi-jacking or a transfer of liquor between bootleggers.

Sergt. Schubert and Detective Lieutenants Selvey and Carnihan declare their astonishment held them until they had seen two men transfer ten five-gallon cans of liquor from one automobile to another.

The sedan, in charge of two men, then started off and the now thoroughly galvanized police officials went in pursuit, their guns blazing at the tires of the liquor-laden car. At Pico street and Elvira avenue the fugitive car crashed into two parked cars and the chase was over.

Lester D. Taylor, 24 years of age, of 446 Rustic Drive, Beverly Hills, and George S. Paredes, the two occupants of the sedan, were taken into custody and booked on charges of Wright Act violation and suspicion of grand-theft auto. Paredes is said to have recently been released on $500 bail pending trial of the charge of violation of the narcotic law.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING INQUEST TO BE TODAY

Inquest into the death of William L. Craig, 52 years of age, who accidentally shot himself Thursday, is scheduled for this morning at the Coroner's office. Craig, according to police, shot himself through the heart while examining a revolver in his real estate office at 6059 Hollywood Boulevard.

HERO DOUBLES FOR OTHER MAN

Curwood Tale Offers Appeal of Impersonation

Bickford Plays Two Roles in Warner Feature

"River's End" Also Has Dual Opening Here

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT

Our old friend, the dual role, steps forward to take the bow once again. In "River's End," from the James Oliver Curwood story, Charles Bickford not only enacts Sergt. Conniston of the Royal Northwest Mounted, but he also impersonates John Keith, the fugitive, whom the sergeant captures. And upon their close resemblance—as in the great old days of the silents—depends the plot and no end of complications.

"River's End" is having a double showing at Warner Brothers' Hollywood and Downtown theaters, and is a good he-mannish affair with emphasis on romance and drama. Bickford especially does able work in two distinct characterizations—one the hard and determined police officer of the great open spaces, and the other the more pliable man who takes Conniston's place (after his death,) to escape the law's vengeance. As it happens, the law made a mistake in the identity of the culprit. However, Keith didn't realize that he was exonerated when he donned his dead captor's uniform and set about passing himself off for his double.

"River's End" is rather a satisfying sort of outdoor feature. It falls short of complete plausibility, and the ending, where the mounted police make the hero run the gauntlet for a lashing, is somewhat brutal. But aside from this, the film produces a number of intriguing situations.

You may remember the story from a previous production. If you do, it won't detract particularly from its interest in the dialogued medium. Michael Curtiz has very efficiently directed the picture, and the adaptation by Charles Kenyon is generally acceptable.

The film fails to convince, chiefly, where the scout, played by J. Farrell McDonald, is won over to Keith's side, and goes to a lot of trouble to help him carry on his masquerade. This is largely due to the sketchy way in which the development of the understanding between them is treated. Also the way that everybody is deceived by Keith might induce skepticism. However, that, after all, is the plot idea, and if you want to believe it, then it's so.

Bickford achieves, perhaps, his best portrayal since "Dynamite," owing partly to a large opportunity. The double-role portion is clevely done both in the acting, and technically. The romantic episodes in which Bickford appears seem to evidence a more careful shading in his acting than he has heretofore revealed, and in that respect his work is better than "Dynamite."

Evalyn Knapp in this picture grows more engaging from scene to scene. At first, the impression she makes photographically is not entirely satisfying, but later improves, while she brings much charm to her portrayal in its entirety. Additional experience should give to her an unusually favorable place, because of her apparent talent.

McDonald portrays his character exceptionally well, despite that the role is weakly drawn. It might be well to reiterate that the character is poorly developed for the same reason that his attitude toward the hero is—too sketchy.

ZaSu Pitts is funny in the usual ZaSu manner, which is sure fire. Junior Coghlan, an excellent boy actor, is likeable and natural as Mickey. David Torrence, Walter McCrail and Tom Santschi are others.

Two short films — neither very noteworthy — are on the program. "The Painter," with Frank Orth, has a good wind-up to commend it to some extent.

ACTING OF LATIN STAR MARKS FILM

Senora Carmen Larrabeiti Gives Emotional Portrayal in "Toda una Vida"

BY SALVADOR BAGUEZ

Signalized by the intensely sensitive emotional acting of Senora Carmen Larrabeiti, "Toda Una Vida," Paramount's latest importation in Spanish from its studios in Joinville, near Paris, opened yesterday at the California International Theater.

It is Miss Larrabeiti who dominates constantly throughout the unfoldment of this Spanish version of "Sarah and Son," by Timothy Shea. She essays the role originally portrayed so successfully by Ruth Chatterton in the English version, and while she gives a similar interpretation, at times it seems she surpasses it in dramatic intensity and emotional strength.

Students of Spanish should see this picture for it will afford them a rare opportunity to enjoy the perfect enunciation of Senora Larrabeiti. The recording is particularly good and undoubtedly has helped the production as a whole.

Picturegoers are probably familiar with this story of a young impoverished mother whose despicable husband steals their baby boy and takes him to a wealthy family, only to see the mother regain him after a series of dramatic happenings.

Very good performances are contributed by some of the members of the supporting cast, notably Luisito Pena, who portrays the part of the adolescent son. He gives an excellent and emotionally powerful interpretation for a boy of his age. Tony D'Aigy, Felix De Pomes and Carlos Diaz De Mendoza all do commendable work.

A comedy that is riotously funny and a distinct feature on the program is "Tiembla y Titubea," in which Laurel and Hardy again demonstrate their linguistic ability by speaking Spanish. A Tom Terris travelogue and a news reel complete the bill.

Play Promises Humor and Romance

Ann Teaman and Raymond Hackett

In a scene from "Up Pops the Devil," which Belasco and Curran will present at the Belasco Theater starting Christmas night. Greenwich Village is the drama's locale.

CIRCLE BOOKS "LIGHTNIN'"

The Carthay Circle Theater announces that beginning January 1 the house will offer Will Rogers in "Lightnin'" as its feature attraction. The talking screen translation of this stage play is declared to be the best vehicle in which the inimitable comedian has ever appeared. As the lazy and highly imaginative "Lightnin'" Bill Jones, the comedian is in a role that fits his individual style of humor like the proverbial glove.

One of the most compact aggregations of sterling talent ever assembled for a production will be seen in support of Rogers in "Lightnin'", it is said. Such players as Louise Dresser, Helen Cohan, Joel McCrea, J. M. Kerrigan, Sharon Lynn, Joyce Compton, Jason Robards, Rex Bell, Goodee Montgomery, Frank Campeau, Luke Cosgrove and Ruth Warren appear in the yarn of alimony and matrimony.

"Min and Bill," the current attraction at the Carthay Circle, will end its engagement with a gala New Year's Eve midnight matinee. Holiday reservations for "Min and Bill" indicate a last-minute rush on the part of the theater-going public to witness the Marie Dressler and Wallace Beery vehicle before the close of its run, according to the Carthay management.

JOE BROWN TO STAR AT EL CAPITAN

Henry Duffy Offers New Bill, "Elmer the Great," Starting Tomorrow

Joe E. Brown, plus Ring Lardner's humor, is the combination promised theater-goers tomorrow at El Capitan Theater where Henry Duffy will present "Elmer the Great."

Adapted from one of the humorist's short stories, "Hurry Kane," "Elmer, the Great" was one of George M. Cohan's Broadway successes, and the role of the boob ball player who accidentally becomes a national hero is said to be ideally suited to Brown, who makes his first personal stage appearance in Hollywood.

In the supporting cast are Emerson Treacy, Mia Marvin, Ruth Matteson, Ben Taggart, Kernan Cripps, Mitchell Ingraham, Jane Darwell, Jean Reno, Lottie Williams, Jack McGee, Ross Chetwynd, Edward Cassidy, Joseph De Stefani and others.

"Michael and Mary," co-starring Dale Winter and Henry Duffy, closes tonight.

"Paid" Proves Popular Film at Criterion

In line with reports that local theatrical business is taking a decided spurt on account of the holiday spirit, the Criterion Theater announces that Joan Crawford's vehicle, "Paid," is proving an unusually fine box-office attraction.

JOAN CRAWFORD

The picture is declared by Fred Cruise, manager of the film house, to be one of the most popular productions to be shown at the Criterion for some time.

Miss Crawford is enabled to display her talents along dramatic lines in "Paid," it is said. With her are Robert Armstrong, Marie Prevost, George Cooper, Kent Douglass and John Miljan.

A short subject program is also included on the current Criterion bill. A Silly Symphony comedy heads the list.

Stage Player Also Has Parts Before Camera

Frank Morgan, erstwhile stage star who is seen in "Fast and Loose," the feature picture now being shown at the Million Dollar Theater, has had a busy season. Morgan has been under contract to Paramount for only four months and has already played four roles.

The actor was captured for the talkies while at the height of his stage success in "Topaze." He has played film parts in "Dangerous Nan McGrew," "Queen High," and "Laughter."

In addition to the regular performance, the Million Dollar will present tonight a midnight premiere of an Italian production, "The Queen of the Spartans."

VEHICLE OF TWO COMICS ANNOUNCED

Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey Costar in Next Feature at Orpheum

"Hook, Line and Sinker," costarring vehicle of Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey, will start a run at the Orpheum Theater on Christmas morning, according to an announcement. The Picture will also mark the first anniversary of the Orpheum as a motion-picture theater.

ROBERT WOOLSEY

The incoming Radio feature is concerned with the mad adventures of the two funny men. Dorothy Lee, as usual, provides the chief romantic interest as Wheeler's girl friend. Woolsey's love-making is lavished upon the ample Jobyna Howland.

Ralf Harolde, menace of "Check and Double Check" and "Dixiana," has a leading role, and others in the cast are George Marion and Natalie Moorhead. "Hook, Line and Sinker" was directed by Edward Cline from a story by Tim Whelan. William LeBaron is the producer.

Former Favorite Enacts Role in Chaplin Picture

For several years a favorite, Harry Myers returns to the screen after a long absence in "City Lights," Charlie Chaplin's new vehicle which will have its world premiere coincident with the debut of the new Los Angeles Theater early in January.

Appearing in one of the important parts in the film as an eccentric millionaire, Myers is said to do some of his finest work. The actor first gained note a number of seasons past in the title role of "The Connecticut Yankee."

In anticipation of the premiere, the Los Angeles is now being rushed to completion. It is situated on Broadway, between Sixth and Seventh streets.

Local Debut of Actress Slated for Christmas

Frances Woodbury, although well known behind the footlights in the East, makes her local debut Christmas Day in "Stepping Sisters" at the Hollywood Playhouse.

Miss Woodbury, who shares honors in the comedy with May Boley and Kathryn Givney, has several successful characterizations to her credit in New York.

FILM GAMUT RUN

Virginia Sale, screen comedienne, who at present is playing in "Many a Slip," which Vin Moore is directing for Universal, has played the range of rural and night life, office and factory, society and slum characterizations for the screen.

POEM USED AS THEME FOR FILM

Scott's "Lady of Lake," Now at Filmarte Made in England

BY JACK COOPER

The major merit of "The Lady of the Lake," the screen feature which opened at the Filmarte Theater last night, is that it was filmed in the locale of which Sir Walter Scott wrote. Also, it provides another glimpse of Percy Marmont, who shone so brightly for a while in American films.

As produced by an English group, this picture suffers somewhat from a lack of spontaniety in action and direction, and a deficiency in imagination on the part of the cameraman. There is a certain idyllic beauty suffused throughout and a soft flow of sequence which comes as the result of judicial cutting and editing. These help somewhat to compensate for the static angles which the camera takes. An occasional brief and startling close-up, too, aids the film in escaping condemnation as a series of standardized medium shots.

The story portrayed is very simple and acted without any histrionic departure from the simplicity of the background as a whole. It is the old tale of the feud between King James and the outlawed Lord Douglas, who takes refuge with Roderick Dhu. The daughter of Douglas makes the acquaintance of a stranger whom she befriends and who (this is the surprise climax of the film) repays her by saving the lives of her father and lover.

The daughter, who is the immortal Lady of the Lake, is portrayed by Benita Hume. She gives a subdued performance which is quite in keeping with the work done by the rest of the cast. Percy Marmont is outdone by Lawson Butt, who, in the role of Roderick Dhu, walks away with what honors there are in the picture by sheer force of personality.

The Scottish scenery and the famous Loch have beauty all their own, a lot of which the camera fails to portray adequately. But with all the faults the film possesses, it has a haunting something which helps redeem it. Sound is synchronized, but there is no dialogue.

The balance of the program consists of a generous number of short subjects, including a Ford Sterling talkie comedy and Dudley Murphy's reel of plastic design titled "Ballet Mecanique," in which the camera man tries to do on celluloid what Picasso does with paint.

VIGOROUS PLAYLETS ACTED AT WRITERS'

"Women Without Men" Heads List and Displays Considerable Creative Effort

BY KATHERINE T. VON BLON

The joie de vivre of a youthful creative center was proclaimed with auspicious flourish at the seasonal opening of the Writers Club Play Nights. There were a vigor and a bold ribaldry which savoured of the flesh pots, and a modern downrightness. This, in its desire for true perspectives, presented at times not a spurious but rather a defaced currency of action which might even be accused of offending the fastidious.

However, one must somehow effect a reconciliation with qualities which are inherent in this age, and if sincerity be the goal and violent truth the proper esthetic canon, then these plays, and in particular "Women Without Men," by Lenore Coffee and William Cowen, deserve the palm for masterful creative effort.

The opening playlet, "The Artist's Model," by George Patrick, provided admirable material for the exploitation of the ample talents of Tempe Pigott, who revealed an incorrigible capacity for sly humor and a delectable Cockney accent. Chester Dudley as the artist, and Gloria Gordon brought excellent support. The play itself was a cleverly put together affair.

The volatile Shaw in "The Dark Lady of the Sonnets" elects to take a fling at no less a personage than the immortal bard himself. The usual pungent and febrile flippancy of the individual Shavian offering is not lacking. Indeed, Mr. Shaw punctuates this Elizabethan comedy with a gay sauce which captivates through the delicately ironic thrusts. Helen Freeman, Perry Ivins, Lionel Belmore and Carmelita Geraghty took part in the piece.

"Women Without Men" was a stark and terrible moment in a woman's ambulance unit during the war, written with the racy bravado of a Rabelais, yet dealing with life in a veritable passion of coherence. Strange bed-fellows war brings. Through the exigencies of conflict women of the haute monde find themselves closely associated with their sisters of easy virtue and "Rosie O'Grady and the Colonel's lady" prove akin. Courage here is a steady implication and the colonel's lady meets death in a white flame of renunciation. Mary Forbes brought fine reticences and truth to the captain of the unit. Cecil Cunningham, Virginia Kami, Tina Marshal and Andree Tourneur were expert in delineation.

"How Firm a Foundation" by France Goldwater, an effusion about club women, was rather amateurish in caliber, though there were amusing lines. Marjorie Esme Bennet and James Bush headed the really excellent cast.

New Year's Eve Frolic Planned

The next, and last for this year, midnight show for the Chinese Theater will be staged New Year's Eve.

Plans are being completed for a frolic of unusual merriment, with special acts augmenting the regular stage show, and souvenirs for patrons. The regular program features Marlene Dietrich in "Morocco," with Gary Cooper and Adolphe Menjou, and the Fanchon and Marco atmospheric prologue, "Moorish Panorama."

LEE RETURNS

Rowland V. Lee, now free-lancing as a director after five years with Paramount, has returned from New York with rights or options to several new plays and stories.

CHURCHES HAIL CHRISTMAS

Pageants and Musical Programs to Augment Sermons on Christ's Nativity

The greatest event in the history of the world, the birth of Jesus Christ, will be celebrated in Los Angeles by hundreds of thousands of Christians of all denominations at musical and speaking programs to be given at various churches tomorrow and throughout next week.

Sermons appropriate to the season will be heard at all churches tomorrow morning and evening and hundreds of the churches have arranged for elaborate musical programs which will include popular cantatas, dealing with the Nativity.

DR. HERBERT. B. SMITH

A beautiful and unique carol service will be conducted at Immanuel Presbyterian Church tomorrow evening when the vested choir, led by Frans Hoffman, will enter the church in processional form, bearing lighted candles into the darkened temple. Dr. Herbert Booth Smith, the pastor, will preach in the morning on "This Day" and in the evening on "Ancient and Modern Christmases."

DR. JOHN SNAPE

"At Bethlehem, on the Spot Where Christ Was Born" is the subject of a sermon to be preached by Dr. John Snape tomorrow morning at Temple Baptist Church. In the evening Dr. Snape will preach on "Nazareth, the Boyhood Home of Jesus" and the choir will sing Protheroe's cantata "King of Kings," under direction of Hugo Kirchhofer. An organ recital by Dr. Ray Hastings will precede the choral numbers.

DR. GEORGE DAVIDSON

"The Incarnation" will be discussed by Dr. George Davidson tomorrow morning at St. John's Episcopal Church. At 4 p.m., Dr. Davidson will address the children on "The Spirit of Christmas" and in the evening he will discuss "Death, Judgment, Heaven and Hell." Christmas Eve services will begin at 10:30 p.m. with a program by the Julius Bierlich Symphonique Ensemble. At 11 p.m., following Holy Communion, an elaborate musical program will be given. On Christmas Day Holy Communion will be observed at 7 a.m. and a musical program will be given at 10 a.m.

DR. E. E. HELMS

"Christmas in Bethlehem" is the theme of a sermon to be preached by Dr. E. E. Helms tomorrow morning at First Methodist Church. In the evening, the musical pageant "Coming of the King," given last Sunday, will be repeated. The doors will be opened at 6:15 p.m.

REV. WALTER BLOSSOM

Dr. Irving Spencer, rector of St. Matthias Church on Normandie avenue, announces that the Christmas season will open at that church with the singing of midnight mass at 11:30 p.m. next Wednesday. Mozart's Seventh Mass will be given. The "Gloria in Excelsis" by Pergolesi, "Noel" by Gounod and old English carols will be sung. The music will be repeated at the high mass at 10:30 a.m. Christmas Day when a sermon will be preached by Rev. Walter G. Blossom.

DR. HUGH WALKER

Elaborate musical programs will feature the services tomorrow morning and evening at First Presbyterian Church. David Wright, organist, will direct the singing and Miss Ruth List will be violin accompanist. In the morning Dr. Hugh K. Walker will preach on "If I Had only One Christmas Sermon to Preach," the topic for evening being "Learning Life-Lessons in the Light of the Christmas Candle."

OTHER CHURCHES

The first Christmas in their beautiful new church on Berendo street will be celebrated by members of Trinity Episcopal Church, with Rev. Herbert V. Harris, the rector, in charge. The Christmas program will include choral eucharist and address at 11:30 p.m. Christmas Eve, and similar services at 10 a.m. Christmas Day.

Corner-stone laying ceremonies for St. Thomas Episcopal Church on Hollywood Boulevard will be conducted at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow, with Bishop Stevens in charge. An elaborate musical program will be rendered and addresses will be made by outstanding ministers of many denominations.

"Every Man an Artist" is the subject of a sermon to be preached by Dr. Charles Drake tomorrow morning at Magnolia Avenue Christian Church. At 5:30 p.m. the choir will sing the cantata "Emanuel."

Dr. Frank B. Fagerburg will be the speaker at the meeting of the Los Angeles Ministerial Association at 10 a.m. next Monday at First Methodist Church.

West Adams Presbyterian Church, Dr. W. E. Roberts, pastor. Morning topic, "Finding the Child;" evening, cantata, "Cradle of Bethlehem."

Manchester Avenue Lutheran Church, Rev. J. T. Peters, pastor. Morning topic, "Christmas When a Man Is Ninety."

Amanda Chapel, Carthay Center, Rev. C. T. Murphy, pastor. Morning topic, "Christmas Secrets." Christmas Day services will be conducted at 12:01 a.m., 7.45 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. A party for children will be given at 7 p.m. on the 26th inst.

Figueroa Christian Church, Rev. J. M. Applegate, pastor. Morning theme, "The Messiah;" evening, musical program.

Mt. Calvary Evangelical Lutheran Church, Rev. William Hohberger, pastor. German services 9 a.m.; English services 11 a.m. and evening.

Glendale Broadway Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Dr. Henry Alkire, pastor. Morning theme, "A Babe and a Manger;" evening, Christmas pageant.

American Lutheran Church, 5179 West Adams Boulevard, Rev. C. L. V. Dozer, pastor. Morning topic, "The Lord is at Hand;" evening, Christmas program with sermon by Mr. Dozer.

Highland Park Christian Church, Rev. A. L. Hill, pastor. Morning theme, "The Father's Love Gift;" evening, "Telling the Story."

Highland Park Lutheran Church, Rev. W. G. Ruehle, pastor. Morning topic, "John the Baptist;" evening, children's Christmas program. Another Christmas festival will be conducted Christmas Day at 6 p.m.

The choir of the Welsh Presbyterian Church will sing the cantata, "Chimes of the Holy Night," at the church, Twelfth and Valencia streets, at 7 p.m. tomorrow. E. W. Davies will direct the singing, with Mrs. O. T. Thomas at the organ. Dr. R. H. Jones will preach in the morning and evening.

A Christmas program will be given by the young people of Messiah Congregational Church at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow. At 11 a.m., Rev. E. D. Gaylord, will preach on "The Heart of Christmas" and the choir will sing the cantata "The Adoration." A candle light pageant of the Nativity will be given in the evening.

Calvary Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. S. E. Winebrenner, pastor. Morning theme, "The Angelic Anthem;" evening, musical program.

Rabbi E. F. Magnin of Temple B'nai B'rith will preach at 10:30 a.m. today on "Jewish History and Literature."

Hollywood Congregational Church, Dr. J. H. Lash, pastor. Morning theme, "The Deeper Meaning of Christmas;" evening, cantata "The Story of Christmas." The Christmas White Gift Party will be given next Monday evening.

Under the auspices of Our Brotherhood, Dr. E. E. Thomas will speak at Music Arts Hall tomorrow morning on "The Emerging of Humanity from the Chrysalis."

An address on "Jesus as a Myth and a Reality," by Ernest Caldecott, and a musical program which will include quartet numbers by members of the A Capella Choir, will feature the services at First Unitarian Church tomorrow morning.

Vermont-avenue Presbyterian Church, Dr. J. R. Macartney, pastor. Morning topic, "The World Stretching Eager Arms to Welcome our Emperor, Jesus Christ;" evening, musical program under direction of Prof. J. B. Trowbridge.

Mt. Olive Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. H. I. Rasmus, Jr., pastor. Morning topic, "A Savior, Christ, the Lord;" evening, Christmas music.

All Souls' Congregational Church, Dr. C. F. Aked, pastor. Morning topic, "The Star of Bethlehem,

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

Practical Pointers

A fork is the best utensil with which to blend mayonnaise.

A tablespoonful of sugar to a gallon of water when rinsing the organdie dress will give it a body without being too stiff.

It is not only more comfortable to keep the toenails cut short, but it is a most economical measure in these days of sheer hosiery.

Wash and dry the electric washer and wringer rolls when the laundry is finished. A little care will make the washing apparatus last twice as long.

Bargain Marketing

The housewife who can market without counting every penny usually markets early for the week-end, but Saturday night is frequently a Godsend to the woman to whom every cent counts. She frequently gets a bargain in a returned or canceled cut of meat, a reduction in the price of perishable vegetables and fruits that could not possibly occur earlier in the day.

A Kitchen Help

A small table on castors is a decided asset to the kitchen. It may be rolled over to the sink when dishes are being dried to hold the dry ones. It may be rolled close to the table and add more space for the housewife who is doing a deal of cooking. Its uses would be found countless in the everyday work of the workshop of the home.

The Spreading of Colds

It is said if the table silver in the house where one person has a bad cold is boiled once a day it will aid greatly in preventing the cold from spreading through the house. Tines of forks are said to be germ carriers in particular, unless carefully washed and scalded.

HEN THE SANDMAN COMES

by THORTON W. BURGESS

“I didn't see you at all,” exclaimed Stumpy

replied Jumper dryly. “The safest thing for me to do was to sit perfectly still, which I did. I could just feel Hooty looking right through me. That is what he did, yet didn't see me. It seemed as if I must run, but I had sense enough not to. So he flew away and I'm still here.”

Stumpy sighed. “I wish,” said he, “that I had a white coat. It must be wonderful not to be afraid.”

“Who isn't afraid?” demanded Jumper.

“Why you weren't when Hooty the Owl came over here. You've just said that all you had to do was to sit perfectly still,” replied Stumpy.

“True, that is all I had to do, but don't think that was easy,” replied Jumper. “I never was more scared in all my life. I wished that I could jump into the water the way you did and thus be safe.”

“But,” protested Stumpy, “when all the world is white like this I can be seen for a long distance. It isn't safe for me to move more than a jump or two from open water. You—why, you can go where you please and disappear just by sitting still. I wish I had a white coat.”

Jumper slowly shook his head. “No you don't. You only think you do,” said he. “You are filled with envy and I know of nothing more foolish than envy. You are young and you have much to learn about the Great World.”

“Just the same I wish I had a white coat,” persisted Stumpy.

Chef Wyman's RECIPES

Every Friday at 2 o'clock Mrs. A. L. Wyman will conduct a free class and demonstration of good cookery in the lecture room of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

SUET PUDDING

Mix one cupful of fine white bread crumbs with two-thirds of a cupful of boiling cream and let it stand for twenty minutes. When cool add to the bread crumbs one-half a cupful of finely ground suet that has been mixed with two tablespoonfuls of sifted flour, one-half a cupful of stale cake or cookie crumbs, one-half a cupful of chopped seeded raisins, one-half a cupful of finely chopped candied cherries, one tablespoonful of grated lemon rind, and one teaspoonful of nutmeg. Add to this the well-beaten yolks of four eggs and half a cupful of orange juice or cooking sherry, pour the mixture into a well-oiled pudding mold, cover tightly and allow to steam for about an hour and one-half. Serve with either orange or a sherry wine custard sauce.

LAMB CURRY

Cut three pounds of neck, breast or shoulder of lamb into two-inch pieces, place in a saucepan, cover with boiling water and bring to a boil. Drain off the water, place the meat in a saucepan with one small onion, that has had pressed in it two whole cloves, one stalk of celery, one-half a bay leaf, and cover with boiling water. Bring to a boil and simmer the meat until tender, drain off the stock and save. Place the meat in a warm dish, heat six tablespoonfuls of butter in a saute pan, add one chopped raw onion, the white part of one leek chopped, one tablespoonful of chopped parsley, one-half a bay leaf, and one sliced clove of garlic, and simmer until the onion is soft. Add two tablespoonfuls of flour, mixed with two tablespoonfuls of curry powder and a little of the lamb broth, add this to the mixture with four cupfuls of the lamb broth, one peeled, cored and sliced tart apple, one sliced banana that has been fried in butter and a half a cupful of Indian chutney. Allow this mixture to boil for twenty minutes, rub it through a fine sieve, add the cooked lamb, a seasoning of salt, and reheat the mixture. Place a border of rice around a deep hot platter, pour in the curry, sprinkle with chopped parsley, serve with chopped pickles, toasted Bombay duck, chopped hard-boiled eggs, hot Indian chutney and sweet Indian chutney.

OYSTER TARTTINES

Cut six quarter-inch-thick slices of toast bread in large rounds, and toast a light brown on both sides, drain two cupfuls of California oysters, cover them with boiling water, and allow to cook for one minute, then drain through a sieve. Place the oysters in a bowl and mix with them one teaspoonful of French mustard, one teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce and a seasoning of salt and paprika. Spread the oysters evenly over the rounds of toast, cover with buttered bread crumbs and set in a moderate oven for five minutes, garnish with lemon slices and parsley.

Mrs. Wyman does not reply to letters, but requests for recipes are answered in the department, PRACTICAL RECIPES, published every Friday.—(All rights to reproduce reserved by A. L. Wyman.)

Quicker and Better Work

When lining a baking dish with paste for a breakfast pie, cut a piece of the paste from the bottom about the size of a quarter. Put the meat in as usual. The pie will take an hour less to cook than if lined straight across the pan.

Quickly Dried

If you wish to wear a certain pair of silk stockings and they must be washed first, a quick way of drying is to wring them out as dry as possible and then roll tightly in a Turkish towel for five minutes. Then hang in an airy place and they will dry very quickly.

A Better Flavor

Coffee has a much more delightful flavor if allowed to stand for a few minutes after being removed from the fire and then poured into the cups. A little cold water poured into the spout also has a settling effect.

More Flavor

To bring out the full flavor of your tea, add a lump of sugar when you put the tea in to brew. The sugar opens out the leaves and makes the tea much stronger.

SEWAGE RELIEF APPEAL VOICED

Health Commission Pleads for Immediate Action

Council Asked for Funds to Remedy Situation

Overflow Declared Backing Up Into Many Bathtubs

By unanimous vote the Los Angeles Health Commission went on record yesterday in favor of immediate remedy for sewage conditions in half a dozen localities where it is declared an emergency exists because untreated sewage is blocked by inadequate facilities and the overflow is running into storm drains and endangering the health of the community.

The commission urged that the City Council immediately provide an appropriation to construct by-passes for temporary correction of the situation, and that the city vote on a bond issue at the primary election next spring to obtain funds for a permanent remedy.

President Harvey and Commissioners Kleinberger, Stevens and Boos discussed the situation with a representative of the City Engineer's office. In a number of localities the sewage system, constructed for a scattered population, has become inadequate because of the great growth in the number of homes, apartments, hotels and business houses.

The result, according to information given the commission, is that sewage is backing up into bathtubs of expensive apartments, hotels, homes and markets.

The commissioner pointed out that the $6,000,000 bond issue for a remedy, voted on in the last election, got a 62½ per cent vote, and was defeated only because of the defeat of the power-bond issue. Voted on by itself in the next election, the commissioners are of the opinion that the bond issue can get the necessary two-thirds vote.

NUDE DANCE CASE RULING POSTPONED

Four Girls Taken in Raid at Hollywood Stag Show Fight Vagrancy Charges

Whether performing a nude dance before nearly 400 men constitutes vagrancy under California law will be decided by Municipal Judge Eagan on January 5, next.

In his court yesterday Ruth Scott, Isabella Clemons, Dolores Moreno and Ruth Williams, arrested in a police raid at 1025 North Highland avenue some time ago, were on trial on a charge of vagrancy. Officers Richardson, Armstrong, Partridge and Anderson testified that three of the defendants, during individual dances, removed everything except necklaces. Miss Williams, they said, started to dance, but left the floor before finishing. Nearly 400 spectators were arrested at the same time, according to the officers, most of whom were fined $5 each for vagrancy in night court.

Philip Krasne, defense attorney moved to dismiss the charges on the ground that a single indecent act does not constitute vagrancy under California law. Judge Eagan continued the case until January 5, next, for decision on the motion.

VETERANS PICK OFFICERS

The annual election of Unit 107, United Veterans of the Republic, was held last night at Patriotic Hall and the following officers for the ensuing year were chosen: Commander, George W. Rochester; senior vice-commander, Denis J. Murphy; junior vice-commander, Clare Woolwine; adjutant, Fred Frank; quartermaster, Dr. D. E. Foster. A public installation will be conducted January 20. Capt. A. C. Jewell is chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Your Baby and Mine

by MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

This department offers leaflets on weaning and feeding the child from 6 weeks to 6 years, prenatal care and diet for the nursing mother, constipation, eczema, outfits for the new baby, sleeping, walking, teething, thumb sucking, ammoniacal urine, bed wetting, training in cleanly habits, periods of nursing, cod liver oil, orange juice, hives, worms, vomiting, refractory children, prune juice, lime water, rupture, styes and boils and cradle cap. Before asking a personal question about one of these subjects, it is better to send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the leaflet you need. If your particular problem is not covered in the above list, Mrs. Eldred will be glad to give you a personal reply.

SHADING BABY'S EYES WHEN HE HAS SUNBATHS

Immediately after sunbaths for babies, even during the winter, flew into prominence, mothers began to ask how the baby's eyes could be protected. It is taken for granted that the child should not be permitted to lie in the sun with his eyes unshaded.

The most rigid opinions about the dangers of sunlight have been somewhat modified. Now it is believed that a sleeping baby can lie in the sun for the duration of his sunbath without injury to his eyes because the eyelid protects the eye. Also, if he lies with his feet away from the sun, there will be natural shadow cast by the head and forehead that will be protective.

FOR WAKEFUL BABY

If baby is awake and restless, the mother will have to sit by him patiently holding a newspaper or magazine to shade his face. As baby lies on his tummy for half of the duration of his sunbath, there isn't such an ordeal as it would seem.

I think, “Mother,” that this is the sort of advice your friend was given at the hospital, but she interpreted it more loosely. Good sense would tell mothers that babies could not lie staring at the sun.

CHILD PALE AND RESTLESS

“My baby is nineteen months old and weighs twenty-eight pounds,” writes Constant Reader. “She walked at eleven months, was clean at thirteen and had all her teeth at fifteen months. She is very bright and says almost everything. She is very pale though and has large circles under her eyes. She would play all night if I would let her. She has always slept poorly.

“This so wears me out that I know I am cranky with her in daytime. How much should she weigh and what makes her pale and restless?”

Her weight is very good for her age, and also her mental development. If she had twenty teeth at fifteen months, it is certainly remarkable. Few children get the last four of the baby set before the end of the second or beginning of the third year. Count them again; I imagine you'll find less than twenty.

HAVE EXAMINATION

Of course, there is something very wrong with the child's diet or habits when she is capable of staying up all night. Either she sleeps too long in the afternoon or there is some unusual nervous excitement that is causing her to react this way. Rings under the eyes may indicate either fatigue or malnutrition, or both. My advice would be to have the child looked over by a pediatrist.

You may have my leaflets on “Hours of Sleep,” “Preschool Schedule,” “Reasons for Sleeplessness” and “Week's Menu from Two to Four Years,” which should give you some idea of how to arrange her day, her diet, and her naps, so that she will be ready and willing to go to bed at night. It is possible, too, that you yourself keep her out some nights. In that case it is quite natural that she wouldn't be sleepy at any earlier hour.

Which They Saw in the East, now Shining Resplendent in the West;” evening, program of music and addresses.

Mrs. Leila Castberg, pastor of the Church of Divine Power, will preach at Belasco Theater tomorrow morning on “The Healing Christ.”

Swami Paramananda will be in charge of services tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Ananda-Ashrama, La Crescenta, and in the evening at 745 West Adams street. A Christmas service will be conducted at the Ashrama at 4 p.m. next Wednesday.

Bramacharee Nerode and Swami Dhirananda will be in charge of services at 3 p.m. tomorrow at Mt. Washington Center, Highland Park.

Adjt. Frank Howell will be in charge of services tomorrow morning and evening at Salvation Army Temple.

Dr. Willsie Martin will preach at Wilshire M. E. Church in the morning on “Star Led.” A Christmas pageant will be given in the evening.

Trinity Methodist Church, Rev. R. P. Shuler, pastor. Morning and evening services will be conducted. At 3 p.m. the Los Angeles Choral Union will sing “The Messiah.” In the evening, following the White Christmas service, the pageant, “The Nativity,” will be presented.

Mayor and Son Go to Mexico

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Dec. 19. S. R. Bowen, Mayor of this city, and his son Paul, a student in the Santa Ana Junior College, left yesterday for the wilds of Mexico. The father and son will travel to Sonora, where the Yaqui Indians live.

The Mayor will look after his mining interests there and then visit Lower California. He and his companion will cruise the gulf and the Pacific Ocean in quest of game fish and return home shortly after the first of the year. Mrs. Bowen has gone to San Francisco, where she will spend the holiday season with her sister.

WOMEN'S BREAKFAST CLUB TO FEED NEEDY

Approximately 1000 needy families will be supplied with food and clothing for the Christmas holidays as the result of the more than $250 raised yesterday at a meeting of the Women's Breakfast Club, Ltd. The money was turned over by Mrs. Robert D. Pearson, vice-president of the club, to Mrs. Elizabeth Holbrook, chairman of the World's Golden Rule Plan organization, who keeps on file a list of needy families in the city. Members of the breakfast club are also providing food and clothing to be sent out in baskets on Christmas morning.

IOWANS MAKE PLANS FOR ANNUAL BANQUET

The Iowa Association of Southern California will hold its annual reception, dinner and program Saturday evening, the 27th inst., at the Chamber of Commerce, Judge William Hazlett, president, announced yesterday. The affair will mark the eighty-fourth anniversary of Iowa's admission to the Union. Hamlin Garland, a native of Iowa and dean of American letters, will be the principal speaker. Lieutenant-Governor-elect Merriam also will give a talk.

DISMISSAL ENDS SUIT AGAINST MOROSCO

Suit against Walter Morosco, theatrical producer, for $432 for stage furnishings for a Long Beach theater was dismissed by Municipal Judge Bullock yesterday. Morosco and attorneys for the Bonded Credit Service, which sued him, told the court they had compromised.

HEARING DEFERRED

Superior Judge Schauer yesterday deferred until the 29th inst. the probation hearings of Claude Willeford and Lowell M. Abbott. The two defendants have pleaded guilty to a charge of robbing R. T. Rickaby of Pasadena and Miss Victoria Rico of Flintridge. They also face trial on a charge as assaulting Miss Rico at the time of the robbery. Disposition of this charge will be made at the time of the probation hearing.

BAINE GOES UNDER KNIFE

Col. Harry M. Baine, president of the Hollywood Boulevard Association, underwent a successful operation yesterday afternoon at the California Hospital to correct an injury to his right eye caused some time ago by a sliver of glass from the accidental breaking of his eyeglasses. He is expected to be able to leave the hospital by Christmas.

STUDENTS TO HAVE PARTY

Announcement was made today that more than 200 students of the Lipson School of Costume Designing, at 3142 Wilshire Boulevard, will be entertained the 23rd inst. at a Christmas party in which Joseph Weisberg, 92 years of age, thought to be Los Angeles' first tailor, will act as Santa Claus. The students will provide entertainment.

COACH JONES TO BE GUEST

Howard Jones, football coach, will be the guest of honor at the Engineers' Club stag dinner this evening and will present a technical paper on football engineering.

There will be practical demonstrations of the theory of probabilities rather than discussions of the scientific phases of the subject of higher mathematics.

German Federal Railways have installed a new system for cleaning passenger cars by which the coaches are run into huge air-tight cylinders into which is pumped a strong disinfectant gas to kill all germs.

Peru's water-power resources are estimated at 4,500,000 horsepower.

BOTTLES IN AUTO HELD NO CRIME

Empty Containers Ruled Not Possession Evidence in Appealed Case

Many empty bottles do not a bootlegger make, the Appellate Department, Superior Court, held yesterday in reversing the conviction of Frank Manzi on a possession charge. Federal officers found two cases of liquor in a public garage on Valencia street, and a surveillance was made. Manzi was not present then, but subsequently drove in with some empty bottles in the rear of his car. He was tried, and found guilty of possession. Municipal Judge Frederickson sentenced him to pay a fine of $150 or serve sixty days in jail.

Superior Judges McLucas, Shaw and Bishop held that there was no other evidence connecting Manzi with the possession of the liquor, and reversed judgment for lack of evidence.

Less fortunate was Oscar Erickson, at whose residence, 416 East One Hundred and Twenty-first street, officers found seven quarts of 10 per cent beer which he is quoted as admitting were his. Municipal Judge Bogue gave him the alternative of a $500 fine or fifty days in jail. Erickson appealed, contending that the people had to show that this beer was intoxicating in fact. Judges McLucas, Shaw and Bishop held that this was not so, but that the fact that it was beer containing more than one-half of 1 per cent alcohol put it within the Wright Act. Judgment was affirmed.

Living Trees in Yule Contest to Receive Awards

The American Green Cross, an organization dedicated to forest conservation and reforestation, yesterday called attention to its annual living Christmas tree contest in support of the movement to prevent tree cutting in the Yuletide season. Trees will be judged for contour, decorations, and the thought inspiring the dressing. Last year a prize was awarded what had been termed “The Birds' Christmas Tree,” entered by school children. In addition to colorful ornaments, diced apples, tiny bottles of honey and strings of popcorn—the children's gifts to the birds—hung from its branches.

Representatives of civic organizations will be the judges and award prizes for the best entries. Trees must be registered with the American Green Cross, 428 Bradbury Building.

Wife Complains Husband Turned “Bad” for Her

Good in Russia, bad in America was her husband, according to the assertions made yesterday by Mrs. Pearl Chernin in Superior Judge Yankwich's court. She asked a divorce from Max Chernin, proprietor of a drive-in market.

“My husband is very bad to me. He was good to me in Russia, but has treated me badly in America,” Mrs. Chernin testified.

“There is nothing in American life to induce a man to treat his wife badly,” protested Judge Yankwich.

“But it had that effect on him,” insisted Mrs. Chernin. She admitted America was wonderful for the young, that her son Milton, 20 years of age, is taking his Ph.D. degree in economics at the University of California. Judge Yankwich granted the wife a decree.

PROBATION CONTINUED

The probation hearing of Charles P. Grundy, convicted on three counts of grand theft in an asserted promotion fraud, was continued by Superior Judge Aggeler yesterday until the 24th inst. The delay was granted to give probation officers additional time to prepare their reports.

COMMUNITY PAGEANT TO BE TONIGHT

Six Hundred Children to Take Part in Annual Fete on Steps of City Hall

Marking the opening of the Christmas holiday season in Los Angeles, the Spring street steps of the City Hall tonight will be the stage on which the third annual Community Pageant, “The Christmas Message,” will be presented by costumed groups of children, beginning at 8 o'clock.

The event, which has been designated as the city-wide observance of Christmas by the entire metropolitan area, will present a cast of 600 children, drawn from playgrounds, Boy Scout troops, Campfire Girl circles and other children's organizations in an expression of the yuletide spirit as known in Southern California.

Departing from the usual Christmas pageant scenes of ice and snow, the participants will pay tribute to the green yuletide season of the Southland in a series of dances, pantomime and tableaux. Supporting the cast with massed choral effects will be large groups of carol singers representing community choruses throughout the city and the St. Paul's Cathedral choir.

Reply Made by Tom Mix Denies Wife's Charges

Instead of neglecting his minor child, Tomasina, Tom Mix, screen cowboy, was always concerned for his daughter's welfare, he asserts in an answer to his wife's divorce complaint, on file yesterday.

In the complaint, Mrs. Victoria Mix related a series of assertedly cruel episodes, declaring that her husband stayed away from home for long periods, and once frightened her by playfully twirling about his trigger finger, a “large loaded pistol.” Mix denied this. He also denied he failed to provide liberally for his family.

According to the answer, filed by Attorneys Milton Cohen and C. O. Bacon, Mix and his wife have concluded a property settlement. The defendant states he is willing for Tomasina to remain with her mother, but asks to be allowed to see the child at reasonable intervals.

Newsreel Gives Army-Navy Grid Game Thrills

The “$600,000 Army-Navy game touchdown,” with Stecker making his 56-yard run in the recent game in New York City, the proceeds of which went to the jobless, is this week's outstanding thrill in The Times-Universal Newsreel. Graham McNamee describes it.

Two other rare picture shots are of Prince Nahubi Takamatsu, heir to the throne of Japan, at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Rome; and that of the presentation of colors by Mussolini to the newly formed antiaircraft legion of the Fascist army.

Further information concerning this schedule can be obtained by calling REpublic 3171 and asking about Newsreel No. 101.

SUPERVISORS FAVOR PRODUCTS OF COUNTY

Products manufactured in Los Angeles county hereafter will be purchased by the county government, when they are available, according to the text of a resolution adopted on motion of Supervisor Mahaffey yesterday. “Los Angeles-made products are as good as any made,” said the Supervisor, “and it is a good example to citizens for us to set—to buy all the home-made goods we can.” The resolution was directed to County Purchasing Agent Russell.

YOUTHS CONFESS ROBBERY

Two Hold-ups of Stillwell Cafeteria Declared by Police to Be Cleared Up

Continuing their round-up and inquiry into the activities of bandit suspects, police yesterday wrung from two youths confessions that they had participated in two recent robberies of Stillwell's Cafeteria at 633 South Main street. The two are William McManus, 19 years of age, and Harry B. Torrance, 14, of 842 West Ninth street.

McManus, who has only one arm and who formerly worked as a messenger, was taken in custody Thursday night, when officers learned he was acquainted with a gang of three suspects already under arrest. When Detective Lieutenants Wessel and O'Connor escorted him to his room they found Torrance there. Shortly afterward Edward Roberts, 38, called to see McManus; so the officers took him and Torrance also in custody. All three are booked on suspicion of robbery.

Until yesterday McManus and Torrance maintained their innocence but when confronted with accusations involving the cafeteria hold-ups, both broke down and admitted them, according to the officers.

About three weeks ago McManus was arrested for carrying a gun but was granted six months' probation. The police say he is linked with William R. Ryan, 22; Neal A. Reid, 19, and Carl Gearhardt, 28, who were jailed three weeks ago when they resisted investigation by Officer Craddock of Highland Park division. At that time, it is charged, Reid attempted to shoot Craddock, but the gun jammed. Gearhardt, the officers assert, is the man who held up Paul McTheeney on the 14th inst.

Failure to observe a boulevard stop signal at Washington and Figueroa streets yesterday caused the apprehension of another bandit-suspect. He identified himself as Lincoln Seelig, 23. When Seelig drove through the signal, traffic police chased him to Eighteenth and Oak streets. They reported finding a revolver and a pair of Ohio license plates in his car.

GIRL THROTTLES ARMED BANDIT

Miss Carmen Tofflemire Too Quick for C. B. Orr

Cafe Cashier Braves Shotgun and Drops Cash Drawer

Then Leaps Counter, Holds Marauder for Capture

PASADENA, Dec. 19.—When gunmen attempt to start operations again in this vicinity they will give a wide berth to a roadside cafe located at 2955 East Foothill Boulevard on the outskirts of this city.

The "reason why" is Miss Carmen Tofflemire, pretty 21-year-old athletic product of a North Dakota wheat ranch, who needed only her bare hands to subdue an armed bandit and turn him over to the police early today.

The suspect, who identified himself as Charles B. Orr, 25 years of age, of 1476 Glenn avenue, is asserted by police to have confessed to holding up three establishments here in recent weeks.

When he entered the boulevard cafe at 1 a.m., the bandit pointed a sawed-off shotgun at Miss Tofflemire, who was preparing to count her cash.

"Hand me the cash drawer!" the gunman demanded. The girl complied, but thinking quickly, she managed to drop the drawer on the floor upside down.

As Orr bent down to scoop the cash into a canvas sack, Miss Tofflemire hurdled the counter and secured such a firm strangle hold on the man's neck that he dropped his weapon and begged for mercy.

Three customers, Edward Mendibles, Conn Gerdon and Leonard Walker, took pity on the bandit and, coming to his rescue, held him in a less pitiless grip until police arrived. "Thank God that girl wasn't alone," groaned the suspect as he was handcuffed and placed in a police patrol car.

Miss Tofflemire was entirely unperturbed by the excitement.

"We don't stand for that kind of thing around Minot, N. D., where I was raised, and while I'm sorry for the bandit, he shouldn't have made me mad."

Mixed Quartet Held to Answer Bandit Counts

REDLANDS, Dec. 19.—Redlands mixed quartet of bandits were held to answer to the Superior Court on four more counts yesterday and today, two in Redlands, when taken before Judge C. G. Potter, and two in San Bernardino, before Judge George Holbrook, on charges of robbery and attempted robbery.

There is doubt as to whether Mrs. Louise Carter will be able to appear before Superior Court, soon as she will be confined to the County Hospital, being an expectant mother.

R. W. Boggess, of Redlands, who was the only one of the quartet represented by counsel, waived preliminary hearing, indicating that all will throw themselves on the mercy of the court. Boggess and Mrs. Carter are juveniles while the other two are not.

The four are believed to have taken part in at least a dozen holdups in this section but in all of them they did not secure more than $200. They told the police they had planned to leave that night and go somewhere where the people had more money.

More Taxes Paid at San Diego Than Last Year

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 19.—Street improvement taxes paid into the City Treasurer's office to date this year are $70,000 higher than the figure for last year, a survey completed today showed. In face of reports of delinquent taxes, Jack Millan, City Treasurer, said today that these payments indicate property owners have the money and are willing to pay taxes for street improvements.

The amount collected up to today this year totals $320,000, as compared with $250,000 for the same period last year. The figure denoting the increase does not represent a greater amount of street work. On the contrary, the amount of work completed this year is less than that recorded for 1929.

TRIO HELD IN WRECKED CAR ESCAPE

Arroyo Grande Family Saved by Policeman From Being Struck by Train

SANTA BARBARA, Dec. 19.—Three persons narrowly escaped death early today, when the driver of a car failed to make a boulevard stop, shot across an intersection, careened into a water tank, and crashed a pile of wreckage on the Southern Pacific tracks in the path of a freight train.

Occupants of the car were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Perez and son of Arroyo Grande. A patrolman, first to reach the scene of the accident, ran down the railroad tracks several hundred yards and succeeded in hailing to a stop the oncoming freight train a mere twenty feet before it reached the wrecked car and its pinioned occupants.

A few minutes later all three occupants of the automobile were extracted and found to be none the worse for their experience.

MOTORIST HURT IN CRASH AND ONE DRIVER HELD

POMONA, Dec. 19.—As a result of an automobile crash at the intersection of Holt and Towne avenues today, Richard Hill of 701 North San Antonio avenue, is suffering from a wrenched back and other injuries, while Frank Glenn, 31, R.F.D., Claremont, was arrested, and later released on $125 bail, on charges of drunkenness and carrying a concealed weapon.

Judge E. H. Bowen ordered Glenn to appear for hearing in Police Court next Monday morning.

Young Hill was riding with his father, Frank T. Hill, who was driving east on Holt avenue. Hill stated that Glenn was traveling west on Holt and asserts that the accused cut the corner in turning south on Towne avenue. The two cars crashed and ended up badly smashed against the curbing.

An examination by police is asserted to have revealed that Glenn had been drinking.

GRAND JURY NAMED IN SUIT

Complaint Filed in Santa Ana Asking San Diego Body of Inquisitors Show Cause for Denying Claims

SANTA ANA, Dec. 19.—A resolution said to have been adopted by the San Diego county grand jury in which the jurors are asserted to have urged the County Supervisors to refuse to pay claims of engineers and attorneys for work done on special assessment districts which are abandoned, today had led to the filing of a complaint in the Orange County Superior Court asking an order directing the grand jurors to show cause why they should not be judged in contempt of court and punished.

The action, first of its kind filed in Orange county, and looked upon as a rarity in legal circles, was filed by Engineer E. L. Freeland and is directed against the nineteen members of the grand jury whose names are set forth in the complaint. Freeland recites that he filed suit October 4 in which he asked for $47,253.35 for special services rendered in the preparation of proceedings for the Mission Valley sanitary sewer district, a project later abandoned. Hugh A. Sanders and Y. A. Jacques, attorneys, and G. L. Lewis, engineer, are named as having filed other suits involving the same situation, all of them being of record in Orange county and naming the county of San Diego and the Board of Supervisors as defendants.

The complaint asserts that in adopting a resolution urging the public officials to refuse to pay claims for special services for districts later abandoned, the grand jurors attempted to intimidate witnesses, expressed an opinion on the merits of the actions pending here, that inasmuch as the resolution does not constitute an indictment, it is not privileged, and hence is in violation and neglect of the duties of the grand jury.

The grand jury resolution was passed the 16th inst. and published in a San Diego newspaper the 17th inst., according to the complaint. The total of the suits involved is $68,415.93, it was shown.

SNOW CARNIVALS PLANNED

Rim of the World League Announces Dates for Series of Events During January and February

SAN BERNARDINO, Dec. 19.—Entertainment for thousands of visitors in the San Bernardino Mountains this winter has been provided at a meeting of the Rim of World League, comprised of mountain-resort owners, with the announcement of several carnivals during January and February.

Indicating that Southern California business men are co-operating in the program of boosting attendance, it was announced that 1000 Los Angeles drugstores will display sports clothing as well as literature about the carnivals throughout January.

Similar arrangements have been made in San Bernardino Valley cities, it was announced by Charles S. Mann, secretary of the league. Under plans at present special trains will be run from San Diego and Los Angeles to San Bernardino at special fares. Dates of the carnivals are:

Lake Arrowhead, January 10 and 11; Camp Seely, January 17 and 18; Twin Peaks, January 24 and 25; Big Pines, January 31 and February 1 and 2.

The various mountain communities also decided to enter a booth at the National Orange Show. President Louis Wolff and Manager R. H. Mack of the show have set aside February 26 as "Mountain Day" and special invitations are being sent to mountain residents.

Plans are also being furthered for the mountain parade to be held early in the year, the date to be decided upon at the January meeting. Tentative plans provide for a monster parade in San Bernardino after which residents of the city will be invited to tour the various mountain communities. Dinner will be served at Big Bear and other entertainment features arranged.

YULETIDE FETE FOR CHILDREN

Westminster on Monday to Distribute Gifts to Them From Giant Tree

WESTMINSTER, Dec. 19.—Next Monday evening fathers, mothers and children will turn out in full force to gather around the community Christmas tree to make merry. The Westminster Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the gala event and has appointed the following civic-minded citizens to make all of its arrangements: James M. Monroe, Postmaster Clyde Day, Dr. Russell I. Johnson, George Clough, Raymond Burns, Joe Edward and A. G. Snow.

From the tree, brilliantly lighted, old St. Nick will pick off stockings filled with candy, nuts, apples and oranges, and give them to all of the children in the community present. While the merrymakers are gathered around the tree, located on the school grounds, Christmas carols will be sung, which will be led by Mrs. Anna Campbell.

Other features of the yuletide program will be Christmas stories told by Rev. Cyril Carter, pastor of the Westminster Church, and Rev. Jiminez, pastor of the local Mexican Methodist Church.

On Tuesday evening the Westminster Presbyterian Church will hold its annual Christmas program. All classes of the Sunday-school will be represented in some way on the evening's program.

Members of the Christian Endeavor of the church will present a Christmas pageant, entitled "Bethlehem" on Sunday evening. Mrs. T. E. Turpin is directing the playlet.

COMMUNITY CHRISTMAS TREE PARTY AT POMONA

POMONA, Dec. 19.—Plans for the annual community Christmas tree program were completed today, according to J. J. Coleman, chairman of the program committee, the event to take place Tuesday night beginning at 6:30 o'clock in the Greek Theater. R. D. Williams, general chairman, also announced that this year's celebration will be complete in every detail and will be the mecca for hundreds of children as well as grown-ups.

The program includes Christmas carols, stories and other musical treats. Hundreds of bags of candy, raisins and apples will be distributed by Santa Claus and his aides at the close of the program.

MASONS GIVE YULETIDE PARTY FOR CHILDREN

MONROVIA, Dec. 19.—Combined Masonic organizations of this community tendered their eighth annual Christmas party this evening to the 160 children living in the Masonic Children's Home at Covina.

The guests were brought here in thirty automobiles under police escort and first treated to a film program at the Lyric Theater. They were then taken to the Masonic Temple, where supper was served and gifts distributed by a waiting Santa Claus.

Members of the Order of Eastern Star and Order of Job's Daughters assisted at the affair.

The party was inaugurated eight years ago by Blue Lodge, No. 308.

Airport Plans Told to Council

FULLERTON, Dec. 19.—A general improvement program is being contemplated by the City Council with respect to the Fullerton Municipal Airport. Dr. George McClelland, chairman of the aviation committee of the Fullerton Chamber of Commerce, presented E. R. Sturzeneger who explained his plans to the Council.

Sturzeneger said that he had an option to purchase the twenty-six acres west of the present airport and would extend the landing-field runway across the property, asking in return, a ten-year lease on the entire airport and the right to farm enough of the city property to make up for the part used by the runway. In addition he proposed to purchase the hangars on the property and rent them to flyers.

Administrative offices for the field are to be built on the southwest corner under his plan. He will also give the city an option to purchase the twenty-six acres over a ten-year period for $26,000. Additional hangars will be constructed at the field, he reported. The matter was taken under advisement by the Council.

Rotarians Enjoy Yuletide Party

CLAREMONT, Dec. 19.—Claremont Rotarians enjoyed a unique meeting today when Dr. Aubrey A. Douglass was program chairman entertaining the members with a Rotary Christmas party.

Immediately following the giving of humorous gifts to each member, the club adjourned to Griswold's marmalade and candied-fruit factory, where they were shown through the plant, which is in the midst of its busiest season now. Thousands of shipments have been mailed or expressed east by this firm, which also has retail outlets in Pasadena and Hollywood.

It was announced today that the local Kiwanis Club will meet with Rotary on the 26th inst.

City Building Inspector at Redlands Out

REDLANDS, Dec. 19.—M. E. Armstrong, local building inspector, and in charge of the work for twenty-one years, was removed from office by the City Council today, to take effect on January 15. L. H. Cooper, who has been superintendent of many large building operations here, was appointed to the position.

Commissioner F. A. Alexander of the City Council, who has jurisdiction of the building department work, reported to the Council that he had made a patient effort to get Armstrong to put his records in shape, but that he had been unsuccessful. "Now I am through, and want to recommend that he be removed from office," said Alexander.

Cooper was superintendent of construction on the Community Hospital and has also just been the superintendent of construction for the nurses' home, which will soon be complete.

Large Verdict in Crash Case

SANTA ANA, Dec. 19.—Following a trial that lasted more than three days in the court of Superior Judge Homer G. Ames, a jury last night returned a verdict for $30,000 in damages to G. C. Rogers, who was injured in a traffic accident that occurred on September 28, 1929, at the intersection of Huntington Beach Boulevard and Holt street, Huntington Beach.

According to a complaint filed by the plaintiff, represented by Attorney Charles B. Robinson, his car was struck by a stage coach owned by the Motor Transit Company and driven by H. C. Reeves. The transportation company was named defendant in the case.

Attorneys Franklin G. West and S. B. Kaufman, representing the transportation company, announced that they would file a motion for a new trial.

SPANISH WAR CAMP AUXILIARY ELECTS

HUNTINGTON PARK, Dec. 19. The auxiliary of the William Mitchell United Spanish War Veterans' Camp has elected Mrs. Ella Wilson, president; Mrs. Ruth Akey, senior vice-president; Mrs. Dorothy Lockhard, junior vice-president; Mrs. Mary Kircher, chaplain; Mrs. Blanche Terflinger, patriotic instructor; Mrs. Catherine Smits, historian; Mrs. Carrie Warrell, conductor; Mrs. Jessie Ross, assistant conductor; Mrs. Rule Rogers, guard; Mrs. Catherine Borgenson, assistant guard. Appointed officers are Mrs. Maude Swinford, secretary; Mrs. Emma Cole, treasurer; Miss Hannah Ayers, Mrs. Zada Holiman, Mrs. Edith Ray, color guard, and Mrs. Josephine Galbraith, publicity chairman. Installation will be held on the night of January 2, next.

IMPERIAL'S PAGEANT IN HEAVY DEBT

Directors of Association Ask Valley Chambers' Aid in Raising $5000 Deficit

IMPERIAL, Dec. 19.—Imperial Valley's pageant, "The Desert Calls," which was presented for the first time last November under the auspices of the chambers of commerce of all Valley towns, is faced with a deficit of more than $5000, it was revealed last night when the pageant committee met with representatives of the Associated Chambers of Commerce, to discuss the project.

J. S. Camperon, president of the pageant society, reported that an investment of more than $4000 in permanent properties for the show was responsible for the deficit.

A request was made that the Associated Chambers lend a portion of its surplus funds to the pageant society to help meet the unpaid obligations, but final decision as to this loan was postponed until a future meeting.

Redlands Will Make Air Safe for Radiocracy

REDLANDS, Dec. 19.—Redlands will clear the air for the radio owners, it was announced today, the City Council and the Radio Trades Council here having come to an agreement on the payment of $75 a month for an inspector who will trace down all the interference.

John Yount, who will furnish his own equipment, will be the interference detective. He plans to work the city by sections, trace the interference down, and order it removed under the city ordinance which provides that all electrical equipment causing interference must be shielded.

It is believed that at least 90 per cent of the interference in the city can be eliminated, and Yount feels sure he can do most of it in three months' time, so that thereafter he will have to give only part time to the work.

The city ordinance provides that all doctors' electrical machines, which usually cause trouble, must be carefully shielded.

Hermosa Gives Yuletide Party

HERMOSA BEACH, Dec. 19.—One thousand Christmas stockings filled with nuts and raisins, candy and fruit, will be distributed to the kiddies of this district from the municipal Christmas tree at Pier and Hermosa avenues here, in the annual Christmas event on the evening of the 23rd inst.

Mayor John W. Clark in the role of Santa Claus will distribute the gifts and an hour of community singing, under the leadership of Mrs. George Learned, will follow.

The stockings have been prepared by a general committee representing twenty-one organizations, and are of unusually generous proportions. Mrs. Frank Philo and Mrs. W. W. Wilkinson had direct charge of the work.

Orange Banks to Cut Melon

ORANGE, Dec. 19.—Distribution of approximately $55,000 among investors in the First National Bank and its affiliated institution, the Orange Savings Bank, will be made January 1, it was revealed today by N. T. Edwards, president of the First National, and H. L. Haynes, president of the savings institution. The fund distribution represents the annual dividends as well as the semiannual interest payments of the combined institutions.

The finance committee at its last meeting recommended payment of the dividend, which amounts to $2.50 per share on 12,000 shares of outstanding stock, comprising ownership of the two home-owned banks.

CLUB ELECTS

HUNTINGTON PARK, Dec. 19.—Charles Krebbs has been elected president of the 20-30 Club, George Welschymer is to become the first vice-president, Olan Hagen secretary and Eric McLachlan treasurer. The new directors are to be Cecil Violet and Mahlon Chamber. They will be installed at the first meeting of the club in January, to serve six months.

DISTRICT POLITICS LIVELY

D. W. Wiest, Assessor for Imperial Irrigation Body, Announces Candidacy for Re-election

EL CENTRO, Dec. 19.—Announcement today by D. W. Wiest, Assessor for the Imperial Irrigation District, that he would be a candidate for re-election on February 4 when the regular district elections are to be held, added new interest to a campaign which already is stirring up factional excitement in Imperial Valley.

Wiest will be opposed by Miss Vinnie Barry, who has served for several years as chief deputy in the district assessor's office. She is a sister of C. W. Barry, whose death a year ago was followed by the appointment of Wiest.

A campaign of denunciation has developed in the Brawley division where a new district director is to be elected next year. Earl C. Pound, president of the board, is being opposed by F. W. Greer, one of his staunchest supporters in previous years. That the race in the north end of the valley will be a three-cornered affair was indicated this week when Frank Beal, former Assemblyman from Imperial county, announced that either he or another candidate would be in the race against both Pound and Greer.

In El Centro division, Ira C. Aten, incumbent director, is to be opposed by Calvin G. Mousseau, defeated candidate for Sheriff at the county elections this year. Propaganda being put out by the candidates indicates that the all-American Canal contract is to be the main issue in the election campaign.

Both Greer and Aten have given unqualified indorsement to the canal project, while Pound has announced that he is opposed to a contract which would extend Imperial Valley's established water rights to "arid lands now outside of the district."

FOOTHILL OPENING SET

Frank Wheeler of Claremont, Chairman, Announces Plans for Celebration January 13

CLAREMONT, Dec. 19.—Many State and county notables are planning to be here on January 13 to attend the official opening celebration of the Foothill Boulevard, it was announced today by Frank Wheeler, general chairman of the celebration committee. Word has been received from Bert B. Meek, outgoing commissioner of roads and highways, that he will be present and will be glad to take part in the evening program.

An invitation also is being extended Governor-elect Rolph to be present. S. B. Cortelyou, chief engineer of the State Highway Department in this section, will be present, and Engineer Purcell of the State Highway Department and chief of division, has stated that he will attend. Delegations are planning to be here from the cities located on the boulevard from Pasadena to San Bernardino.

Plans for the program call for the opening celebration on Foothill Boulevard in the afternoon. Movies will be shown following this event and will present reels taken by the Southern California Automobile Club expedition which made its trail-seeing trip to Mexico City recently.

Dinner probably will be served in the Guild Hall, where the principal program will be held. It was first hoped that a more extensive program could be held on the boulevard, but this is believed to be impossible because of weather conditions.

Wheeler has been asked to present a short history of the project upon which he has seen development since its inception.

San Clemente May Get State Park Location

SANTA ANA, Dec. 19.—The State Park Commission intends to push through to completion its suit to condemn the Huntington Beach park site, and apparently intends to purchase that site for a State park, but hope has not been abandoned for location also of a State park at San Clemente, it was learned today. Chairman Walter L. Bigham of the County Planning Commission reported to the body at its meeting that he had accompanied Supervisor George Jeffrey and a committee from San Clemente and Capistrano Beach to interview H. W. O'Melveny, chairman of the State Park Commission, who informed them regarding plans for the Huntington Beach site, but at the same time advised them to "get all the beach frontage they can." The State Park Commission will purchase as much frontage as it can arrange for, the committee was told.

O'Melveny stated, according to Dr. Bigham, that the Park Commission would not be interested in acquiring the San Clemente Golf Club and its 160-acre course. Accordingly, Hamilton Cotton, San Clemente representative, today mailed a new offer to the State Park Commission, proposing sale of 6000 feet of beach frontage at San Clemente with the former price of $500,000 reduced to $400,000.

Store No Loser From Robbery

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 19.—Although local police are searching for the three bandits who held up employees of Hamilton's store Tuesday night, the management of the store is only mildly interested in the cracksmen's capture. True, the bandits escaped with $1422.32—and it takes a lot of groceries to bring in that much money, but Clarence Smith, cashier for the store, "recovered" the full amount promptly—hardly more than thirty-six hours after the robbery, and that is why Hamilton's isn't worried.

Records of the store were in excellent condition. It didn't take long for the claim department of Barney and Barney, in the Scripps Building, to verify the exact amount of the loss. Next they wrote a check. Then they presented the draft to Smith, "in full settlement" for the robbery. The policy was written by the Hartford Accident and Indemnity Company.

Anglers Supply Fish to Mission

OCEAN PARK, Dec. 19.—Visiting anglers to Southern California's leviathan pleasure fishing vessel, the Star of Scotland, operating from the Lick Pier at Ocean Park, will hereafter find the surplus catches finding a way to a better cause.

It has been customary with the crew of the big former Alaska packer to cast over the side all fish left by visitors. During the present seasonal mackerel run hundreds of pounds of fish have been so handled daily.

Capt. C. S. Arnold of the Star realized this an unnecessary waste, and immediately got in touch with the Los Angeles Midnight Mission authorities with the result that hereafter the Mission truck will visit the Lick Pier at least twice a week, providing many hundreds of fish dinners for the needy, much preferable than wasting all these fresh fish.

Cash Released for Gift Buying

INGLEWOOD, Dec. 19.—Approximately $25,000 has been released for distribution in this and other communities for Christmas buying to members of the Christmas Savings Club of the People's Building and Loan Association, it is announced by Sanford M. Anderson, president of the association.

Memberships in the Christmas Savings Club for next Christmas are already being secured, according to Anderson. Individual savings during the year just closing ranged from $253 to $26.50, representing weekly payments of from 50 cents to $5 for a period of fifty weeks.

KIWANIANS IN BIRTHDAY OBSERVANCE

Forty Charter Members of Riverside Service Club at Tenth Anniversary Event

RIVERSIDE, Dec. 19.—With forty charter members present, the Riverside Kiwanis Club today celebrated its tenth birthday anniversary at a home-coming at the Y.M.C.A. The observance was given over to an informal program honoring the veteran clubmen and sixteen former members who returned for the anniversary.

The principal feature of the event was the presentation to Dr. W. B. Payton and O. B. Ormiston of gifts out of appreciation for their perfect attendance records. Since the club was chartered they have never missed attending a meeting of the organization or making up absences at other Kiwanis sessions.

The former members who returned for the birthday party were Superior Judge O. K. Morton, Dr. James Reid, E. B. Culnan, Denzil Coldren, S. L. Herrick, P. B. Hurley, William Wood, B. F. Nelligan, C. S. Underwood, F. H. Wells, T. F. Flaherty, J. E. Herbert, Milfred Parker, A. C. Ferrier and Steve Gile.

Harold A. Tiernan, president of the club, disclosed that Attorney A. Heber Winder, former international trustee, has attended all but one of the club's sessions in its ten years' history.

An ingenious history of the club in rhyme was given by Dr. John Esgate, chairman of the educational committee. One unusual portion of the review dealt with the past presidents, the late Ross L. Hammond, A. Heber Winder, Dr. W. W. Roblee, Dr. H. S. Reed, Ira C. Landis, R. D. Whitehead, E. B. Criddle, A. A. Piddington, C. O. Reid and Harold A. Tiernan.

Anaheim Man Hopes There's a Santa Claus

ANAHEIM, Dec. 19.—F. Fuller, 520 Chestnut street, is hoping there is a Santa Claus. Years ago he heard that there was, but in the interval—well, things have turned up that have disturbed his mind on the subject. Now the matter is on his mind in a manner that leaves no doubt as to the fervor of his hopes.

Yesterday Fuller found a seat on the running-board of his car, which was parked on the main street of the city. After he had moved the car, some time later he discovered that his wallet, containing approximately $600, had fallen from his pocket and disappeared.

Today he has advertised, hoping that the renowned power of a newspaper advertisement may influence the benign deed of Santa Claus.

RUNAWAY LAD FOUND DOZING IN BATHTUB

WALNUT PARK, Dec. 19.—After running away from his home in El Centro, Francis Vaught, 14 years of age, reached Walnut Park, and as he was weary of his long journey entered the home of Mrs. Wiley Hummer of East Florence avenue, unbeknown to the woman of the house. When she happened to open the bathroom door yesterday she was surprised to find a lad asleep in the bathtub. Deputy sheriffs were called and when they arrived they took charge of the lad, who gave his name and the statement that he had run away from home. He was later turned over to Juvenile Hall authorities.

ADMIRAL IN HOSPITAL

SAN BERNARDINO, Dec. 19.—Admiral

(retired,) who distinguished himself for

World War as commander of the United

North Sea, is a patient in the Ramona hospital

Harris Garcelon, San Bernardino physician, lungs contracted during the war.

Admiral Barnette, who is 52 years of age, late in 1917 contracted influenza as a result of spending thirty-six hours at a time on the bridge of his ship during stormy weather. He was confined to an American hospital in France for several weeks but recovered and went back to active command of his squadron.

He never fully recovered from the case of influenza, however. After the war he suffered an ailment of the lungs, which was said to have been a direct result of the influenza. He was confined to the Naval Base Hospital at San Diego for several weeks and was discharged four years ago.

Three years ago, Admiral Barnette suffered again with lung trouble. This time he entered a hospital at Victorville and was under the care of Dr. Garcelon. He recovered sufficiently and was discharged from the Victorville Institution.

Last Monday he arrived in San Bernardino, again complaining of

COUNTY GRAND JURY REPORT

Riverside Inquisitors M Annual Statement

"All Officers but One" H Faithful to Duties

References Made to Audit Indicted and in Prison

RIVERSIDE, Dec. 19.— grand jury has found that all ficers of Riverside county h faithfully discharged their d during the past year, except o

With this statement, Fore Charles Brouse of the grand filed with Superior Judge O. Freeman the inquisitors' annual port today.

The jury's report is comm tory to every office and depart in the county, with the one exc tion. An addenda to be filed will give a complete statistical count of the County Auditor's fice during the administration Harry Raymer, former County ditor. Raymer was indicted by grand jury and is now serving indeterminate term in San Q penitentiary.

"Inasmuch as the County Au tor pleaded guilty to the cha on which he was indicted by grand jury," a supplement to report added, "it has been de wise by the grand jury to have auditor make a complete audit the County Auditor's books records."

The jury also recommended "proper authorities take such as are necessary to provide a whereby grand jurors shall be lected for a period of three y and in which time approxima one-third of said jurors so select shall retire from office each and the vacancy caused thereby by any other reason, shall be f by the present plan of selection

It is asserted in a resolution tached to the report that inve gations by the grand jury could more competently handled if tenure of office were increased provide the three-year term.

Amendment of the State statu governing the activities of gr juries and defining the methods which members may be ch would be necessary before the lution's suggestion could be pu practice.

THINK YOU CAN HIT A TURKEY?

Public Shooting Match Begins Today

Deputy Chief Davis and Kathryn Foltz

OPPORTUNITY to win Christmas turkeys, ducks, geese and the trimmin's and at the same time to test the shooting ability of every man, woman or youngster who wishes to compete, will be offered the public at a turkey shoot to be held at the police pistol range in Elysian Park today and tomorrow under the auspices of the Los Angeles Police Revolver Club.

This is the first time such a meet has been thrown open to the general public, according to Deputy Chief Davis, national champion pistol shot, and president of the recently organized revolver club, and a considerable crowd is expected.

The shoot begins at 10 a.m. "Come," reads the club circular, "and bring the family." And don't forget that a free lunch will be served at 1 p.m.

The shoot includes revolver, pistor, rifle and shotgun matches and will be so arranged, according to Chief Davis, that the unskilled will have just as good a chance to win prizes as the skilled marksman. Officers will be on hand to help individual groups to shoot matches among themselves also.

The principal matches will be as follows:

Revolver, slow fire: Five shots at twenty-five yards: 100-yard small bore target.

Revolver, rapid fire: Five shots in 10 seconds at twenty-five yards. Standard American twenty-five-yard target.

Pistol, slow fire: Five shots at twenty-five yards. 100-yard small bore target.

Any pistol or revolver: One shot at twenty-five yards. 100-yard small bore target. Closest to center wins.

Ladies match, pistol or revolver: Five shots slow fire at fifteen yards. 100-yard small bore target.

Rifle, 22 caliber, iron sights: Slow fire, off hand, twenty-five and fifty yards. 100-yards small bore target. Also a match at novelty turkey target at twenty-five yards.

Rifle, gallery short range 22 caliber: Shoot quarter-inch white spot completely out in three shots and win a ten-pound turkey. Guns and ammunition for this match furnished by the club.

Shotgun: One shot at stationary target at twenty-five yards. Shots in the bull's-eye will be scored, high score winning. Splatterboard matches will also be one of the events in which everyone has an equal chance.

Entrance fees are all 50 cents except in the rifle and shotgun matches. Fees for these shoots will be 25 cents.

The Los Angeles Police Revolver Club was recently organized by the police pistol team after its members had brought home numerous national honors from the annual national and international matches at Camp Perry, O., and shot their way to international fame when they defeated the Royal Canadian Mounted Police team, the crack aggregation from Canada.

"In these days of widespread crime and with bandits and gangsters so numerous, every citizen should be an expert shot so that he may protect himself and his home," declared Deputy Chief Davis. "Through the compulsory monthly shoots held in the police department the majority of our officers are extremely proficient with the revolver. These public shoots will be held from time to time so that the public may become interested and be given a chance to learn marksmanship while at the same time taking part in a good, clean sporting contest."

EINSTEIN COURSE OFFERED

Einstein's theory of relativity is the subject of a new evening course to be given at university college, University of Southern California, beginning January 5. A simplified consideration of the fundamental ideas and conclusions of Einstein's theory will be considered. Boris Podolsky, who has been studying in Leipzig with Prof. Heisenberg during the past year, will conduct the course.

Baskets Asked for 400 More Needy Families

If some kind souls or charitable organizations will furnish the baskets, Captain Slaughter, head of the police juvenile bureau will furnish the names of 400 families who have been found in real need of such Christmas cheer as can be distributed in this form, he announced yesterday.

Capt. Slaughter said he had been requested by the Breakfast Club to have such families investigated by division commanders so that they might be provided with baskets. When the investigation was concluded Capt. Slaughter had a list of 650 families. The Breakfast Club is making provisions for 250 of these.

Who will help out, asks the juvenile commander, with the other 400?

Officers Seize Eleven [illegible] and Many Tick[illegible]

Woman Arrested on C[illegible] of Possessing Li[illegible]

Canadian and Cuban [illegible] Venture Broken Up

Thousands in Southern C[illegible] and near-by points who bought lottery tickets in the hope of [illegible] lucky wealth are certain of [illegible] disappointment, police [illegible] last night, because of a raid on [illegible] fices in the San Fernando Bu[illegible] described as local headquarters [illegible] various well-known lotteries.

Eleven men and a woman [illegible] arrested by the raiders. The [illegible] the men pleaded not guilty [illegible] charges of form chart and [illegible] possession in Municipal C[illegible] Judge Curtis fixed $100 bail [illegible] case, and set January 10 for [illegible] jury trial.

SWEEPSTAKES LOTT[illegible]

Thousands of tickets in the [illegible] and Navy Veterans of C[illegible] Sweepstakes, the Cuban [illegible] stakes and other chance-taking [illegible] tures were seized by the raiders [illegible] were checks of $1000 just [illegible] it is said, from ticket [illegible] hoping to win wealth. Finally [illegible] raiders assert, they found [illegible] that the San Fernando office [illegible] as the local agency for various baseball pools and [illegible] guessing ventures.

Officers Barclay, [illegible] of the Central Division [illegible] and Investigators Brandon and [illegible] of the City Prosecutor's office [illegible] the raid and arrests.

In the San Fernando office [illegible] took into custody Roy Specht [illegible] cused of being the district [illegible] ager, and the following [illegible] agents: Tyler Sprague, [illegible] ling, Hobart Murphy, Paul [illegible] olds, Edward Stephen, [illegible] mett, Bill M. Jones, [illegible] and Sidney Horn.

WOMAN ARRESTED

Going from the San F[illegible] Building to Specht's home at [illegible] South Bronson avenue, they [illegible] ed his wife, Mrs. Agnes Specht [illegible] er, it is charged, they found [illegible] quarts of liquor and more [illegible] tickets. The charge against [illegible] Specht was violation of the [illegible] possession law.

Then the raiders went to the home of Reynolds, [illegible] where, they say, they found [illegible] quarts of liquor in addition to [illegible] assortment of lottery tickets [illegible] they took into custody [illegible] man, who is accused of having [illegible] a revolver in his possession [illegible] who was booked on [illegible] robbery as well as violation of [illegible] Wright Act and antilottery law.

Capt. McD. Jones, in [illegible] charge of the raid, announced [illegible] night he had invited the Federal authorities also to proceed [illegible] the asserted lottery agents [illegible] charges of using the mails to [illegible] fraud, but that no decision [illegible] this had been reached.

Police Auction Scheduled for Today

"HERE yuh are, folks. Step right up and see for yourselves if there isn't a Santa Claus. What am I offered for this handsome silver-toned cornet? Every note guaranteed to harmonize with your ear for music and your pocketbook."

Something like this will start the semiannual police department auction at Central Police Station at 9 o'clock this morning. And strange as it may seem, there is a cornet among the many and varied articles to be offered to the highest bidder. Stranger still are some of the other things which have remained unclaimed for more than a year [illegible] the office of Capt. Ross, [illegible] property clerk. There are [illegible] watches and bracelets, [illegible] and radios and [illegible] heaters and manicure sets [illegible] cycles and, as usual, [illegible] and suit cases.

The auction will be held under the supervision of Police [illegible] McDonald, who, by the way, [illegible] quite some trumpeter yesterday [illegible] out the cornet [illegible] Ross accompanying [illegible] lele, and reported the instrument [illegible] fine condition.
